- (1) The number of shares of common stock, par value $0.75 per share ("Chevron Common Stock"), of Chevron Corporation ("Chevron") being registered is based upon an estimate of (a) the maximum number of common units representing limited partner interests ("NBLX Common Units") other than NBLX Common Units held directly or indirectly by Chevron and its subsidiaries (all such NBLX Common Units held by persons other than Chevron and its subsidiaries, the "NBLX Public Common Units") of Noble Midstream Partners LP ("NBLX") that will be outstanding immediately prior to the Merger (as defined herein) and exchanged for such registered shares of Chevron Common Stock in connection with the Merger (including Partnership LTIP Awards (as defined herein) that, whether vested or not vested, will cease to relate to or represent a right with respect to an NBLX Common Unit and shall be converted into an award relating to shares of Chevron Common Stock on the same terms and conditions as were applicable to the corresponding Partnership LTIP Award (a "Converted Parent Award"), except that the number of shares of Chevron Common Stock covered by each such Converted Parent Award shall be equal to the number of NBLX Common Units subject to the corresponding Partnership LTIP Award multiplied by the Exchange Ratio (as defined herein), rounded up to the nearest whole unit), multiplied by (b) the Exchange Ratio of 0.1393 shares of Chevron Common Stock for each such NBLX Public Common Unit, and includes an additional 30,000 shares of Chevron Common Stock that may be issuable as a result of the provision of the Merger Agreement (as defined herein) that rounds up to the nearest share in lieu of issuing fractional shares (the shares of Chevron Common Stock to be issued in the Merger, the "Merger Consideration").

- (3) Calculated by multiplying the proposed maximum aggregate offering price by .0001091.

The registrant hereby amends this registration statement on such date or dates as may be necessary to delay its effective date until the registrant shall file a further amendment which specifically states that this registration statement shall thereafter become effective in accordance with section 8(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 or until the registration statement shall become effective on such date as the Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to said section 8(a), may determine.

PRELIMINARY—SUBJECT TO COMPLETION, DATED MARCH 22, 2021

On March 4, 2021, Chevron Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“Chevron”), Cadmium Holdings Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Chevron (“Holdings”), Cadmium Merger Sub LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and a wholly owned subsidiary of Holdings (“Merger Sub”), Noble Midstream Partners LP, a Delaware limited partnership (“NBLX”), and Noble Midstream GP LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and the general partner of NBLX (the “General Partner”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into NBLX, with NBLX surviving as an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Chevron (the “Merger”).

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, (i) each common unit representing limited partner interests in NBLX (“NBLX Common Units”) outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger (the “Effective Time”), other than NBLX Common Units held directly or indirectly by Chevron and its subsidiaries (all such NBLX Common Units held by persons other than Chevron and its subsidiaries, the “NBLX Public Common Units,” and the holders of such units, the “NBLX Public Unitholders”), will be converted into the right to receive 0.1393 shares (the “Exchange Ratio”) of common stock, par value $0.75 per share, of Chevron (“Chevron Common Stock,” and the shares of Chevron Common Stock to be issued in the Merger, the “Merger Consideration”), and (ii) each of the outstanding equity awards relating to an NBLX Common Unit issued under the Partnership Long-Term Incentive Plan (as defined in the Merger Agreement) (each, a “Partnership LTIP Award”), whether vested or not vested, will cease to relate to or represent a right with respect to an NBLX Common Unit and shall be converted into an award relating to shares of Chevron Common Stock on the same terms and conditions as were applicable to the corresponding Partnership LTIP Award (a “Converted Parent Award”) (including the right to receive dividend or dividend equivalents with respect to such Converted Parent Award if the corresponding Partnership LTIP Award included distribution or distribution equivalent rights), except that the number of shares of Chevron Common Stock covered by each such Converted Parent Award shall be equal to the number of NBLX Common Units subject to the corresponding Partnership LTIP Award multiplied by the Exchange Ratio, rounded up to the nearest whole unit. The interests in NBLX owned by Chevron and its subsidiaries will remain outstanding as limited partner interests in the surviving entity. The non-economic general partner interest in NBLX held by the General Partner will continue as a non-economic general partner interest in the surviving entity, and the General Partner will continue as the sole general partner of the surviving entity. No fractional shares of Chevron Common Stock will be issued in the Merger; instead, all fractional shares of Chevron Common Stock to which an NBLX Public Unitholder otherwise would have been entitled will be aggregated and the resulting fraction of a share of Chevron Common Stock will be rounded up to the nearest whole share of Chevron Common Stock. Existing stockholders of Chevron (the “Chevron Stockholders”) will continue to own their existing Chevron Common Stock following completion of the Merger.

On March 4, 2021, the conflicts committee (the “Conflicts Committee”) of the board of directors of the General Partner (the “GP Board”), by unanimous vote (a) determined that the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, are in, or not adverse to, the interests of NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders, (b) approved the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby (the foregoing constituting “Special Approval” as defined in the Second Amended and Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership of NBLX, dated November 14, 2019 (the “Partnership Agreement”)), (c) resolved to recommend to the GP Board the approval of the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and (d) resolved to recommend to the GP Board that the GP Board recommend the approval of the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, to the limited partners of NBLX (the “NBLX Limited Partners”).

On March 4, 2021, the GP Board (acting, in part, based upon the receipt of such approval and recommendation of the Conflicts Committee), by unanimous vote (a) determined that the forms, terms and provisions of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, are in, or not adverse to, the interests of NBLX and the NBLX Limited Partners, (b) approved the execution, delivery and performance of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the respective transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, and (c) directed that the adoption of the Merger Agreement and the approval of the Merger be submitted to a vote of the NBLX Limited Partners and authorized the NBLX Limited Partners to act by written consent pursuant to the terms of the Partnership Agreement.

Pursuant to the Partnership Agreement, the approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger by NBLX requires the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of a majority of the outstanding NBLX Common Units. On March 4, 2021, Chevron caused NBL Midstream, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and its indirect, wholly owned subsidiary (“NBL”), which beneficially owns 56,447,616 NBLX Common Units, representing approximately 62.4% of the outstanding NBLX Common Units, to deliver a written consent (the “Written Consent”) approving the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger. Accordingly, the delivery of the Written Consent is sufficient to approve the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, on behalf of the NBLX Limited Partners.

This information statement/prospectus provides you with detailed information about the proposed Merger and related matters. Chevron and NBLX both encourage you to read the entire document carefully. In particular, see the section titled “Risk Factors” beginning on page 12 for a discussion of risks related to the Merger, the tax consequences of the Merger and ownership of the Chevron Common Stock received in the Merger, an investment in Chevron Common Stock, and Chevron’s business following the consummation of the Merger.

Chevron Common Stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) under the symbol “CVX,” and NBLX Common Units are listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market (“NASDAQ”) under the symbol “NBLX.”

To the limited partners of Noble Midstream Partners LP:

On March 4, 2021, Noble Midstream Partners LP (“NBLX”) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (as may be amended from time to time, the “Merger Agreement”) with Noble Midstream GP LLC, the general partner of NBLX (the “General Partner”), Chevron Corporation (“Chevron”), Cadmium Holdings Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Chevron (“Holdings”), and Cadmium Merger Sub LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Holdings (“Merger Sub”), pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into NBLX, with NBLX surviving as an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Chevron (the “Merger”).

On March 4, 2021, the conflicts committee (the “Conflicts Committee”) of the board of directors of the General Partner (the “GP Board”), by unanimous vote (a) determined that the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, are in, or not adverse to, the interests of NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders, (b) approved the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby (the foregoing constituting “Special Approval” as defined in the Second Amended and Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership of NBLX, dated November 14, 2019 (the “Partnership Agreement”)), (c) resolved to recommend to the GP Board the approval of the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and (d) resolved to recommend to the GP Board that the GP Board recommend the approval of the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, to the limited partners of NBLX (the “NBLX Limited Partners”).

On March 4, 2021, the GP Board (acting, in part, based upon the receipt of such approval and recommendation of the Conflicts Committee), by unanimous vote (a) determined that the forms, terms and provisions of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, are in, or not adverse to, the interests of NBLX and the NBLX Limited Partners, (b) approved the execution, delivery and performance of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the respective transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, and (c) directed that the adoption of the Merger Agreement and the approval of the Merger be submitted to a vote of the NBLX Limited Partners and authorized the NBLX Limited Partners to act by written consent pursuant to the terms of the Partnership Agreement.

Pursuant to the Partnership Agreement, the approval of the Merger and the adoption of the Merger Agreement by NBLX also requires the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of a majority of the outstanding NBLX Common Units. The GP Board set the close of business on March 4, 2021, as the record date (the “Record Date”) for determining the limited partners of NBLX (“NBLX Limited Partners”) entitled to consent in writing to adopt the Merger Agreement and approve the Merger. On March 4, 2021, Chevron caused NBL Midstream, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and its indirect, wholly owned subsidiary (“NBL”), which beneficially owns 56,447,616 NBLX Common Units, representing approximately 62.4% of the outstanding NBLX Common Units, to deliver a written consent (the “Written Consent”) approving the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger. Accordingly, the delivery of the

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

The following questions and answers are intended to briefly address some questions that you may have regarding the Merger and the Merger Agreement. We urge you to carefully read the remainder of this information statement/prospectus because these questions and answers may not address all questions or provide all information that might be important to you with respect to the Merger and the Merger Agreement. Additional important information is also contained in the annexes and the documents incorporated by reference into this information statement/prospectus. You may obtain the information incorporated by reference into this information statement/prospectus without charge by following the instructions under “Where You Can Find More Information.”

Q: Why am I receiving these materials?

A: On March 4, 2021, Chevron, NBLX, the General Partner, Holdings and Merger Sub, entered into the Merger Agreement, pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into NBLX, with NBLX surviving as an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Chevron. The Merger Agreement is described in this information statement/prospectus and attached as Annex A hereto. You are receiving this document in connection with the Chevron Stock Issuance to NBLX Public Unitholders in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement. The delivery of the Written Consent by NBL is sufficient to approve the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, on behalf of the NBLX Limited Partners. You are not being asked for a proxy, and you are requested not to send a proxy.

Q: Why are Chevron and NBLX proposing the Merger?

A: Chevron and NBLX believe that the Merger will benefit both Chevron Stockholders and NBLX Public Unitholders. See “The Merger—Chevron’s Rationale for the Transaction” and “The Merger—Approval of the Conflicts Committee and the GP Board and Their Reasons for the Merger.”

Q: What will NBLX Public Unitholders be entitled to receive in the Merger?

A: If the Merger is successfully completed, subject to any applicable withholding tax, each NBLX Public Unitholder as of the Effective Time will be entitled to receive 0.1393 shares of Chevron Common Stock in exchange for each NBLX Public Common Unit held by such NBLX Public Unitholder at the Effective Time.

This Exchange Ratio is fixed and will not be adjusted to reflect changes in the stock or unit price of either company before the merger is complete. The Exchange Ratio will, however, be adjusted appropriately to fully reflect the effect of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, or any stock dividend thereon, with respect to outstanding shares of capital stock or units of either Chevron or NBLX with a record date between the date of the Merger Agreement and the completion of the Merger. No fractional shares of Chevron Common Stock will be issued in the Merger. Instead of receiving any fractions of a share of Chevron Common Stock, all fractions of shares of Chevron Common Stock to which an NBLX Public Unitholder would otherwise have been entitled will be aggregated and the resulting fraction will be rounded up to the nearest whole share of Chevron Common Stock. See “The Merger Agreement—The Merger; Effective Time; Closing.”

Q: What will happen to NBLX as a result of the Merger?

A: If the Merger is successfully completed, Merger Sub will be merged with and into NBLX, with NBLX surviving as an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Chevron. NBLX Common Units will cease to be publicly traded following the Merger, will be delisted from the NASDAQ and will be deregistered under the Exchange Act.

Q: When will the Merger be completed?

A: Chevron and NBLX are working to complete the Merger as soon as possible. Certain conditions must be satisfied or waived before Chevron and NBLX can complete the Merger. See “The Merger Agreement— Conditions to Completion of the Merger.” Assuming timely satisfaction or waiver of the closing conditions, the Merger is expected to close in the second quarter of 2021.

Q: What percentage of outstanding Chevron Common Stock will NBLX Public Unitholders own after the successful consummation of the Merger?

A: If the Merger is successfully completed, based on the number of shares of Chevron Common Stock and NBLX Common Units outstanding as of March 15, 2021, the shares of Chevron Common Stock that the NBLX Public Unitholders receive in the Merger will collectively represent approximately 0.2% of the outstanding shares of Chevron Common Stock following completion of the Merger.

Q: Will the shares of Chevron Common Stock acquired in the Merger be entitled to receive dividends?

A: After the closing of the Merger (the “Closing”), all shares of Chevron Common Stock issued in exchange for NBLX Common Units will entitle the holder to the same dividends (if any) that all other holders of Chevron Common Stock will receive with respect to any dividend record date that occurs after the Effective Time. See “Comparative Market Prices and Cash Dividend/Distribution Information.”

Q: Should NBLX Public Unitholders deliver their NBLX Common Units now?

A: No. After the Merger is completed, any NBLX Common Units you hold as of the Effective Time in book entry form automatically will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration. Because all NBLX Common Units are held in book entry form, no holder will need to deliver certificates to receive the Merger Consideration. If you own NBLX Common Units in street name, the shares of Chevron Common Stock you will receive in connection with the Merger should be credited to your account in accordance with the policies and procedures of your bank, broker, or other nominee within a few days following the closing date of the Merger.

Q: Where will NBLX Common Units trade after the Merger?

A: NBLX Common Units will cease to be publicly traded following the Merger, will be delisted from the NASDAQ, and will be deregistered under the Exchange Act. Chevron Common Stock will continue to trade on the NYSE under the symbol “CVX.”

Q: What happens to future distributions with respect to NBLX Common Units?

A: If the Merger is successfully consummated, all outstanding NBLX Common Units will be converted into the right to receive Chevron Common Stock at the Exchange Ratio and will no longer be entitled to receive quarterly distributions from NBLX with respect to the NBLX Common Units. For a description of the differences between the rights of Chevron Stockholders and the holders of NBLX Common Units (the “NBLX Unitholders”), see “Comparison of Rights of Chevron Stockholders and NBLX Unitholders.”

Q: What approval by NBLX Limited Partners is required to approve the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger?

A: The approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, require the affirmative vote or consent of holders of at least a majority of the outstanding NBLX Common Units. The GP Board set the close of business on March 4, 2021, as the Record Date for determining the NBLX Limited Partners entitled to consent in writing to adopt the Merger Agreement and approve the Merger. On March 4, 2021, Chevron caused NBL, its indirect, wholly owned subsidiary, which beneficially owns 56,447,616 NBLX Common Units, representing approximately 62.4% of the outstanding NBLX Common Units, to deliver a written consent approving the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger. Accordingly, the delivery of the Written Consent was sufficient to approve the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, on behalf of the NBLX Limited Partners. For this reason, this information statement/prospectus is being provided to you for informational purposes only. NBLX has not solicited and is not soliciting your adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement. No further action by any other NBLX Limited Partner is required under applicable law, and NBLX will not solicit the vote of NBLX Limited Partners for the approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, and will not call a special meeting of NBLX Limited Partners for purposes of voting on the Merger Agreement and the Merger. You are not being asked for a proxy, and you are requested not to send a proxy.

Q: What are the expected U.S. federal income tax consequences for an NBLX Public Unitholder as a result of the Merger?

A: The receipt of shares of Chevron Common Stock in exchange for NBLX Public Common Units pursuant to the Merger Agreement will be a taxable transaction to U.S. Holders (as defined in “Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences”) for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In such case, a U.S. Holder will generally recognize capital gain or loss on the receipt of shares of Chevron Common Stock in exchange for NBLX Public Common Units. However, a portion of this gain or loss, which could be substantial, will be separately computed and taxed as ordinary income or loss to the extent attributable to “unrealized receivables,” including depreciation recapture, or to “inventory items” owned by NBLX and its subsidiaries. Passive losses that were not deductible by a U.S. Holder in prior taxable periods because they exceeded a U.S. Holder’s share of NBLX’s income may become available to offset a portion of the gain recognized by such U.S. Holder. A U.S. Holder’s tax basis in the shares of Chevron Common Stock received in the Merger will equal the fair market value of such shares. The U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to NBLX Public Unitholders and of the ownership and disposition of any shares of Chevron Common Stock received pursuant thereto will depend on the NBLX Public Unitholder’s particular tax situation. Accordingly, you are strongly urged to consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the particular tax consequences to you of the Merger and of the ownership and disposition of any shares of Chevron Common Stock received by you in the Merger. See “Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences.”

Q: What are the expected U.S. federal income tax consequences for an NBLX Public Unitholder of the ownership of shares of Chevron Common Stock after the Merger is completed?

A: Chevron is classified as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes and is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its taxable income. A distribution of cash by Chevron to a Chevron Stockholder who is a U.S. Holder will generally be included in such U.S. Holder’s income as ordinary dividend income to the extent of Chevron’s current or accumulated “earnings and profits” as determined under U.S. federal income tax principles. A portion of the cash distributed to Chevron Stockholders after the Merger may exceed Chevron’s current and accumulated earnings and profits. Distributions of cash in excess of Chevron’s current and accumulated earnings and profits will be treated as a non-taxable return of capital reducing a U.S. Holder’s adjusted tax basis in such U.S. Holder’s Chevron Common Stock and, to the extent the distribution exceeds such stockholder’s adjusted tax basis, as capital gain from the sale or exchange of such Chevron Common Stock. See “Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences” for a more complete discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of owning and disposing of Chevron Common Stock received in the Merger.

Q: Are NBLX Public Unitholders entitled to dissenters' or appraisal rights in connection with the Merger?

A: No. NBLX Public Unitholders do not have dissenters' or appraisal rights under applicable law or contractual appraisal rights under the Partnership Agreement or the Merger Agreement.

Q: What happens if the Merger is not consummated?

A: If the Merger is not completed for any reason, you will not receive the Merger Consideration for any NBLX Common Units that you hold. In such case, the NBLX Common Units will remain outstanding and will continue to be listed and traded on the NASDAQ, and NBLX will remain a publicly traded limited partnership.

Q: Who do I call if I have further questions about the Merger or the Merger Agreement?

A: NBLX Unitholders who have questions about the Merger or who desire additional copies of this information statement/prospectus or other additional materials should contact:

Upon completion of the Merger, subject to any applicable withholding tax, (i) each outstanding NBLX Common Unit other than the NBLX Common Units owned by Chevron and its subsidiaries (each, an “NBLX Public Common Unit”) will be converted into the right to receive, subject to adjustment as described in the Merger Agreement, the Merger Consideration; and (ii) each of the outstanding equity awards relating to an NBLX Common Unit issued under the Partnership Long-Term Incentive Plan (as defined in the Merger Agreement), whether vested or not vested, will cease to relate to or represent a right with respect to an NBLX Common Unit and shall be converted into an award relating to shares of Chevron Common Stock on the same terms and conditions as were applicable to the corresponding Partnership LTIP Award, except that the number of shares of Chevron Common Stock shall be equal to the number of NBLX Common Units subject to the corresponding Partnership LTIP Award multiplied by the Exchange Ratio, rounded up to the nearest whole unit.

The limited partner interests in NBLX owned by Chevron and its subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time will remain outstanding as limited partner interests in the surviving entity. NBLX Limited Partner Interests Consent Required (see page 22)

The approval of the Merger and the adoption of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative consent of a majority of the outstanding NBLX Common Units.

On March 4, 2021, Chevron caused NBL, its indirect, wholly owned subsidiary, which beneficially owns 56,447,616 NBLX Common Units, representing approximately 62.4% of the outstanding NBLX Common Units, to deliver a written consent approving the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger. Accordingly, the delivery of the Written Consent was sufficient to approve the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, on behalf of the NBLX Limited Partners. For this reason, this information statement/prospectus is being provided to you for informational purposes only. You are not being asked for a proxy, and you are requested not to send a proxy.

The limited partner interests in NBLX owned by Chevron and its subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time will remain outstanding as limited partner interests in the surviving entity. The non-economic general partner interest in NBLX held by the General Partner will remain outstanding as a non-economic general partner interest in the surviving entity, and the General Partner will continue as the sole general partner of the surviving entity.

Chevron's Rationale for the Transaction (see page 30)

On January 27, 2021, the board of directors of Chevron (the "Chevron Board"), (a) determined that the Merger and the other transactions related thereto, including the issuance of shares of Chevron Common Stock as Merger Consideration (the "Chevron Stock Issuance"), are in the best interests of Chevron and the Chevron Stockholders and (b) authorized the negotiation, execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement and the other Transaction Documents and the consummation of the respective transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger and the Chevron Stock Issuance, on the terms and subject to the conditions to be negotiated in the Transaction Documents. For a discussion of the many factors considered by the Chevron Board in making its determination and approval, see "The Merger—Chevron's Rationale for the Transaction."

Approval of the Conflicts Committee and the GP Board and their Reasons for the Merger (see page 32)

At a meeting held on March 4, 2021, the Conflicts Committee, by unanimous vote (a) determined that the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, are in, or not adverse to, the interests of NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders, (b) approved the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby (the foregoing constituting “Special Approval” as defined in the Partnership Agreement), (c) resolved to recommend to the GP Board the approval of the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and (d) resolved to recommend to the GP Board that the GP Board recommend the approval of the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, to the NBLX Limited Partners. For a discussion of the many factors considered by the Conflicts Committee in making its determination and approval, see “The Merger—Approval of the Conflicts Committee and the GP Board and their Reasons for the Merger.”

At a meeting held on March 4, 2021, the GP Board (acting, in part, based upon the receipt of such approval and recommendation of the Conflicts Committee), by unanimous vote (a) determined that the forms, terms, and provisions of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, are in, or not adverse to, the interests of NBLX and the NBLX Limited Partners, (b) approved the execution, delivery and performance of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement and, (c) directed that the adoption of the Merger Agreement and the approval of the Merger be submitted to a vote of the NBLX Limited Partners and authorized the NBLX Limited Partners to act by written consent pursuant to the terms of the Partnership Agreement. For a further discussion of the recommendation of the Conflicts Committee to the GP Board, see “The Merger—Approval of the Conflicts Committee and the GP Board and their Reasons for the Merger.”

Opinion of the Financial Advisor to the Conflicts Committee (see page 40)

At the meeting of the Conflicts Committee on March 4, 2021, Janney Montgomery Scott LLC (“Janney”), the financial advisor to the Conflicts Committee in connection with the Merger, rendered its oral opinion to the Conflicts Committee that, as of such date and on the basis of and subject to the various assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in its opinion, the Exchange Ratio set forth in the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders. Janney concurrently confirmed its oral opinion by delivering its written opinion to the Conflicts Committee, dated as of March 4, 2021, that, as of such date and on the basis of and subject to the various assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in its opinion, the Exchange Ratio set forth in the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders.

The full text of the written opinion of Janney dated March 4, 2021, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex B to this information statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. The summary of the opinion of Janney set forth in this information statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion. The NBLX Unitholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety. Janney’s written opinion was addressed to the Conflicts Committee (in its capacity as such) in connection with and for the purposes of its evaluation of the Merger, was directed only to the Exchange Ratio and did not address any other aspect of the Merger. The opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any NBLX Unitholder as to how such unitholder should vote with respect to the Merger or any other matter.

For a description of the opinion that the Conflicts Committee received from Janney, see “The Merger—Opinion of the Financial Advisor to the Conflicts Committee” beginning on page 40. A copy of the opinion of Janney, the Conflicts Committee’s financial advisor, is attached as Annex B to this information statement/prospectus.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger (see page 47)

The officers and directors of Chevron (or one of its subsidiaries) and the directors and executive officers of the General Partner may have interests in the Merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Chevron Stockholders and NBLX Unitholders. For a detailed discussion of the interests that the officers of Chevron (or one of its subsidiaries) and the directors and executive officers of the General Partner may have in the Merger, see “The Merger—Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger.”

The Merger Agreement (see page 52)

The terms and conditions of the Merger are contained in the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this information statement/prospectus. We encourage you to carefully read the Merger Agreement in its entirety, as it is the principal document that governs the Merger.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (see page 63)

The Merger Agreement may be terminated prior to the closing of the Merger:

- by the mutual written consent of Chevron and NBLX duly authorized by the Chevron Board and the Conflicts Committee, respectively;
- by either of Chevron or NBLX:
 - if the closing of the Merger does not occur on or before September 4, 2021; provided, that this termination right will not be available to (a) Chevron or NBLX if the inability to satisfy any condition under the Merger Agreement necessary for closing of the Merger was due to the failure of, in the case of Chevron, Chevron, Holdings or Merger Sub, or, in the case of NBLX, NBLX or the General Partner, to perform and comply in all material respects with the covenants and agreements to be performed or complied with by such entity prior to the closing of the Merger, or (b) Chevron or NBLX if, in the case of Chevron, NBLX or the General Partner, or, in the case of NBLX, Chevron, Holdings or Merger Sub, has filed (and is then pending) an action seeking specific performance as permitted pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement;
 - if any restraint by a government authority is in effect and has become final and nonappealable; provided, however, this termination right is not available to Chevron or NBLX if such restraint was due to the failure of, in the case of Chevron, Chevron, Holdings or Merger Sub, or, in the case of NBLX, NBLX or the General Partner, to perform any of its obligations under the Merger Agreement; or
- by Chevron if NBLX or the General Partner has breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the Merger Agreement, or any representations or warranties with respect to NBLX’s and the General Partner’s authority to execute the Merger Agreement and complete the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, or the absence of certain changes or events become untrue, in a way that the related condition to closing would not be satisfied, and such breach is either incurable or not cured by NBLX or the General Partner within 30 days following receipt of written notice from Chevron (unless Chevron, Holdings or Merger Sub is in material breach of any representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the Merger Agreement); or
- by NBLX (which termination may be effected for NBLX by the Conflicts Committee without the consent, authorization or approval of the GP Board) if Chevron has breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants, or agreements in the Merger Agreement, or any representations or warranties with respect to the authority of Chevron, Holdings and Merger Sub to execute the Merger Agreement and complete the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, or the absence of certain changes or events become untrue, in a way that the related condition to closing would not be satisfied, and such breach is either incurable or not cured by Chevron within 30 days following receipt of written notice from NBLX (unless NBLX or the General Partner is in material breach of any representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the Merger Agreement).

Effect of Termination; Termination Expenses (see page 64)

If the Merger Agreement is validly terminated, then, except as described below, each of the parties will be relieved of its duties and obligations and such termination will be without liability to any party. However, termination will not relieve any party of any liability for failure to consummate the Merger and other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement when required under the agreement or for intentional fraud or any “willful breach” (as defined in the Merger Agreement).

The Merger Agreement contains various amounts payable under the circumstances described below.

- if the Merger Agreement is validly terminated by Chevron due to a material uncured breach by NBLX or the General Partner of any of its covenants or agreements, or representations or warranties with respect to NBLX’s and the General Partner’s authority to execute the Merger Agreement and complete the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, or the absence of certain changes or events, then NBLX will promptly pay Chevron’s designee all of the reasonably documented out-of-pocket expenses (including all fees and expenses of counsel, accountants, investment bankers, financing sources, hedging counterparties, experts and consultants) incurred by Chevron and its affiliates in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby up to a maximum of $3.5 million; and
- if the Merger Agreement is validly terminated by NBLX due to a material uncured breach by Chevron of any of its covenants or agreements, or representations or warranties with respect to the authority of Chevron, Holdings and Merger Sub to execute the Merger Agreement and complete the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, then Chevron will promptly pay NBLX’s designee all of the reasonably documented out-of-pocket expenses (including all fees and expenses of counsel, accountants, investment bankers, financing sources, hedging counterparties, experts and consultants) incurred by NBLX and its affiliates in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby up to a maximum of $3.5 million, subject to certain limited restrictions.

No Dissenters’ or Appraisal Rights (see page 50)

NBLX Public Unitholders will not have dissenters’ or appraisal rights in connection with the Merger under applicable law or contractual appraisal rights under the Partnership Agreement or the Merger Agreement.

Regulatory Matters (see page 51)

In connection with the Merger, Chevron and NBLX each intends to make all required filings under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, as well as any required filings or applications with the NYSE and the NASDAQ, as applicable. Chevron and NBLX are unaware of any other requirement for the filing of information with, or the obtaining of the approval of, governmental authorities in any jurisdiction that is required for the consummation of the Merger.

The Merger is not reportable under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the “HSR Act”), and therefore, no filings with respect to the Merger were required with the Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”) or the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice (“DOJ”).

Listing of the Chevron Common Stock to be Issued in the Merger; Delisting and Deregistration of the NBLX Common Units (see page 51)

Chevron expects to obtain approval to list the shares of Chevron Common Stock to be issued pursuant to the Merger Agreement on the NYSE, which approval is a condition to the Closing, subject to official notice of issuance. Upon completion of the Merger, the NBLX Common Units will cease to be listed on the NASDAQ and will be subsequently deregistered under the Exchange Act.

Post-Closing Status of NBLX (see page 51)

After the consummation of the Merger, it is expected that NBLX will remain an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Chevron indefinitely. There are no definite plans to reorganize or transfer NBLX or any of its assets immediately following the Closing as of the date of this information statement/prospectus.

Accounting Treatment (see page 51)

The Merger will be accounted for in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification 810, Consolidation—Overall—Changes in a Parent’s Ownership Interest in a Subsidiary. As Chevron controls NBLX and will continue to control NBLX after the Merger, the change in Chevron’s ownership interest in NBLX will be accounted for as an equity transaction, and no gain or loss will be recognized in Chevron’s consolidated statement of income resulting from the Merger.

Comparison of Rights of Chevron Stockholders and NBLX Unitholders (see page 66)

Chevron is a Delaware corporation and NBLX is a Delaware limited partnership. Ownership interests in a limited partnership are fundamentally different from ownership interests in a corporation. For more information concerning these differences, see “Comparison of Rights of Chevron Stockholders and NBLX Unitholders.”

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences (see page 86)

The receipt of shares of Chevron Common Stock in exchange for NBLX Public Common Units pursuant to the Merger Agreement will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes to U.S. Holders (as defined in “Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences”). In such case, a U.S. Holder who receives Chevron Common Stock in exchange for NBLX Public Common Units pursuant to the Merger Agreement will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between:

- the sum of (i) the fair market value of the Chevron Common Stock received and (ii) such U.S. Holder’s share of NBLX’s nonrecourse liabilities immediately prior to the Merger; and
- such U.S. Holder’s adjusted tax basis in the NBLX Public Common Units exchanged therefor (which includes such U.S. Holder’s share of NBLX’s nonrecourse liabilities immediately prior to the Merger and which will be increased by the U.S. Holder’s share of certain items related to business interest not yet deductible by such U.S. Holder due to applicable limitations on the deductibility of such business interest).

Gain or loss recognized by a U.S. Holder will generally be taxable as capital gain or loss. However, a portion of this gain or loss, which could be substantial, will be separately computed and taxed as ordinary income or loss under Section 751 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), to the extent attributable to “unrealized receivables,” including depreciation recapture, or to “inventory items” owned by NBLX and its subsidiaries, even if there is a net taxable loss realized on the exchange. Passive losses that were not deductible by a U.S. Holder in prior taxable periods because they exceeded a U.S. Holder’s share of NBLX’s income may become available to offset a portion of the gain recognized by such U.S. Holder.

The U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to an NBLX Public Unitholder will depend on such unitholder's own personal tax situation. Accordingly, you are strongly urged to consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the particular tax consequences of the Merger to you.

See "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences" for a more complete discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger.

Summary of Risk Factors (see page 12)

You should carefully consider all of the risk factors together with all of the other information included in, or incorporated by reference into, this information statement/prospectus. Some of these risks include, but are not limited to, those described below and in more detail under the heading "Risk Factors."

- Because the Exchange Ratio is fixed and because the market price of Chevron Common Stock will fluctuate prior to the completion of the Merger, NBLX Public Unitholders cannot be sure of the market value of the shares of Chevron Common Stock they will receive as Merger Consideration relative to the value of NBLX Common Units they exchange in connection with the Merger.
- The Merger is subject to conditions, including some conditions that may not be satisfied on a timely basis, if at all. Failure to complete the Merger, or significant delays in completing the Merger, could negatively affect each party's future business and financial results and the trading prices of shares of Chevron Common Stock and NBLX Common Units.
- The date NBLX Public Unitholders will receive the Merger Consideration depends on the completion date of the Merger, which is uncertain.
- Chevron and NBLX may be targets of securities class action and derivative lawsuits, which could result in substantial costs and may delay or prevent the completion of the Merger.
- Each party is subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the Merger is pending, which could adversely affect each party's business and operations.
- The opinion of the Conflicts Committee's financial advisor will not reflect changes in circumstances between the signing of the Merger Agreement and the completion of the Merger.
- NBLX may be unable to retain key employees during the pendency of the Merger.
- The Partnership Agreement limits the duties of the General Partner to NBLX Limited Partners and restricts the remedies available to NBLX Limited Partners for actions taken by the General Partner that might otherwise constitute breaches of its duties.
- Financial projections of NBLX may not prove to be accurate.
- The Merger will be a taxable transaction to NBLX Public Unitholders and, in such case, the resulting tax liability of an NBLX Public Unitholder, if any, will depend on the unitholder's particular situation. The tax liability of an NBLX Public Unitholder as a result of the Merger could be more than expected.
- The U.S. federal income tax treatment of owning and disposing of shares of Chevron Common Stock received in the Merger will be different from the U.S. federal income tax treatment of owning and disposing of NBLX Common Units.

Table of Contents

- NBLX Unitholders will be entitled to different rights as holders of shares of Chevron Common Stock than those to which they are entitled as holders of NBLX Common Units.
- Chevron may not achieve the intended benefits and the Merger may disrupt its current plans or operations.

In addition, Chevron and NBLX face other business, financial, operational and legal risks and uncertainties detailed from time to time in Chevron's and NBLX's respective SEC filings, including, but not limited to those discussed under Part I, Item 1A of Chevron's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020 and in Part I, Item 1A of NBLX's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020, each of which are filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this information statement/prospectus.

COMPARATIVE MARKET PRICES AND CASH DIVIDEND/DISTRIBUTION INFORMATION

Shares of Chevron Common Stock are listed on the NYSE under the symbol “CVX” and NBLX Common Units are listed on the NASDAQ under the symbol “NBLX.” The following table presents the closing prices of Chevron Common Stock and NBLX Common Units on (i) February 4, 2021, the last trading day before the public announcement of Chevron’s initial offer regarding the Merger to the Conflicts Committee, and (ii) March 15, 2021. The table also shows the equivalent per unit value of the Chevron Common Stock included in the Merger Consideration for each NBLX Common Unit, which per unit value is calculated as the product of (i) the applicable Chevron per share value, and (ii) 0.1393, the Exchange Ratio.

| Date | Chevron Common Stock Closing Price | NBLX Common Unit Closing Price | Equivalent Per Unit Value |
|------------------|---|---|--------------------------------------|
| February 4, 2021 | $89.00 | $12.47 | $12.40 |
| March 15, 2021 | $110.25 | $15.23 | $15.36 |

The above table shows only a historical comparison. This comparison may not provide meaningful information to NBLX Limited Partners in connection with making any decisions with respect to the Merger. NBLX Limited Partners are urged to obtain current market quotations for shares of Chevron Common Stock and NBLX Common Units and to review carefully the other information contained in this information statement/prospectus or incorporated herein by reference in making any decisions with respect to the Merger. See “Where You Can Find More Information” for instructions on how to obtain the information that has been incorporated by reference. Historical performance is not necessarily indicative of any performance to be expected in the future. See “Risk Factors” and “Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements.”

Dividend and Share Data—Chevron

The declaration and payment of dividends by Chevron is subject to the discretion of the Chevron Board, and no assurance can be given that Chevron will pay dividends in the future. Chevron currently pays a quarterly dividend on shares of Chevron Common Stock and last paid a dividend on March 10, 2021, of $1.29 per share. The determination to pay dividends in the future will depend upon, among other things, general business conditions, Chevron’s financial results, contractual and legal restrictions regarding the payment of dividends by Chevron, planned investments by Chevron, and such other factors as the Chevron Board deems relevant.

As of March 15, 2021, there were approximately 1,927,949,021 shares of Chevron Common Stock outstanding, and there were approximately 113,453 holders of record of Chevron Common Stock.

Distribution and Unit Data—NBLX

The Partnership Agreement provides that within 45 days after the end of each quarter, NBLX will distribute its cash available for distributions, if any, to NBLX Unitholders of record on the applicable record date. As a result of the conversion and cancellation of NBLX Common Units in connection with the Merger, NBLX will no longer make quarterly distributions following the Closing (other than distributions, if any, with a record date prior to the date of the Closing; provided, that NBLX Unitholders will only receive for the quarter in which the Closing occurs either (i) distributions in respect of NBLX Common Units or (ii) dividends in respect of Chevron Common Stock received as Merger Consideration).

As of March 15, 2021, there were approximately 90,362,378 NBLX Common Units outstanding and there were approximately 2 holders of record of NBLX Common Units.

The Merger Agreement restricts the ability of NBLX to declare, authorize, set aside or pay any distribution payable in cash, equity or property in respect of the NBLX Common Units prior to the consummation of the Merger. See “The Merger Agreement—Conduct of Business Prior to Closing.”

Because the Exchange Ratio is fixed and because the market price of shares of Chevron Common Stock will fluctuate prior to the completion of the Merger, NBLX Unitholders cannot be sure of the market value of the shares of Chevron Common Stock they will receive as Merger Consideration relative to the value of NBLX Common Units that they exchange in connection with the Merger. See “Risk Factors.”

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information included or incorporated by reference into this information statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed in “Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements,” you should carefully consider the following risks relating to the Merger and Chevron Stock Issuance. In addition, you should read and consider the risks associated with each of the businesses of Chevron and NBLX, because these risks may also affect the combined company. A description of the material risks can be found in Part I, Item 1A of Chevron’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020 and in Part I, Item 1A of NBLX’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020, each of which are filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this information statement/prospectus. See “Where You Can Find More Information.”

Risks Related to the Merger

Because the Exchange Ratio is fixed and because the market price of shares of Chevron Common Stock will fluctuate prior to the completion of the Merger, NBLX Public Unitholders cannot be sure of the market value of shares of Chevron Common Stock that they will receive as Merger Consideration relative to the value of the NBLX Common Units that they will exchange in connection with the Merger.

The market value of the consideration that NBLX Public Unitholders will receive in the Merger will depend on the trading price of shares of Chevron Common Stock at the Closing. Subject to any applicable withholding tax, the Exchange Ratio that determines the number of shares of Chevron Common Stock that NBLX Public Unitholders will receive in the Merger is fixed at 0.1393 shares of Chevron Common Stock for each NBLX Public Common Unit they own. This means that there is no mechanism contained in the Merger Agreement that would adjust the number of shares of Chevron Common Stock that NBLX Public Unitholders will receive based on any decreases or increases in the trading price of Chevron Common Stock. Changes in per share or per unit price may result from a variety of factors (many of which are beyond Chevron’s and NBLX’s control), including:

- changes in Chevron’s or NBLX’s business, operations, and prospects;
- changes in market assessments of Chevron’s or NBLX’s business, operations, and prospects;
- changes in market assessments of the likelihood that the Merger will be completed;
- interest rates, commodity prices, general market, industry and economic conditions, and other factors generally affecting the price of Chevron Common Stock or NBLX Common Units; and
- federal, state and local legislation, governmental regulation, and legal developments in the businesses in which Chevron and NBLX operate.

If the price of Chevron Common Stock at the Closing is less than the price of Chevron Common Stock on the date that the Merger Agreement was signed, then the market value of the Merger Consideration will be less than contemplated at the time the Merger Agreement was signed.

The Merger is subject to conditions, including some conditions that may not be satisfied on a timely basis, if at all. Failure to complete the Merger, or significant delays in completing the Merger, could negatively affect each party’s future business and financial results and the trading prices of shares of Chevron Common Stock and NBLX Common Units.

The completion of the Merger is subject to certain conditions. The completion of the Merger is not assured and is subject to risks. The Merger Agreement contains conditions, some of which are beyond the parties’ control, that, if not satisfied or waived, may prevent, delay or otherwise result in the Merger not occurring.

If the Merger is not completed, or if there are significant delays in completing the Merger, Chevron's or NBLX's future business and financial results and the trading prices of shares of Chevron Common Stock and NBLX Common Units could be negatively affected, and each of the parties will be subject to several risks, including the following:

- the parties may be liable for fees or expenses to one another under the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement;
- there may be negative reactions from the financial markets due to the fact that current prices of shares of Chevron Common Stock and NBLX Common Units may reflect a market assumption that the Merger will be completed;
- the attention of Chevron's and NBLX's respective management will have been diverted to the Merger rather than their own operations and pursuit of other opportunities that could have been beneficial to their respective businesses;
- Chevron and NBLX will be required to pay their respective costs relating to the Merger, such as legal, accounting, financial advisory, filing fees, written consent costs, and printing fees, whether or not the Merger is completed, and many of the expenses that will be incurred, by their nature, are difficult to estimate accurately at the present time;
- each of Chevron and NBLX is obligated to reimburse the other party's expenses, up to $3.5 million, in connection with the termination of the Merger Agreement as a result of a material uncured breach by Chevron, on the one hand, or NBLX or the General Partner, on the other hand; and
- litigation related to any failure to complete the Merger or related to any enforcement proceeding commenced against Chevron or NBLX to perform their respective obligations pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

The date NBLX Public Unitholders will receive the Merger Consideration depends on the completion date of the Merger, which is uncertain.

Completing the Merger is subject to several conditions, not all of which are controllable by Chevron or NBLX. Accordingly, the date on which NBLX Public Unitholders will receive Merger Consideration depends on the completion date of the Merger, which is uncertain and subject to several other closing conditions.

Chevron and NBLX may in the future be targets of securities class action and derivative lawsuits, which could result in substantial costs and may delay or prevent the completion of the Merger.

Securities class action lawsuits and derivative lawsuits are often brought against companies that have entered into merger agreements in an effort to enjoin the relevant merger or seek monetary relief. Chevron and NBLX may in the future be defendants in one or more lawsuits relating to the Merger Agreement and the Merger and, even if any such future lawsuits are without merit, defending against these claims can result in substantial costs and divert management time and resources. Chevron and NBLX cannot predict the outcome of these lawsuits, or others, nor can either company predict the amount of time and expense that will be required to resolve such litigation. An unfavorable resolution of any such litigation surrounding the Merger could delay or prevent its consummation. In addition, the costs of defending the litigation, even if resolved in Chevron's or NBLX's favor, could be substantial, and such litigation could distract Chevron and NBLX from pursuing the consummation of the Merger and other potentially beneficial business opportunities.

Each party is subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the Merger is pending, which could adversely affect each party's business and operations.

In connection with the pendency of the Merger, it is possible that some customers, suppliers and other persons with whom Chevron or NBLX has a business relationship may delay or defer certain business decisions or might decide to seek to terminate, change or renegotiate their relationships with Chevron or NBLX, as the case may be, as a result of the Merger. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, each of Chevron and NBLX is subject to certain restrictions on the conduct of its respective business prior to completing the Merger, which may reduce the value of the Chevron Common Stock or the NBLX Public Common Units or adversely affect each party's ability to acquire assets or to execute certain of its business strategies. Such limitations could adversely affect each party's businesses and operations prior to the completion of the Merger. See "The Merger Agreement—Covenants and Agreements—Conduct of Business."

Each of the risks described above may be exacerbated by delays or other adverse developments with respect to the completion of the Merger.

The opinion of the Conflicts Committee's financial advisor will not reflect changes in circumstances between the signing of the Merger Agreement and the completion of the Merger.

The Conflicts Committee has received an opinion from its financial advisor in connection with the signing of the Merger Agreement, but has not obtained any updated opinion from its financial advisor as of the date of this information statement/prospectus. Changes in the operations and prospects of Chevron or NBLX, general market and economic conditions and other factors that may be beyond the control of Chevron or NBLX, and on which the Conflicts Committee's financial advisor's opinion was based, may significantly alter the value of Chevron or NBLX or the prices of the shares of Chevron Common Stock or NBLX Common Units by the time the Merger is completed. The opinion does not speak as of the time the Merger will be completed or as of any date other than the date of such opinion. Because the Conflicts Committee does not currently anticipate asking its financial advisor to update its opinion, the opinion will not address the fairness of the Merger Consideration from a financial point of view at the time the Merger is completed. For a description of the opinion that the Conflicts Committee received from its financial advisor, see the section entitled "The Merger—Opinion of the Conflicts Committee's Financial Advisor." A copy of the opinion of Janney Montgomery Scott LLC, the Conflicts Committee's financial advisor, is attached as Annex B to this information statement/prospectus.

NBLX may be unable to retain key employees during the pendency of the Merger.

In connection with the pending Merger, NBLX's current and prospective employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with Chevron following the Merger, which may materially adversely affect its ability to attract and retain key personnel during the pendency of the Merger. Key employees may depart because of issues relating to the uncertainty and difficulty of integration or a desire not to remain with Chevron following the Merger. Accordingly, no assurance can be given that NBLX will be able to retain key employees to the same extent that NBLX has been able to in the past.

The Partnership Agreement limits the duties of the General Partner to NBLX Unitholders and restricts the remedies available to NBLX Unitholders for actions taken by the General Partner that might otherwise constitute breaches of its duties.

In light of potential conflicts of interest between Chevron and the General Partner, on the one hand, and NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders, on the other hand, the GP Board submitted the Merger and related matters to the Conflicts Committee for, among other things, review, evaluation, negotiation and possible approval of a majority of its members, which is referred to as "Special Approval" in the Partnership Agreement and this information statement/prospectus. The duties of the General Partner, the GP Board and the Conflicts Committee to NBLX Limited Partners in connection with the Merger are substantially limited by the Partnership Agreement. Under the Partnership Agreement:

- any resolutions or course of action by the General Partner or its affiliates in respect of a conflict of interest is permitted or deemed approved by all partners of NBLX and will not constitute a breach of the Partnership Agreement or of any duty stated or implied by law, in equity or otherwise, if the resolution or course of action is approved by Special Approval; and

- the General Partner may consult with legal counsel and investment bankers selected by it, and any action taken or omitted to be taken in reliance upon the opinion of such persons as to matters that the General Partner reasonably believes to be within such person's professional or expert competence will be conclusively presumed to have been done or omitted in good faith and in accordance with such opinion.

The Conflicts Committee reviewed, negotiated and evaluated the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, on behalf of NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders. Among other things, the Conflicts Committee, by unanimous vote (a) determined that the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, are in, or not adverse to, the interests of NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders, (b) approved the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby (the foregoing constituting "Special Approval" as defined in the Partnership Agreement), (c) resolved to recommend to the GP Board the approval of the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and (d) resolved to recommend to the GP Board that the GP Board recommend the approval of the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, to the NBLX Limited Partners.

Financial projections of NBLX may not prove to be accurate.

In connection with the Merger, Chevron and NBLX prepared and considered, among other things, internal financial forecasts for NBLX. These forecasts speak only as of the date made and will not be updated. These financial projections were not provided with a view to public disclosure, are subject to significant economic, competitive, industry and other uncertainties, and may not be achieved in full, at all or within projected time frames. In addition, the failure of businesses to achieve projected results could have a material adverse effect on our share price and financial position following the Merger.

Tax Risks Related to the Merger and the Ownership of Chevron Common Stock Received in the Merger

In addition to reading the following risk factors, you are urged to read "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences" for a more complete discussion of the expected U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger and owning and disposing of shares of Chevron Common Stock received in the Merger.

The Merger will be a taxable transaction to NBLX Public Unitholders and, in such case, the resulting tax liability of an NBLX Public Unitholder, if any, will depend on the unitholder's particular situation. The tax liability of an NBLX Public Unitholder as a result of the Merger could be more than expected.

NBLX Public Unitholders will receive Chevron Common Stock as the Merger Consideration. Although NBLX Public Unitholders will receive no cash consideration, the Merger will be treated as a taxable sale by U.S. Holders (as defined in "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences") of NBLX Common Units for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In such case, as a result of the Merger, an NBLX Public Unitholder will recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes equal to the difference between such unitholder's amount realized and the unitholder's adjusted tax basis in the NBLX Common Units, which will be increased by the U.S. Holder's share of certain items related to business interest not yet deductible by such U.S. Holder due to applicable limitations on the deductibility of such business interest. The amount of gain or loss recognized by each NBLX Public Unitholder in the Merger will vary depending on each unitholder's particular situation, including the value of the shares of Chevron Common Stock received by each unitholder in the Merger, the adjusted tax basis in the NBLX Common Units exchanged by each unitholder in the Merger, and the amount of any suspended passive losses that may be available to a particular unitholder to offset a portion of the gain recognized by the unitholder.

Because the value of any Chevron Common Stock received in the Merger will not be known until the Effective Time, an NBLX Public Unitholder will not be able to determine its amount realized, and therefore its taxable gain or loss, until such time. In addition, because prior distributions in excess of an NBLX Public Unitholder's allocable share of NBLX's net taxable income decrease the unitholder's tax basis in its common units, the amount, if any, of the prior excess distributions with respect to such NBLX Common Units will, in effect, become taxable income to a unitholder if the aggregate value of the consideration received in the Merger is greater than the unitholder's adjusted tax basis in its common units, even if the aggregate value of the consideration received in the Merger is less than the unitholder's original cost basis in its common units.

Furthermore, a portion of any gain or loss, which could be substantial, will be separately computed and taxed as ordinary income to the extent attributable to "unrealized receivables," including depreciation recapture, or to "inventory items" owned by NBLX and its subsidiaries. Consequently, an NBLX Public Unitholder may recognize both ordinary income and capital loss upon the exchange of NBLX Common Units in the Merger even if there is a net taxable loss realized on the exchange of such U.S. Holder's NBLX Common Units pursuant to the Merger. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

For a more complete discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger, see "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences."

The U.S. federal income tax treatment of owning and disposing of shares of Chevron Common Stock received in the Merger will be different from the U.S. federal income tax treatment of owning and disposing of NBLX Common Units.

NBLX is classified as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes and, generally, is not subject to entity-level U.S. federal income tax. Instead, each NBLX Unitholder is required to take into account its respective share of NBLX's items of income, gain, loss and deduction in computing its federal income tax liability, even if no cash distributions are made by NBLX to the unitholder. A pro rata distribution of cash by NBLX to an NBLX Public Unitholder who is a U.S. Holder is generally not taxable for U.S. federal income tax purposes unless the amount of cash distributed is in excess of the NBLX Public Unitholder's adjusted tax basis in its NBLX Common Units.

In contrast, Chevron is classified as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes and is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its taxable income. A distribution of cash by Chevron to a stockholder who is a U.S. Holder will generally be included in such U.S. Holder's income as ordinary dividend income to the extent of Chevron's current or accumulated "earnings and profits," as determined under U.S. federal income tax principles. A portion of the cash distributed to Chevron Stockholders by Chevron after the Merger may exceed Chevron's current and accumulated earnings and profits. Cash distributions to a Chevron Stockholder who is a U.S. Holder in excess of Chevron's current and accumulated earnings and profits will be treated as a non-taxable return of capital, reducing the U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in the holder's Chevron Common Stock and, to the extent the cash distribution exceeds the holder's adjusted tax basis, as capital gain from the sale or exchange of such Chevron Common Stock. See "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences."

Risks Inherent in an Investment in Chevron

NBLX Unitholders will be entitled to different rights as holders of shares of Chevron Common Stock than those to which they are entitled as holders of NBLX Common Units.

Following completion of the Merger, NBLX Public Unitholders will no longer hold NBLX Common Units, but will instead hold shares of Chevron Common Stock. Chevron is a Delaware corporation, and NBLX is a Delaware limited partnership. There are important differences between the rights of NBLX Unitholders and the rights of Chevron Stockholders. See "Comparison of Rights of Chevron Stockholders and NBLX Unitholders."

Chevron may not achieve the intended benefits and the Merger may disrupt its current plans or operations.

There can be no assurance that Chevron will be able to realize the expected benefits of the potential transaction (including operating and other cost synergies). The integration of the two companies may result in material challenges, including the diversion of management’s attention from ongoing business concerns; retaining key management and other employees; retaining or attracting business and operational relationships; the possibility of faulty assumptions underlying expectations regarding the integration process and associated expenses; consolidating corporate and administrative infrastructures and eliminating duplicative operations; as well as potential unknown liabilities, unforeseen expenses relating to integration, or delays associated with the acquisition.

WRITTEN CONSENTS OF NBLX LIMITED PARTNERS

NBLX Limited Partner Interests Consent Required

The approval of the Merger and the adoption of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative consent of a majority of the outstanding NBLX Common Units.

The GP Board set the close of business on March 4, 2021, as the Record Date for determining the NBLX Limited Partners entitled to consent in writing to adopt the Merger Agreement and approve the Merger. As of the Record Date, NBL, an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Chevron, beneficially owned 56,447,616 NBLX Common Units, representing approximately 62.4% of the outstanding NBLX Common Units. On March 4, 2021, Chevron caused NBL to deliver a written consent approving the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger. Accordingly, the delivery of the Written Consent was sufficient to approve the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, on behalf of the NBLX Limited Partners. For this reason, this information statement/prospectus is being provided to you for informational purposes only. You are not being asked for a proxy and you are requested not to send a proxy.

THE MERGER

General

On March 4, 2021, Chevron, Holdings, Merger Sub, NBLX and the General Partner entered into the Merger Agreement, pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into NBLX, with NBLX surviving as an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Chevron.

Upon completion of the Merger, subject to any applicable withholding tax, (i) each NBLX Public Common Unit outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will be converted into the right to receive 0.1393 of a share of Chevron Common Stock and (ii) each Partnership LTIP Award, whether vested or not vested, will cease to relate to or represent a right with respect to an NBLX Common Unit and shall be converted into a Converted Parent Award on the same terms and conditions as were applicable to the corresponding Partnership LTIP Award (including the right to receive dividend or dividend equivalent rights), except that the number of shares of Chevron Common Stock covered by each such Converted Parent Award shall be equal to the number of NBLX Common Units subject to the corresponding Partnership LTIP Award multiplied by the Exchange Ratio, rounded up to the nearest whole unit.

The interests in NBLX owned by Chevron and its subsidiaries will remain outstanding as limited partner interests in the surviving entity. The non-economic general partner interest in NBLX held by the General Partner will continue as a non-economic general partner interest in the surviving entity and the General Partner will continue as the sole general partner of the surviving entity. No fractional shares of Chevron Common Stock will be issued in the Merger; instead, all fractional shares of Chevron Common Stock to which an NBLX Public Unitholder otherwise would have been entitled will be aggregated and the resulting fraction of a share of Chevron Common Stock will be rounded up to the nearest whole share of Chevron Common Stock. Existing Chevron Stockholders will continue to own their existing Chevron Common Stock following completion of the Merger.

The approval of the Merger and the adoption of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative consent of a majority of the outstanding NBLX Common Units. The GP Board set the close of business on March 4, 2021, as the record date for determining the NBLX Limited Partners entitled to consent in writing to adopt the Merger Agreement and approve the Merger. On March 4, 2021, Chevron caused NBL, its indirect, wholly owned subsidiary, which beneficially owns 56,447,616 NBLX Common Units, representing approximately 62.4% of the outstanding NBLX Common Units, to deliver a written consent approving the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger. Accordingly, the delivery of the Written Consent was sufficient to approve the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, on behalf of the NBLX Limited Partners. For this reason, this information statement/prospectus is being provided to you for informational purposes only. You are not being asked for a proxy, and you are requested not to send a proxy.

Background of the Merger

Chevron management, together with the Chevron Board, and management of the General Partner, together with the GP Board, regularly review operational and strategic opportunities to increase value for Chevron's and NBLX's respective investors. In connection with these reviews, the parties have, from time to time, evaluated potential transactions that would further their respective strategic objectives. Since the acquisition of Noble Energy, Inc. ("Noble") and the General Partner by Chevron in October 2020, Chevron has considered ways to simplify the governance structure of the combined enterprise and better position the combined enterprise to attract capital. Among other things, Chevron and NBLX have considered the external environment for master limited partnerships ("MLPs") generally, and for NBLX specifically, including the general inaccessibility of equity capital markets and the relative cost of debt capital for non-investment grade companies, the increased desire of investors for companies legally structured as traditional corporations, the passage of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 (the “TCJA”), which lowered the U.S. federal corporate income tax rate from 35% to 21% and thereby reduced the tax benefits of the MLP pass-through structure, and the perceived effects of such market dynamics on the trading prices for shares of Chevron Common Stock and NBLX Common Units. These market trends have led to numerous transactions involving MLPs, including buy-ins of MLPs by their corporate sponsors, acquisitions of MLPs by third parties, conversions of MLPs to corporations for income tax and state law purposes and simplifications of MLPs in which incentive distribution rights are modified or eliminated to improve the MLP’s cost of capital. These transactions have resulted in a significant reduction in the number of outstanding MLPs.

Beginning in November 2020, Chevron began to analyze a potential take-private transaction of NBLX and engaged Latham & Watkins LLP (“Latham”) as its legal counsel and Citigroup Global Markets Inc. (“Citi”) as its financial advisor. Over the following weeks and months, Chevron and its advisors met telephonically and considered different transaction structures and developed a view as to the long-term value of NBLX.

On January 27, 2021, the Chevron Board met to discuss, among other items, authorizing Chevron to make a non-binding proposal to the GP Board for Chevron to acquire all of the NBLX Common Units held by the NBLX Public Unitholders (the “NBLX Public Common Units”) through a merger transaction in exchange for shares of Chevron Common Stock, at a to-be-determined fixed exchange ratio (the “Proposed Transaction”). Following a presentation by Chevron management and discussion amongst the members of the Chevron Board, the Chevron Board authorized Chevron management to proceed with the negotiation of the Proposed Transaction within certain parameters and authorized the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement and other transaction documents and the consummation of the respective transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger and the Chevron Stock Issuance, on the terms and subject to the conditions to be negotiated in the Merger Agreement and other transaction documents in accordance with such parameters.

On February 4, 2021, Mr. Pierre Breber, Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, on behalf of Chevron, sent a non-binding, preliminary proposal (the “Initial Offer”) to the GP Board setting forth the terms of the Proposed Transaction pursuant to which Chevron would acquire all of the outstanding NBLX Public Common Units in a stock-for-unit merger transaction that would result in NBLX becoming an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Chevron at a to-be-determined fixed exchange ratio at a value of $12.47 per NBLX Common Unit. Chevron also indicated in the Initial Offer that it believed a combination of Chevron and NBLX was in the best interests of both Chevron Stockholders and NBLX Public Unitholders because, among other things, (i) the Initial Offer valued both the near and long term economic prospects of NBLX, (ii) the Proposed Transaction was expected to offer NBLX Public Unitholders the ability to retain an investment in a large, diversified energy company, with greater trading liquidity, improved capital structure and balance sheet strength, enhanced access to capital and at a lower cost of capital and the opportunity to realize upside potential through Chevron’s expanded asset base, (iii) the MLP market continued to experience substantial transition since NBLX’s initial public offering, including limited access to liquidity through debt and equity capital markets for MLPs with a smaller market capitalization, resulting in a growing number of MLPs exiting the market through combination transactions similar to the Proposed Transaction, (iv) it expected the Proposed Transaction to optimize value for Chevron Stockholders and NBLX Public Unitholders by creating a single, unified public company focused on asset quality and operational efficiency, while eliminating the burden and costs associated with operating two standalone public companies, and (v) it expected NBLX Public Unitholders to benefit from enhanced governance rights through participation in a traditional corporate governance structure. In the evening of February 4, 2021, Mr. Colin Parfitt, Vice President of Midstream at Chevron and the Chairman of the GP Board, contacted each other member of the GP Board separately and apprised him or her of the Initial Offer.

On February 5, 2021, at a special meeting of the GP Board held via videoconference, Mr. Parfitt, on behalf of Chevron, confirmed for the GP Board the delivery of the Initial Offer. The GP Board adopted resolutions confirming the independence of Mr. Martin Salinas, Jr., Mr. Andrew Viens and Ms. Hallie A. Vanderhider as the current members of the Conflicts Committee, which is a standing committee of the GP Board, in accordance with the requirements of the Partnership Agreement and authorizing the Conflicts

Committee to (i) review and evaluate the terms and conditions of, and determine the advisability of, the Proposed Transaction and related agreements, for and on behalf of NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders; (ii) negotiate the terms and conditions of the Proposed Transaction and related agreements for and on behalf of NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders; (iii) determine whether the Proposed Transaction is in, or not adverse to, the interests of NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders; (iv) approve, or determine not to approve, the Proposed Transaction (any such approval of the Proposed Transaction to constitute Special Approval); and (v) recommend to the GP Board that the Proposed Transaction be approved or not approved, or determine not to make any recommendation regarding the Proposed Transaction to the GP Board. The Conflicts Committee was also authorized to retain legal and financial advisors in its sole discretion. Such authorization also ratified any actions previously taken by the Conflicts Committee in connection with the process.

Also on February 5, 2021, Mr. Salinas contacted a representative of Janney Montgomery Scott LLC (“Janney”) to discuss engaging Janney to advise the Conflicts Committee in its consideration of the Proposed Transaction.

On February 6, 2021, Mr. Salinas contacted a representative of Baker Botts L.L.P. (“Baker Botts”) to discuss engaging Baker Botts as legal counsel to represent the Conflicts Committee in its consideration of the Proposed Transaction. Mr. Salinas sent a draft of Janney’s engagement letter (the “Engagement Letter”) with respect to the Proposed Transaction to Baker Botts for review. Between February 6, 2021 and February 18, 2021, the parties negotiated and clarified the terms of the Engagement Letter and, on February 18, 2021, the Conflicts Committee and Janney executed the Engagement Letter.

On February 9, 2021, the Conflicts Committee met telephonically with representatives of Baker Botts and Janney to discuss preliminary considerations with respect to the Initial Offer. Later on February 9, 2021, Mr. Nick Wallace, Director, Corporate Business Development for Chevron, and Mr. Salinas met telephonically, whereby Mr. Salinas introduced himself and Mr. Wallace introduced to Mr. Salinas members of the Chevron management team and notified Mr. Salinas that Chevron had engaged Latham and Citi as its outside legal and financial advisors, respectively. Mr. Salinas notified Mr. Wallace that the Conflicts Committee had engaged Baker Botts and Janney as its outside legal and financial advisors, respectively. Mr. Wallace and Mr. Salinas also discussed proposed timing associated with the Proposed Transaction, including to set potential dates for the Chevron management team to present their business and financial forecast and outlook for NBLX to the Conflicts Committee and Janney (the “Management Presentation”). Mr. Salinas followed up after this call by sending Mr. Wallace the contact information for the Janney and Baker Botts representatives advising the Conflicts Committee.

On February 10, 2021, representatives of Janney sent a due diligence request to NBLX requesting various materials in connection with its review and evaluation of the Proposed Transaction. Also on February 10, 2021, Janney created the virtual data room and invited representatives of NBLX. On February 16, 2021, representatives of NBLX began populating the virtual data room with materials responsive to Janney’s due diligence request. On February 23, 2021, Janney granted virtual data room access to representatives of Baker Botts. Janney and Baker Botts continued their ongoing financial and legal analyses, respectively, and due diligence review of the Proposed Transaction through the signing date of the Merger Agreement.

Between February 10, 2021 and extending through the signing date of the Merger Agreement, Janney conducted numerous due diligence meetings with members of NBLX management to review NBLX’s operations and financial forecasts. Janney’s review primarily concentrated on drilling assumptions on NBLX’s dedicated acreage by both Chevron and NBLX’s third party customers, forecasted well connections to NBLX’s gathering systems, NBLX’s operating cost structure and capital forecasts, the expected performance of NBLX’s equity investments, and NBLX’s forecasted balance sheet and financing requirements, among other considerations. Janney further reviewed the key differences between NBLX management’s lower case and upper case projections, with a primary emphasis on projected drilling and well connection assumptions for both Chevron and NBLX’s third party customers. On March 2, 2021, NBLX management certified to Janney that its forecasts were reasonably prepared in good faith on bases reflecting the best available estimates and good faith judgment of senior management of NBLX. On March 4, 2021, Janney held a bring-down financial due diligence call with NBLX management.

On February 11, 2021, Baker Botts sent questionnaires to each of Messrs. Salinas and Viens and Ms. Vanderhider to confirm their independence. Also on February 11, 2021, Baker Botts sent a questionnaire to Janney to determine its independence. Between February 11, 2021 and February 16, 2021, Baker Botts received the executed independence questionnaires from Janney and each of Messrs. Salinas and Viens and Ms. Vanderhider.

Between February 11, 2021 and February 14, 2021, Mr. Salinas and Mr. Wallace corresponded via email regarding dates on which to hold the Management Presentation, initially scheduling the presentation for February 23, 2021.

From time to time between February 15, 2021 and February 23, 2021, due to widespread, lengthy power outages throughout the state of Texas, where many of the members of Chevron management, the Conflicts Committee, and their respective financial and legal advisors resided, Mr. Salinas and Mr. Wallace continued to correspond via email to determine whether to reschedule the Management Presentation initially scheduled for February 23, 2021. The telephonic meetings culminated in Mr. Salinas and Mr. Wallace agreeing to reschedule the Management Presentation for February 25, 2021.

On February 23, 2021, a representative of Citi contacted a representative of Janney to discuss the Proposed Transaction and to provide Janney with the financial forecasts being used by Citi in its evaluation. Subsequently, Janney compared the financial forecast received by Citi to the financial forecasts prepared by NBLX and concluded that the financial forecasts provided by Citi were substantially similar to NBLX management's lower case with the exception of the assumed refinancing of NBLX's near term debt maturities. The financial forecasts used by Citi in its evaluation assumed debt incurred to refinance NBLX's term loans maturing in July 2021 and August 2022 would be longer term and have a higher interest rate than assumed in NBLX's lower case, with the result that the financial forecasts used by Citi projected lower cash flows to the NBLX Unitholders.

On February 25, 2021, certain members of Chevron's management team, including Mr. Wallace and Mr. Kyle Simson, Principal Corporate Negotiator, Corporate Business Development for Chevron, as well as representatives from Latham and Citi, met via videoconference with representatives from the Conflicts Committee, Janney and Baker Botts, in which Chevron management delivered a presentation to the Conflicts Committee relating to the Proposed Transaction. Among other things, Chevron management reviewed a summary of the Initial Offer, including the reasons why it believed the Initial Offer constituted a fair and full value offer for the NBLX Public Common Units, and highlighted how the Proposed Transaction aligned with Chevron's long-term interest and would streamline corporate governance. During the discussion, Chevron management noted NBLX's dependence on Chevron-related EBITDA and cash flow, challenges facing the MLP model, the fact that Chevron did not anticipate future drop downs to fund NBLX growth, the fact that Chevron acreage dedicated to NBLX represents only a portion of Chevron's overall global portfolio and could face strong internal competition for development capital at Chevron, challenges existing under NBLX's loan covenants and possible impacts on future distributions. Chevron management also discussed the Chevron-Prepared Projections (see "—Unaudited Financial Projections of NBLX"). During the course of the meeting, members of the Conflicts Committee and its advisors asked questions, and received answers, regarding the Proposed Transaction and the Initial Offer.

After the telephonic meeting, the Conflicts Committee and representatives of Janney and Baker Botts held a telephonic meeting to outline discussion points for the Conflicts Committee meeting to be held March 1, 2021.

Also on February 25, 2021, Janney submitted Baker Botts' supplemental legal due diligence request to NBLX requesting additional materials in connection with Baker Botts' review and evaluation of the Proposed Transaction. Janney and Baker Botts continued their ongoing financial and legal analyses, respectively.

On February 26, 2021, Baker Botts submitted another supplemental legal due diligence request to NBLX requesting additional materials in connection with Baker Botts' review and evaluation of the Proposed Transaction. Later that day, NBLX provided a response to Baker Botts' questions from February 25, 2021 and February 26, 2021. Janney and Baker Botts continued their ongoing financial and legal analyses, respectively.

On or around February 27, 2021, NBLX management provided to Janney and Baker Botts a tax impact analysis of the Merger. The analysis was based on the most recently available data and included an estimate of the tax gain or loss (including both ordinary and capital gain or loss) that would be recognized by each group of common unitholders.

On February 28, 2021, Mr. Wallace, on behalf of Chevron, sent the initial draft of the Merger Agreement to Mr. Salinas. Mr. Salinas then circulated the Merger Agreement to Baker Botts and Janney.

Janney and Baker Botts sent their presentation materials to the Conflicts Committee prior to the telephonic meeting scheduled for the morning of March 1, 2021. The purpose of the meeting was for Baker Botts and Janney to discuss with the Conflicts Committee (i) preliminary considerations with respect to the Proposed Transaction, (ii) Janney's financial analysis, (iii) the expected tax impacts of the Proposed Transaction on the NBLX Public Unitholders, (iv) the Conflicts Committee's duties and (v) possible counterproposals. Baker Botts provided an overview of the Initial Offer, the Proposed Transaction and Baker Botts' diligence to date. Baker Botts then reviewed with the Conflicts Committee its duties under the Partnership Agreement and applicable law with respect to the Proposed Transaction and engaged in a discussion of such duties with the Conflicts Committee. Janney then presented materials regarding its financial analysis of the Initial Offer. During the presentation, Janney provided, among other things, (i) an overview of Chevron and NBLX, (ii) a summary of the Initial Offer and Proposed Transaction, (iii) a discussion of NBLX management's projections including both lower case and upper case projections, (iv) a detailed valuation analysis of NBLX, including premiums paid analysis, public comparables analysis, precedent transactions analysis and discounted cash flow analysis, (v) a discussion of the type curves utilized by NBLX management in the Forecasts, and (vi) a discussion of the current regulatory environment in Colorado. The Conflicts Committee discussed with its advisors the reasons for, negative factors weighing against, and procedural considerations relating to the Proposed Transaction, a list of which are described under "—Approval of the Conflicts Committee and the GP Board and their Reasons for the Merger." Baker Botts and Janney also presented to the Conflicts Committee on the tax consequences of the Proposed Transaction. After deliberating on the Initial Offer, the Conflicts Committee, Janney and Baker Botts then discussed the outline of a possible counterproposal. The directors decided to hold a discussion among themselves later in the day after they gave further consideration to the materials presented at the meeting.

Later on March 1, 2021, the Conflicts Committee deliberated and decided to deliver a counterproposal to Chevron in response to the Initial Offer. The Conflicts Committee met telephonically with representatives of Janney and Baker Botts during the afternoon of March 1, 2021, to update them on the same. Mr. Salinas, in his capacity as Chairman of the Conflicts Committee, first called Mr. Wallace to preview a response to the Initial Offer and thereafter delivered to Mr. Wallace a letter outlining a counterproposal at an exchange ratio of 0.1419, which was based on (i) a value of $14.00 per NBLX Common Unit, a discount to the trading price as of the close of trading on March 1, 2021, and (ii) the 10-day volume weighted average price ("VWAP") of Chevron Common Stock of $98.6912 as of the close of trading on March 1, 2021 (the "First Counteroffer"). Mr. Wallace responded by stating that Chevron would review the First Counteroffer.

Also on March 1, 2021, Baker Botts submitted another supplemental legal due diligence request to NBLX requesting additional materials in connection with its review and evaluation of the Proposed Transaction. Janney and Baker Botts continued their ongoing financial and legal analyses, respectively.

On March 2, 2021, Mr. Wallace, on behalf of Chevron, and Mr. Salinas, on behalf of the Conflicts Committee, discussed the First Counteroffer and other matters related to NBLX valuation over the course of several phone conversations.

Later on March 2, 2021, Mr. Wallace, on behalf of Chevron, emailed a revised offer to Mr. Salinas, (the “Second Offer”), which reflected an exchange ratio of 0.1393 of a share of Chevron Common Stock for each NBLX Common Unit and specifying that, by way of example, using: (i) the 10-day VWAP of the Chevron Common Stock of $98.6912 referenced in the First Counteroffer; and (ii) the Chevron proposed 0.1393 exchange ratio, the resultant value per NBLX Common Unit would be $13.75.

Later on March 2, 2021, Mr. Salinas, on behalf of the Conflicts Committee, called Mr. Wallace to confirm that the exchange ratio included in the Second Offer would apply to the price of Chevron’s Common Stock on the day of Closing, which Mr. Wallace confirmed.

Later on March 2, 2021, Mr. Salinas, on behalf of the Conflicts Committee, emailed Mr. Wallace to accept the financial terms set forth in the Second Offer. Mr. Wallace subsequently called Mr. Salinas to determine whether the Conflicts Committee was substantially prepared to enter into a definitive agreement regarding the Proposed Transaction, and Mr. Salinas confirmed that it was.

Also on March 2, 2021, NBLX provided a response to Baker Botts’ supplemental legal due diligence request from March 1, 2021 and requested a due diligence call with representatives of Baker Botts.

On the morning of March 3, 2021, Mr. Salinas called Mr. Wallace to inform him that Baker Botts would send a revised draft of the Merger Agreement to Latham later that afternoon.

On March 3, 2021, members of the NBLX internal legal and business teams and Baker Botts attended a due diligence call related to certain NBLX environmental regulatory matters. Baker Botts sent the Conflicts Committee and Janney its presentation materials for the upcoming afternoon meeting regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Later on March 3, 2021, the Conflicts Committee met telephonically with representatives of Janney and Baker Botts, at which time Baker Botts presented an overview of the Merger Agreement, highlighting (i) the mechanics of the merger, (ii) the representations and warranties of NBLX and how they compared to those made by NBLX’s peers in similar transactions, (iii) the interim operating covenants of NBLX and Chevron and their respective businesses during the period between execution of the Merger Agreement and closing of the Proposed Transaction, (iv) directors’ and officers’ indemnity and insurance provisions, and (v) the potential requirement for NBLX or Chevron to reimburse the other party’s expenses, up to $3.5 million, in connection with the termination of the Merger Agreement as a result of a material uncured breach by Chevron, on the one hand, or NBLX or the General Partner, on the other hand. Baker Botts also shared with the Conflicts Committee the results of its legal due diligence review, including, among other things, that the Merger is not reportable under the HSR Act.

Subsequently on March 3, 2021, Baker Botts, on behalf of the Conflicts Committee, sent a revised draft of the Merger Agreement to Latham. Among other things, the revised draft of the Merger Agreement: (i) eliminated certain minority investments or joint ventures that NBLX does not control from the representations and warranties of NBLX and the General Partner; (ii) shortened the length of time covered by certain representations and warranties of NBLX and the General Partner; (iii) deleted the representation and warranty related to tax matters of NBLX and the General Partner; (iv) added exceptions to NBLX’s interim operating covenant that allows it to take actions as provided in any material contract of NBLX; (v) proposed an outside date for the consummation of the Merger of nine months from the date of execution of the Merger Agreement; and (vi) proposed language to clarify the timing of the payment of NBLX’s quarterly distributions immediately prior to the anticipated closing of the Merger.

On March 4, 2021, members of the Chevron business and legal teams met via videoconference with representatives of Latham to discuss the revised Merger Agreement. After discussion, Chevron instructed Latham to make certain changes to the Merger Agreement, preview the remaining open points with Baker Botts, and send Baker Botts a revised draft of the Merger Agreement. Following this, representatives of Latham held a short call with representatives of Baker Botts to discuss the remaining open points in the Merger Agreement.

In the afternoon of March 4, 2021, Latham responded to Baker Botts with a revised draft of the Merger Agreement. Among other things, the revised draft of the Merger Agreement: (i) set an outside date for completion of the Proposed Transaction of six months after execution of the Merger Agreement; (ii) finalized the capitalization representation and warranty of Chevron; and (iii) incorporated Holdings throughout the Merger Agreement, as applicable. Throughout the day on March 4, 2021, representatives of Latham and Baker Botts continued to negotiate minor revisions to the Merger Agreement, and Latham delivered to Baker Botts a draft of the NBLX disclosure schedule relating to the Merger Agreement, to which Baker Botts returned minor revisions. Following this, Mr. Wallace called Mr. Salinas to discuss the status of the Merger Agreement and timing of a meeting of the GP Board to consider the Merger Agreement.

That evening, Latham sent a proposed final draft of the Merger Agreement and the related disclosure schedule to Baker Botts, subject to approval by the Conflicts Committee and the GP Board at their respective meetings later that evening. Baker Botts and Janney distributed their respective presentation materials to the Conflicts Committee in anticipation of the meeting scheduled to occur later that evening.

Also on March 4, 2021, the Conflicts Committee met with representatives of Janney and Baker Botts. Baker Botts reviewed with the Conflicts Committee the final terms of the Merger Agreement that had been negotiated with Chevron. Following the presentation by Baker Botts, Janney reviewed its financial analyses of the Proposed Transaction at the Exchange Ratio and provided the Conflicts Committee with its final valuation analysis with respect to the Proposed Transaction. Upon the request of the Conflicts Committee, Janney then rendered its oral opinion, which was concurrently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, that, as of such date and on the basis and subject to the various assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in Janney's opinion, the Exchange Ratio set forth in the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders. Following receipt of Janney's fairness opinion and further discussion with Janney and Baker Botts, the Conflicts Committee unanimously adopted resolutions that (i) determined that the Proposed Transaction is in, or not adverse to, the interests of NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders, (ii) approved the Proposed Transaction and the Merger Agreement (the foregoing constituting Special Approval as defined in the Partnership Agreement), (iii) resolved to recommend to the GP Board the approval of the Proposed Transaction and the Merger Agreement, and (iv) resolved to recommend to the GP Board that the GP Board recommend the approval of the Proposed Transaction and the Merger Agreement to the NBLX Limited Partners.

Further on March 4, 2021, in a special meeting of the GP Board, the Conflicts Committee provided the GP Board with a full report of the process of evaluating the Proposed Transaction, including (i) the hiring of Janney and Baker Botts as financial and legal advisors, (ii) the results of the price negotiations between Chevron and the Conflicts Committee, (iii) the completion of the due diligence review conducted by Janney and Baker Botts, (iv) the receipt of the oral opinion of Janney as described above, (v) the Conflicts Committee's Special Approval of the Proposed Transaction and the Merger Agreement and (vi) the Conflicts Committee's resolution to recommend that the GP Board recommend the approval of the Proposed Transaction and the Merger Agreement to the Limited Partners. Following discussion between the GP Board and the Conflicts Committee with respect to its report and the terms of the Proposed Transaction and the Merger Agreement, the GP Board (acting, in part, based upon the receipt of such approval and recommendation of the Conflicts Committee), by unanimous vote (a) determined that the Proposed Transaction and the forms, terms and provisions of the Merger Agreement are in, or not adverse to, the interests of NBLX and the NBLX Limited Partners, (b) approved the execution, delivery and performance of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the Proposed Transaction on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, and (c) directed that the adoption of the Merger Agreement and the approval of the Proposed Transaction be submitted to a vote of the NBLX Limited Partners and authorized the NBLX Limited Partners to act by written consent pursuant to the terms of the Partnership Agreement.

Following the meetings of the Conflicts Committee and the GP Board, Chevron, Holdings, Merger Sub, NBLX and the General Partner executed the Merger Agreement, and Chevron caused NBL to deliver the Written Consent.

On March 5, 2021, Chevron and NBLX issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the Merger Agreement.

Resolution of Conflicts of Interest; Standards of Conduct and Modification of Duties

The unanimous approval of the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, by the members of the Conflicts Committee constitutes “Special Approval” under the Partnership Agreement. Under Section 7.9 of the Partnership Agreement, whenever a potential conflict of interest exists or arises between the General Partner or any of its affiliates, on the one hand, and NBLX, any subsidiary or any partner of NBLX, on the other hand, any resolution or course of action by the General Partner or its affiliates in respect of such conflict of interest will be permitted and deemed approved by all of the partners of NBLX and will not constitute a breach of the Partnership Agreement, any Group Member Agreement (as defined in the Partnership Agreement), or any agreement contemplated therein or of any duty stated or implied by law or equity, if the resolution or course of action in respect of such conflict of interest is approved by Special Approval, namely approval by a majority of the members of the Conflicts Committee.

Under Section 7.10(b) of the Partnership Agreement, any action taken or omitted to be taken by the General Partner in reliance upon the advice or opinion of an investment banker, among others, as to matters reasonably believed to be in such person’s professional or expert competence shall be conclusively presumed to have been taken or omitted to be taken in good faith and in accordance with such advice or opinion.

Chevron’s Rationale for the Transaction

At a meeting held on January 27, 2021, the Chevron Board (i) determined that the Merger and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Chevron Stock Issuance, are in the best interests of Chevron and the Chevron Stockholders and (ii) authorized the negotiation, execution and delivery of the Transaction Documents and the consummation of the respective transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger and the Chevron Stock Issuance, on the terms and subject to the conditions to be negotiated by Chevron management.

Chevron viewed the following factors as generally favorable in its determination and approval of the Merger and the transactions related thereto, including the Chevron Stock Issuance:

- Chevron’s belief that NBLX can operate more efficiently and effectively as a private entity, including by improving NBLX’s cost of capital and access to debt capital markets to finance future growth over time.
- Chevron’s belief that improvements to NBLX’s cost structure and strategic direction could be achieved, free of the pressures imposed on a publicly traded partnership as a standalone entity with regard to operating results and quarterly reporting requirements, particularly after the passage of the TCJA and the unfavorable view of the MLP structure in the market thereafter.
- Chevron’s pre-existing understanding of the midstream oil and gas industry and Chevron management’s belief that they can effectively manage NBLX as a private company.

Table of Contents

- Chevron's belief that the management and employees of NBLX and the General Partner will be able to better execute on NBLX's future strategic plans after eliminating, among other things, the compliance and cost burdens of running a separate public company.
- The fact that NBL's delivery of the Written Consent immediately following the execution of the Merger Agreement has already satisfied the NBLX Limited Partner approval requirements for the Merger under the Partnership Agreement.
- Chevron's belief that the Merger Consideration to be paid by Chevron pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to Chevron.
- The fact that the Exchange Ratio is fixed, which protects against Chevron being required to issue additional equity in the event that the market price of shares of Chevron Common Stock decreases prior to Closing and/or the market price of NBLX Common Units appreciates prior to Closing.
- Chevron's familiarity with the businesses, assets, liabilities, results of operations, financial condition and competitive positions of Chevron and NBLX.

Chevron viewed the following factors as generally negative or unfavorable in making a determination with respect to the Merger and the transactions related thereto, including the Chevron Stock Issuance:

- The fact that the Exchange Ratio is fixed, and therefore the value of the Merger Consideration payable to the NBLX Public Unitholders will increase in the event that the market price of shares of Chevron Common Stock increases prior to Closing and will not decrease in the event the market price of NBLX Common Units declines.
- The risk that the potential financial and operational benefits expected from the Merger might not be fully realized.
- The risk that Chevron may be obligated to consummate the Merger even if there are material negative developments or events at NBLX during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the Closing Date (the "Interim Period").
- The attention of management and employees may be diverted during the Interim Period, which may negatively affect Chevron's and NBLX's businesses.
- Litigation may be commenced in connection with the Merger, and that litigation may increase costs and result in a diversion of management focus.
- The risk that the Merger might not be completed in a timely manner or that the Merger might not be consummated at all as a result of a failure to satisfy the conditions contained in the Merger Agreement, and that a failure to complete the Merger could negatively affect the trading price of shares of Chevron Common Stock.

After taking into account all of the factors set forth above, as well as others, Chevron concluded that the potential benefits of the Merger outweighed any negative or unfavorable considerations.

The foregoing discussion is not intended to be exhaustive, but it is intended to address the material information and principal factors considered by Chevron in considering the Merger. In view of the number and variety of factors and the amount of information considered, Chevron did not find it practicable to, and did not make specific assessments of, quantify or assign relative weights to, the specific factors considered in reaching its determination. In addition, Chevron did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor, or any aspect of any particular factor, was favorable or unfavorable to its ultimate determination. Chevron made its recommendation based on the totality of the information presented to, and the investigation conducted by, the Chevron Board and Chevron management. It should be noted that certain statements and other information presented in this section are forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under the heading “Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements.”

Approval of the Conflicts Committee and the GP Board and their Reasons for the Merger

The Conflicts Committee consists of three independent directors of the GP Board: Martin Salinas, Jr., Hallie A. Vanderhider and Andrew E. Viens. The GP Board authorized the Conflicts Committee to (i) review and evaluate the terms and conditions of, and determine the advisability of, the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, for and on behalf of NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders; (ii) negotiate the terms and conditions of the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, for and on behalf of NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders; (iii) determine whether the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, is in, or not adverse to, the interests of NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders; (iv) approve, or determine not to approve, the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby (any such approval of the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby to constitute “Special Approval” as defined in the Partnership Agreement); and (v) recommend to the GP Board that the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, be approved or not approved, or determine not to make any recommendation regarding the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

At a meeting held on March 4, 2021, the Conflicts Committee, by unanimous vote (a) determined that the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, are in, or not adverse to, the interests of NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders, (b) approved the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby (the foregoing constituting Special Approval), (c) resolved to recommend to the GP Board the approval of the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and (d) resolved to recommend to the GP Board that the GP Board recommend the approval of the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, to the NBLX Limited Partners.

At a meeting held on March 4, 2021, the GP Board (acting, in part, based upon the receipt of such approval and recommendation of the Conflicts Committee), by unanimous vote (a) determined that the forms, terms and provisions of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, are in, or not adverse to, the interests of NBLX and the NBLX Limited Partners, (b) approved the execution, delivery and performance of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement and (c) directed that the adoption of the Merger Agreement and the approval of the Merger be submitted to a vote of the NBLX Limited Partners and authorized the NBLX Limited Partners to act by written consent pursuant to the terms of the Partnership Agreement.

The Conflicts Committee retained Baker Botts L.L.P. (“Baker Botts”) as its legal counsel and Janney as its independent financial advisor. The Conflicts Committee believed that Janney was independent based on the lack of material business relationships between Janney and Chevron, NBLX and their respective affiliates. The Conflicts Committee oversaw the performance of financial and legal due diligence by its advisors. The Conflicts Committee also conducted an extensive review and evaluation of the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and conducted negotiations with Chevron and its representatives with respect to the Merger, including the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

The Conflicts Committee consulted with its financial and legal advisors and considered both positive and negative factors in making its determination and approvals and the related recommendation to the GP Board.

The Conflicts Committee considered the following factors to be generally positive or favorable in making its determination and approvals and the related recommendation to the GP Board:

- The Exchange Ratio of 0.1393 equates to (a) an implied value of $14.27 based on the closing price of Chevron Common Stock on March 2, 2021 of $102.44 (the day on which the Conflicts Committee concluded price negotiations with Chevron regarding the Exchange Ratio), which reflected a 14.4% premium to Chevron's original proposal of $12.47 per NBLX Public Common Unit and (b) an implied value of $14.56 based on the closing price of Chevron Common Stock on March 4, 2021 (the last trading day before the announcement of the Merger Agreement).
- The Exchange Ratio is fixed, and therefore the value of the consideration payable to NBLX Public Unitholders will increase in the event that the market price of Chevron Common Stock increases relative to the market price of NBLX Common Units prior to the closing of the Merger.
- The Merger enables NBLX Public Unitholders to participate in the value and opportunities of Chevron after the Merger, including both dividends and expected future growth should they choose to retain their Chevron shares. Alternatively, the significantly larger public float and higher average daily trading volume of Chevron Common Stock will allow the NBLX Public Unitholders to efficiently sell the Chevron Common Stock they receive in the Merger for cash should they decide they do not want to participate in the equity value of Chevron.
- NBLX's midstream assets are primarily located in the DJ Basin in Colorado, which faces increasing and material restrictions on oil and gas development, whereas Chevron has a much more diversified and geographically diverse asset portfolio much less susceptible to increased regulatory restrictions in any one jurisdiction.
- Chevron informed the Conflicts Committee that it did not anticipate future drop down transactions with NBLX, as Chevron does not perceive benefits to it of NBLX's continuing as a public entity, thereby limiting growth opportunities for NBLX.
- The Chevron acreage dedicated to NBLX represents only a portion of Chevron's overall global portfolio, and could face strong internal competition for development capital at Chevron, as well as be subject to intermittent versus continuous development.
- NBLX cut its distribution by 73% from $0.6878 per NBLX Common Unit in the fourth quarter of 2019 to $0.1875 per NBLX Common Unit in the first quarter of 2020, and NBLX does not expect to increase the distribution in the foreseeable future and may in the future be more limited in its ability to pay distributions and remain in compliance with covenants under its existing term loans.
- Chevron has an investment grade rating and a lower cost of capital, a stronger growth outlook and greater access to capital than NBLX, as well as a long history of paying attractive dividends.
- NBLX, as a standalone entity, faces greater risk from lower commodity prices and drilling activity than Chevron because of the latter's scale and size.
- NBLX's EBITDA and cash flow is heavily dependent on Chevron production acquired from Noble.
- NBLX's access to equity capital, like that of many MLPs, remains limited as a result of decreased investor interest in owning MLPs. The Conflicts Committee believes that corporations attract a broader set of investors as compared to MLPs, including in part because certain types of institutional investors face prohibitions or limitations on investing in entities other than corporations. Furthermore, the passage of the TCJA lowered the U.S. federal corporate income tax rate from 35% to 21% and thereby reduced the former comparative tax benefits of the MLP pass-through structure.

- NBLX's $500 million term loan facility matures on July 31, 2021 and its $400 million term loan facility matures on August 23, 2022, and NBLX may face challenges in refinancing this debt. Due to, among other things, the relative cost of debt capital for non-investment grade MLPs such as NBLX, any such refinanced debt would likely bear a higher rate of interest than the existing term loan facilities.
- After evaluating the Merger and the status quo, the Conflicts Committee believed that pursuing the Merger was more attractive than maintaining the status quo. Furthermore, the Conflicts Committee also believed that there are no viable alternative transactions for the General Partner in lieu of a transaction with Chevron that would provide comparable or superior value, in light of Chevron's controlling position in NBLX through Chevron's indirect ownership of the General Partner and approximately 62.5% of the NBLX Common Units and the Conflicts Committee's recognition of overall risks and uncertainties in midstream corporate and asset transactions.
- NBLX Public Unitholders will receive equity ownership in a corporate entity with traditional fiduciary duties owed to stockholders (which are more robust than those under the Partnership Agreement) and the ability to vote in the election of directors.
- The Merger will provide cost savings and efficiencies for the combined entity as a result of deregistering NBLX as a separate public entity.
- The NBLX Public Unitholders' aggregate tax obligations resulting from the Merger are expected to be mitigated to some extent because a large proportion of the unitholders have a relatively high adjusted tax basis in their NBLX Public Common Units and many of the NBLX Public Unitholders have suspended passive losses available to offset a portion of the taxable gain, including ordinary income, that will be recognized in the Merger.
- The Conflicts Committee believes that the Exchange Ratio of 0.1393 shares of Chevron Common Stock for each NBLX Public Common Unit represented the highest exchange ratio that Chevron would be willing to pay the NBLX Public Unitholders.
- The Conflicts Committee reviewed and discussed Janney's financial presentations with representatives of Janney and received an oral opinion of Janney, dated March 4, 2021, to the Conflicts Committee, which was concurrently confirmed in writing on March 4, 2021, that, as of such date and on the basis of and subject to the various assumptions, qualifications, and limitations set forth in Janney's opinion, the Exchange Ratio set forth in the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders.
- The fact that Chevron caused NBL, which beneficially owns 56,447,616 NBLX Common Units, representing approximately 62.5% of the outstanding NBLX Common Units, to deliver the Written Consent approving the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger. Accordingly, the delivery of the Written Consent is sufficient to approve the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, on behalf of the NBLX Limited Partners.
- The terms of the Merger Agreement, principally:
 - o each NBLX Public Unitholder will receive 0.1393 shares of Chevron Common Stock per outstanding NBLX Public Common Unit;
 - o Chevron's obligation to reimburse certain NBLX expenses, up to $3.5 million, in connection with the termination of the Merger Agreement as a result of a material uncured breach by Chevron under the Merger Agreement;

- o the operating covenants of Chevron providing protection to the NBLX Public Unitholders prior to Closing by restricting Chevron's ability to take certain actions prior to the closing of the Merger that could reduce the value of the Chevron Common Stock received by the NBLX Public Unitholders in the Merger;
- o under the terms of the Merger Agreement, prior to the Effective Time, Chevron and its subsidiaries, including the General Partner, are prohibited from revoking or diminishing the authority of the Conflicts Committee or from removing any member of the Conflicts Committee without the consent of the Conflicts Committee prior to the closing of the Merger;
- o the Merger Agreement requires Conflicts Committee authorization with respect to the mutual agreement by Chevron and NBLX to terminate the Merger Agreement, and any amendment to, waiver of, or consent under the Merger Agreement by NBLX requires the Conflicts Committee's approval in writing;
- o the Merger Agreement contains only limited conditions and exceptions to the closing conditions; and
- o the approval of the Chevron Stockholders is not required in connection with the Merger or the Chevron Stock Issuance.

The Conflicts Committee considered the following factors to be generally negative or unfavorable in arriving at its determinations and approvals, and the related recommendation to the GP Board:

- The Exchange Ratio of 0.1393 equates to an implied value of $14.27 based on the closing price of Chevron Common Stock on March 2, 2021 (the day on which the Conflicts Committee concluded price negotiations with Chevron regarding the Exchange Ratio), which reflected a 3.6% discount to the closing price of NBLX Common Units on March 2, 2021 of $14.80.
- The Exchange Ratio is fixed, and therefore the value of the consideration payable to NBLX Public Unitholders will decrease in the event that the market price of Chevron Common Stock decreases relative to the market price of NBLX Common Units prior to the closing of the Merger.
- The NBLX Common Units have, in the past, traded at levels that exceed $14.56 per NBLX Common Unit, the amount implied by the Exchange Ratio as of March 4, 2021.
- The Merger will be a taxable transaction to the NBLX Public Unitholders for U.S. federal and state income tax purposes. Depending on each NBLX Public Unitholder's individual tax situation, such NBLX Public Unitholder will recognize taxable gain or loss upon the exchange of the NBLX Public Common Units for Chevron Common Stock in the Merger. Additionally, a portion of any such taxable gain or loss will be separately computed and any gain will be taxed as ordinary income.
- Following the Merger, the income of the resulting combined entity will be subject to double taxation (at the combined company and stockholder levels) for U.S. federal income tax purposes because Chevron is a corporation, while the income of NBLX is currently subject to only one level of tax (at the unitholder level) because NBLX is a partnership.
- Because Chevron caused NBL to execute the Written Consent immediately after the execution of the Merger Agreement, which was sufficient for approval of the Merger, the Conflicts Committee was not authorized to, and did not, conduct an auction process or other solicitation of interest from third parties for the acquisition of NBLX.

Table of Contents

- The Merger Agreement does not include a “majority of the minority” approval condition, and therefore approval of the Merger does not require the affirmative vote of the NBLX Public Unitholders.
- The combined company may be unable to realize fully the potential benefits sought in the Merger, including as a result of energy industry, competitive, economic, financial, technological, regulatory or other developments.
- The Merger may not be completed in a timely manner, or at all, which could result in significant costs and disruption to NBLX’s normal business and a decline in the trading price of NBLX Common Units.
- The fact that the market price of the NBLX Common Units could be affected by many factors, including the following if the Merger Agreement is terminated: (i) the reason for such termination and whether such termination resulted from factors adversely affecting NBLX, (ii) the possibility that, as a result of the termination of the Merger Agreement, possible acquirers (including Chevron in any future consideration) may consider NBLX to be an unattractive acquisition candidate, and (iii) the possible sale of NBLX Common Units by short-term investors following an announcement that the Merger Agreement was terminated.
- The risks and contingencies relating to the announcement and pendency of the Merger, including the potential for diversion of management and employee attention and the potential effect on NBLX’s business and the restrictions on the conduct of NBLX’s business during the period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the completion of the Merger and other transactions contemplated thereby.
- Certain terms of the Merger Agreement, principally:
 - o NBLX’s obligations to reimburse certain Chevron expenses, up to $3.5 million, in connection with the termination of the Merger Agreement as a result of a material uncured breach by NBLX or the General Partner under the Merger Agreement;
 - o the operating covenants of NBLX providing protection to the Chevron Stockholders prior to Closing by restricting NBLX’s ability to take certain actions prior to the closing of the Merger that could reduce the value of the NBLX Public Common Units acquired by Chevron in the Merger; and
 - o the operating covenants of Chevron providing protection to the NBLX Unitholders prior to closing are limited.
- The NBLX Public Unitholders are not entitled to dissenters’ or appraisal rights under the Merger Agreement, NBLX’s Partnership Agreement or Delaware law.
- The NBLX Public Unitholders will be forgoing the potential benefits that would be realized by remaining unitholders of NBLX on a standalone basis.
- Litigation may occur in connection with the Merger, and such litigation may increase costs and result in a diversion of management focus.
- Some of the directors and executive officers of Chevron and the General Partner may have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of the Chevron Stockholders and NBLX Public Unitholders.

In addition to the factors described above, the Conflicts Committee considered the following procedural factors in making its determination that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby are in, or not adverse to, the interests of NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders:

- The terms and conditions of the Merger were determined through arm's-length negotiations between Chevron and the Conflicts Committee and their respective representatives and advisors.
- Each of the members of the Conflicts Committee satisfies the requirements for serving on the Conflicts Committee as required under the Partnership Agreement, including the requirement that all members of the Conflicts Committee be independent directors.
- The Conflicts Committee retained independent financial and legal advisors with reputations, knowledge and experience with respect to public merger and acquisition transactions, MLPs, and the midstream and oil and gas industries, as well as substantial experience advising MLPs and other companies with respect to transactions similar to the Merger and familiarity with NBLX and its business.
- The members of the Conflicts Committee have served on the GP Board and are familiar with, and understand, the businesses, assets, liabilities, results of operations, financial condition and competitive positions and prospects of NBLX.
- The compensation of the members of the Conflicts Committee is in no way contingent on their approving the Merger Agreement or the Merger.
- NBLX LTIP Awards for NBLX Common Units that are outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will be automatically converted into awards to receive shares of Chevron Common Stock, with the number of Chevron shares determined based on the Exchange Ratio (rounded up to the nearest whole share). The Merger will not result in the acceleration of vesting or payment of the outstanding NBLX LTIP Awards. The members of the Conflicts Committee will not personally benefit from the consummation of the Merger in a manner different from the NBLX Public Unitholders.
- Although no specific issues came to the attention of the Conflicts Committee with respect to information it was provided, the Conflicts Committee was aware that Chevron, as the controlling party of NBLX, controlled the delivery and presentation of information the Conflicts Committee received for purposes of evaluating the Merger and the fairness of the Merger Consideration to the NBLX Public Unitholders.
- The Conflicts Committee had no obligation to recommend any transaction, including Chevron's proposal.

After taking into account all of the factors set forth above, as well as others, the Conflicts Committee concluded that the potential benefits of the Merger outweighed any negative or unfavorable considerations and determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby are in, or not adverse to, the interests of NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders.

The foregoing discussion is not intended to be exhaustive but is intended to address the material information and principal factors considered by the Conflicts Committee in considering the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. In view of the number and variety of factors and the amount of information considered, the Conflicts Committee did not find it practicable to, and did not make specific assessments of, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to, the specific factors considered in reaching its determination. In addition, the Conflicts Committee did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor, or any aspect of any particular factor, was favorable or unfavorable to its ultimate determination, and individual members of the Conflicts Committee may have given different weights to different factors. The Conflicts Committee made its recommendation based on the totality of information presented to, and the investigation conducted by, the Conflicts Committee. It should be noted that certain statements and other information presented in this section are forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under the heading “Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements.”

Unaudited Financial Projections of NBLX

In connection with the proposed Merger, Chevron management and the General Partner’s management prepared separate projections relating to NBLX (without giving effect to the Merger) that included future financial and operating performance (the “Chevron-Prepared Projections” and the “GP-Prepared Projections,” respectively, and together the “Projections”). Chevron management based the Chevron-Prepared Projections on projections previously provided to it by the General Partner’s management during a periodic budgeting process, and made certain adjustments thereto. The GP-Prepared Projections contained both an upper case and a lower case. The cases differed principally with respect to projected drilling and well connection assumptions for both Chevron and NBLX’s third party customers.

The Chevron-Prepared Projections were provided to Citi for its use and consideration in its analysis of the proposed Merger and were used in the analysis incorporated into the Management Presentation. The GP-Prepared Projections were provided to Janney for its use and consideration in its financial analysis in preparation of its opinion to the Conflicts Committee. Janney received a copy of the Chevron-Prepared Projections, compared them with the GP-Prepared Projections and concluded that the Chevron-Prepared Projections were substantially similar to the lower case included within the GP-Prepared Projections with the exception of the assumed refinancing of NBLX’s near term debt maturities. The Chevron-Prepared Projections assumed debt incurred to refinance NBLX’s term loans maturing in July 2021 and August 2022 would be longer term and have a higher interest rate than assumed in the lower case included within the GP-Prepared Projections, with the result that the Chevron-Prepared Projections projected lower cash flows to NBLX Unitholders. Janney did not utilize the Chevron-Prepared Projections in its analysis.

A summary of these Projections is included below to give holders of NBLX Public Common Units access to certain non-public unaudited prospective financial information that was made available to the Conflicts Committee, the GP Board, the Conflicts Committee’s financial advisor and Chevron’s financial advisor in connection with the proposed Merger.

Uncertainties are inherent in prospective financial information of any kind. None of Chevron, NBLX, the General Partner or any of their respective affiliates, advisors, officers, directors, managers or representatives has made or makes any representation or can give any assurance to any NBLX Limited Partner or any other person regarding the ultimate performance of NBLX compared to the summarized information set forth below or that any such results will be achieved.

The summary projections set forth below summarize the Projections made available to the Conflicts Committee, the GP Board, the Conflict Committee’s legal and financial advisors and Chevron’s financial advisor. The inclusion of the following summary projections in this information statement/prospectus should not be regarded as an indication that Chevron, NBLX, the General Partner or their respective representatives considered or consider the projections to be necessarily predictive of actual future performance or events, and the summary projections set forth below should not be relied upon as such.

While Chevron and NBLX may provide public earnings guidance from time to time, Chevron and NBLX do not as a matter of course publicly disclose other financial forecasts as to future earnings or financial performance or results because of, among other reasons, the uncertainty underlying assumptions and estimates. The Projections summarized below were prepared by Chevron management and the General Partner’s management, as applicable. The Projections were only prepared for internal purposes and not with a view toward public disclosure or toward compliance with GAAP, the published guidelines of the SEC, or the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for the preparation of prospective financial information but, in the view of Chevron management or the General Partner's management, as applicable, were prepared on a reasonable basis and reflect the best currently available estimates and judgments. However, this information is not fact and should not be relied upon as necessarily indicative of actual future results, and readers of this information statement/prospectus are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the prospective financial information.

Neither Chevron's and NBLX's respective independent registered public accounting firms, nor any other independent accountants, have compiled, examined, or performed any procedures with respect to the prospective financial information contained herein, nor have they expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on such information or its achievability, and assume no responsibility for, and disclaim any association with, the prospective financial information.

The prospective financial information included in this information statement/prospectus has been prepared by, and is the responsibility of the management of the General Partner and Chevron, as applicable. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP has not audited, reviewed, examined, compiled nor applied agreed-upon procedures with respect to the accompanying prospective financial information and, accordingly, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP does not express an opinion or any other form of assurance with respect thereto. The PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP report included in this document relates to Chevron's previously issued financial statements. It does not extend to the prospective financial information and should not be read to do so.

The KPMG LLP reports incorporated by reference into this information statement/prospectus with respect to NBLX relate to the historical financial information of NBLX. Such reports do not extend to the projections included below and should not be read to do so. Neither the Chevron Board nor the GP Board prepared, and none of the GP Board, the Conflicts Committee, the General Partner, Chevron, the Chevron Board or any other party gives any assurance to any NBLX Limited Partner regarding, the summarized information.

The Projections are, in general, prepared primarily for internal use. Such internal forecasts are inherently subjective in nature, susceptible to interpretation and, accordingly, such forecasts may not be achieved. The internal financial forecasts also reflect numerous assumptions made by management, including material assumptions that may not be realized and are subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond the control of Chevron or NBLX. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the assumptions made in preparing the Projections will be realized. There will be differences between actual and forecasted results, and the differences may be material. The risk that these uncertainties and contingencies could cause the assumptions to fail to be reflective of actual results is further increased given the length of time in the future over which these assumptions apply. Any assumptions and projections in early periods could have a compounding effect on the projections shown for later periods. Thus, any failure of an assumption or projections to be reflective of actual results in an early period could have a greater effect on the projected results failing to be reflective of actual events in later periods.

All of these assumptions involve variables making them difficult to predict, and some are beyond the control of Chevron and NBLX. Although Chevron management and the General Partner's management, as applicable, believes that there was a reasonable basis for the Chevron-Prepared Projections and the GP-Prepared Projections, and underlying assumptions, any assumptions for near-term projected cases remain uncertain, and become less predictive with the length of the forecasted period. The Projections are forward-looking statements and are subject to risks and uncertainties. See "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements."

Opinion of the Financial Advisor to the Conflicts Committee

Pursuant to an engagement letter dated as of February 18, 2021, the Conflicts Committee retained Janney as its financial advisor in connection with the consideration of the proposed acquisition of NBLX by Chevron. At the meeting of the Conflicts Committee on March 4, 2021, Janney rendered its oral opinion to the Conflicts Committee that, as of such date and on the basis of and subject to the various assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in its opinion, the Exchange Ratio set forth in the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders. Janney concurrently confirmed its oral opinion by delivering its written opinion to the Conflicts Committee, dated as of March 4, 2021, that, as of such date and on the basis of and subject to the various assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in its opinion, the Exchange Ratio set forth in the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders.

The full text of the written opinion of Janney dated March 4, 2021, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex B to this information statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. The summary of the opinion of Janney set forth in this information statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion. The NBLX Unitholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety. Janney's written opinion was addressed to the Conflicts Committee (in its capacity as such) in connection with and for the purposes of its evaluation of the Merger, was directed only to the Exchange Ratio and did not address any other aspect of the Merger. Janney expressed no opinion as to the fairness of the consideration to the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of NBLX or as to the underlying decision by NBLX to engage in the Merger. The issuance of Janney's opinion was approved by the fairness opinion committee of Janney. The opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any NBLX Unitholder as to how such unitholder should vote with respect to the Merger or any other matter.

In arriving at its opinion, Janney, among other things:

- reviewed certain publicly available information such as annual reports, quarterly reports and other filings of NBLX and Chevron with the SEC;
- reviewed the historical financial performance, current financial position and general prospects of NBLX and Chevron;
- reviewed certain internal financial and operating information with respect to the business, operations and general prospects of NBLX, including certain financial forecasts prepared by the management of the General Partner;
- discussed the historical financial performance, current financial position and general prospects of NBLX and Chevron with members of the senior management team of the General Partner and Chevron;
- reviewed the draft Merger Agreement, dated March 4, 2021, to the extent applicable to its analysis;
- reviewed certain presentations to the Conflicts Committee from the management of the General Partner and Chevron;
- reviewed the current and historical price ranges and trading activity of the NBLX Common Units and the Chevron Common Stock;
- to the extent deemed relevant, analyzed information of certain selected publicly traded companies and compared NBLX and Chevron from a financial point of view to these other companies;
- to the extent deemed relevant, analyzed information of certain other selected transactions and compared the Merger from a financial point of view to these other transactions to the extent information concerning such transactions was available;
- discussed with the GP Board and certain members of senior management of the General Partner the strategic aspects of the Merger, including, but not limited to, past and current business operations, financial condition and prospects (including their views on the risks and uncertainties of achieving their forecasts); and
- performed such other analyses and examinations and considered such other information, studies, analyses and inquiries, as it deemed necessary.

In giving its opinion, Janney assumed, with the Conflicts Committee's consent and without independent verification, that (i) the parties to the Merger Agreement will comply with all material terms of the Merger Agreement, (ii) the Merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement without any waiver or amendment of any material term or condition thereof, (iii) the Merger will have the tax consequences described in discussions with, and materials furnished by, management of the General Partner, (iv) the Exchange Ratio will not be adjusted in accordance with the Merger Agreement or otherwise, and (v) the final executed form of the Merger Agreement will not differ in any material respect from the draft dated March 4, 2021, that Janney reviewed. Janney also assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Merger will be obtained without any material delay or adverse effect on NBLX or the Merger.

Janney relied upon, and assumed, the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to it from public sources, that was provided to Janney by the General Partner and its representatives or that was otherwise reviewed by Janney. Janney further relied on the assurances of management of the General Partner that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. Janney was not asked to and did not undertake any independent verification of any of such information and did not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. For purposes of its opinion, Janney was not requested to, and did not, make an independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of NBLX or any of its affiliates or subsidiaries and was not furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. Janney did not make any physical inspection of the properties or assets of NBLX. With respect to the financial forecasts prepared by the management of the General Partner, such management confirmed that the financial forecasts have been prepared in good faith and reflect the best currently available estimates and judgments of such management of the future financial performance of NBLX. Janney assumed such financial projections will be achieved and expressed no opinion or view as to such financial projections or the assumptions on which they are based or whether if the Merger is not consummated that performance of NBLX would be consistent with such forecasts. Janney assumed in all respects material to its analysis that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement and all related agreements were true and correct, that each party to such agreements will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under such agreements, that the conditions precedent to the Merger Agreement are not waived, and that the Merger will be consummated in a timely manner in accordance with the terms described in the Merger Agreement in the form provided to Janney without any amendments or modifications thereto.

Janney's opinion was rendered on the basis of market, economic and other conditions prevailing as of the date of such opinion and on the conditions and prospects, financial and otherwise, of NBLX and Chevron, as they existed and were known to Janney on such date, and Janney assumed no responsibility for updating, revising or reaffirming its opinion based on circumstances, developments or events occurring after the date thereof. Janney's opinion was furnished solely for the use and benefit of the Conflicts Committee in connection with its consideration of the Merger, and does not constitute a recommendation as to the advisability of the Merger. Janney's opinion was directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders, of the Exchange Ratio set forth in the Merger Agreement, and does not address the fairness of the Merger to, or any consideration received in connection therewith by, or the amount or nature of any compensation to be paid or payable to any of the officers, directors or employees of NBLX, or class of such persons, whether relative to the Exchange Ratio or otherwise. Janney did not express any opinion as to the impact of the Merger on the solvency or viability of NBLX, any of the other parties to the Merger Agreement or their ability to pay their debts when they become due.

Janney's opinion does not address, among other things, (i) the relative merits of the Merger as compared to other business strategies or transactions that might be available to NBLX, (ii) the underlying business decision of NBLX or any other party to proceed with or effect the Merger or (iii) the terms of any arrangements, understandings, agreements or documents related to, or the form, structure or any other portion or aspect of, the Merger or otherwise (other than the Exchange Ratio to the extent expressly specified in the opinion). Such opinion and underlying financial analyses should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the Conflicts Committee or management with respect to the Merger or the Exchange Ratio. Such opinion and analysis were only one of the many factors considered by the Conflicts Committee in its evaluation of the Merger.

Overview of Analyses

The following is a brief summary of the material analyses performed by Janney in connection with the rendering of its opinion dated March 4, 2021:

- Premiums paid analysis;
- Public comparables analysis;
- Precedent transactions analysis; and
- Discounted cash flows analysis.

This summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Janney. Certain of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in tabular format, which must be read together with the full text of each summary to understand such analyses. The order of the analyses described and the results of these analyses do not represent the relative importance or weight given to these analyses by Janney. Accordingly, Janney's analysis must be considered as a whole. Considering any portion of the various analyses and factors reviewed, without bearing in mind all analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying Janney's opinion.

Premiums Paid Analysis

Using publicly available information, Janney analyzed the premiums and discounts paid in certain midstream-parent buy-in transactions identified in the table below and having characteristics similar to the Merger and occurring since 2016.

None of the selected transactions or selected companies or partnerships that were involved in the selected transactions was identical or directly comparable to NBLX, Chevron or the Merger. An analysis of the results, therefore, requires complex considerations and judgments regarding the financial and operating characteristics of NBLX and Chevron and the companies or partnerships involved in the selected precedent transactions, as well as other factors that could affect premiums and discounts paid. The table below summarizes the mean and median premiums paid in such transactions at one-day, ten-day, 30-day and 60-day volume-weighted average prices (“VWAP”) based on business days, excluding holidays.

| | Mean | Median |
|---------|-------------|---------------|
| One-day | 8% | 7% |
| Ten-day | 11% | 10% |
| 30-day | 12% | 9% |
| 60-day | 13% | 12% |

Janney also observed a recent third-party gathering and processing (“G&P”) transaction between Energy Transfer LP and Enable Midstream Partners, LP that was announced February 17, 2021, where the exchange ratio represented an at-the-market transaction based on the two partnerships’ ten-day VWAPs.

Janney reviewed the relevant merger premiums and derived a range of premiums to NBLX’s one-day, ten-day, 30-day and 60-day VWAPs as of February 4, 2021, the last trading day prior to the announcement of Chevron’s offer to acquire NBLX, of 0.0% – 15.0%. Janney determined an implied equity value per NBLX Common Unit range of $10.64 – $14.34.

Janney compared such prices to the closing per share price and ten-day VWAP of Chevron Common Stock as of March 4, 2021, the last trading date before delivery of Janney’s opinion. The analysis indicated a range of implied Exchange Ratios of 0.1018x – 0.1409x.

Public Comparables Analysis

Using publicly available information, Janney compared selected financial data of NBLX with similar data for selected publicly traded companies engaged in businesses that Janney judged to be analogous to NBLX. None of the selected companies reviewed is identical or directly comparable to NBLX. However, these companies and partnerships were selected, among other reasons, because they are publicly traded companies and partnerships with operations and businesses that, for purposes of Janney’s analysis, may be considered sufficiently similar in certain respects to NBLX. The analysis necessarily involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operational characteristics of the companies and partnerships involved and other factors that could affect the companies and partnerships differently than they would affect NBLX. The companies and partnerships selected by Janney were:

- Altus Midstream Company;
- Antero Midstream Corporation;
- Hess Midstream LP;
- Oasis Midstream Partners LP;
- Rattler Midstream LP; and
- Western Midstream Partners, LP.

Using publicly available information as of March 4, 2021, Janney calculated and compared, for each selected company and partnership listed above, various financial multiples and ratios. For each of the following analyses performed by Janney, estimated financial data for the selected companies and partnerships is based on information obtained from company and partnership filings, S&P Capital IQ and Wall Street research. The information Janney calculated for each of the selected companies and partnerships included:

- Multiple of enterprise value to estimated adjusted EBITDA (defined as earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization, less incentive distribution rights payments to the sponsor, if applicable) for the fiscal years ending December 31, 2021 (which we refer to as “FYE 2021”) and December 31, 2022 (which we refer to as “FYE 2022”);

- Current yield;
- Discounted cash flow coverage for FYE 2021; and
- Multiple of net debt to adjusted EBITDA for FYE 2021.

The resulting mean and median trading multiples and ratios of NBLX selected comparable companies and partnerships are set forth below:

| | Mean | Median |
|------------------------------|-------------|---------------|
| EV / Adjusted EBITDA (2021E) | 8.8x | 8.7x |
| EV / Adjusted EBITDA (2022E) | 8.5x | 8.5x |
| Current Yield | 8.7% | 8.7% |
| 2021E DCF Coverage | 1.90x | 1.85x |
| Net Debt / 2021E EBITDA | 2.8x | 2.7x |

Janney did not rely solely on the quantitative results of the selected public company analysis, but also made qualitative judgments concerning differences between the business, financial and operating characteristics and prospects of NBLX and the selected companies and partnerships that could affect the public trading values of each in order to provide a context in which to consider the results of the quantitative analysis. These qualitative judgments related primarily to the differing growth prospects, asset profiles and capital structures between NBLX and the companies and partnerships included in the selected public company analysis. Based upon these judgments, Janney selected multiple reference ranges for NBLX of 8.00x – 9.50x and 7.75x – 9.25x for enterprise value to estimated FYE 2021 and FYE 2022 adjusted EBITDA, respectively.

After applying such ranges to the appropriate metrics for NBLX based on both the lower case and the upper case contained in the GP-Prepared Projections and relative to the closing per share price and ten-day VWAP of Chevron Common Stock as of March 4, 2021, the last trading date before delivery of Janney’s opinion, the analysis indicated a range of implied Exchange Ratios of 0.1001x – 0.1568x for the lower case and 0.1385x – 0.2039x for the upper case.

Precedent Transactions Analysis

Using publicly available information, Janney examined selected transactions with respect to corporate midstream transactions in the energy G&P sector. None of the selected transactions or selected companies or partnerships that were involved in the selected transactions were identical or directly comparable to NBLX, Chevron or the Merger. An analysis of the results, therefore, requires complex considerations and judgments regarding the financial and operating characteristics of NBLX and Chevron and the companies or partnerships involved in the selected precedent transactions.

Using publicly available information, Janney calculated, for each of the selected transactions listed below, the enterprise value as a multiple of EBITDA over the next twelve months (“NTM EBITDA”). Janney reviewed the following corporate midstream transactions in the G&P sector:

| Announcement Date | Buyer | Seller |
|--------------------------|---------------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| February 2021 | Energy Transfer LP | Enable Midstream Partners, LP |
| July 2020 | CNX Resources Corporation | CNX Midstream Partners LP |
| February 2020 | Equitrans Midstream Corporation | EQM Midstream Partners, LP |
| March 2019 | ArcLight Energy Partners Fund V, L.P. | American Midstream Partners, LP |

| Announcement Date | Buyer | Seller |
|--------------------------|---------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| November 2018 | Western Gas Equity Partners, LP | Western Gas Partners, LP |
| October 2018 | EnLink Midstream, LLC | EnLink Midstream Partners, LP |
| October 2018 | Antero Midstream GP LP | Antero Midstream Partners LP |
| August 2018 | Energy Transfer Equity, L.P. | Energy Transfer Partners, L.P. |
| May 2018 | Enbridge Inc. | Enbridge Energy Partners, L.P. |
| May 2018 | The Williams Companies, Inc. | Williams Partners L.P. |
| April 2018 | EQM Midstream Partners, LP | Rice Midstream Partners LP |

Based on the results of this analysis and other factors which Janney considered appropriate based on its experience and professional judgment, Janney selected a multiple reference range for enterprise value to NTM EBITDA of 7.50x – 10.00x to apply to both the upper case and the lower case.

After applying this range to the appropriate metrics for NBLX based on both the lower case and the upper case and relative to the closing per share price and ten-day VWAP of Chevron Common Stock as of March 4, 2021, the last trading date before delivery of Janney’s opinion, this analysis indicated a range of implied Exchange Ratios of 0.0757x – 0.1641x in the lower case and 0.1018x – 0.1998x in the upper case.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Janney conducted a discounted cash flow analysis for the purpose of determining an implied Exchange Ratio based on the upper case and lower case contained in the GP-Prepared Projections provided to Janney by management. A discounted cash flow analysis is a method of evaluating an asset using estimates of the future unlevered free cash flows generated by the asset and taking into consideration the time value of money with respect to those future cash flows by calculating their “present value.” For purposes of the discounted cash flow analysis, the “unlevered free cash flows” refers to a calculation of the future cash flows generated by an asset without including in such calculation any debt servicing costs. “Present value” refers to the current value of an asset’s cash flows, and is obtained by discounting those cash flows back to the present using a discount rate that takes into account economic assumptions, estimates of risk and other appropriate factors. “Terminal value” refers to the capitalized value of all cash flows from an asset for periods beyond the final forecast period.

Janney calculated the present value, as of June 30, 2021, of (i) the unlevered free cash flows that NBLX was forecasted to generate during the second half of 2021 and the years ending December 31, 2022 through 2025 based upon each of the lower case and the upper case, and (ii) an implied terminal enterprise value.

Using an estimated weighted average cost of capital ranging from 9.0% – 13.5% for the lower case and 9.0% – 18.0% for the upper case, Janney discounted: (i) NBLX’s estimated unlevered free cash flow and (ii) a range of illustrative terminal values derived from the use of terminal EBITDA multiples ranging from 7.5x – 9.0x. Janney derived such weighted average cost of capital by application of both the capital asset pricing model and professional experience, and such terminal EBITDA multiple range using its professional judgment, taking into account, among other things, an analysis of NBLX and NBLX’s public comparables and precedent transactions. Janney then subtracted NBLX’s net debt and the book value of preferred equity of a subsidiary of NBLX to arrive at an implied equity value for NBLX. Janney then divided the implied equity value for NBLX by the NBLX Common Units outstanding. The analysis resulted in a range of implied equity values per NBLX Common Unit for each of the lower case and the upper case.

Relative to the closing per share price and ten-day VWAP of Chevron Common Stock as of March 4, 2021, the last trading date before delivery of Janney’s opinion, the discounted cash flow analysis indicated a range of implied Exchange Ratios of 0.0808x – 0.1760x in the lower case and 0.1233x – 0.3051x in the upper case.

General

The foregoing summary of certain material financial analyses does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Janney. In connection with the review of the Merger by the Conflicts Committee, Janney performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses for purposes of rendering its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Janney believes that the foregoing summary and its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the foregoing summary and these analyses, without considering all of its analyses as a whole, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying the analyses and its opinion. In arriving at its opinion, Janney considered the results of all analyses and did not draw, in isolation, conclusions from or with regard to any one analysis or factor considered by it for purposes of its opinion. Janney did not attribute any particular weight to any analyses or factors considered by it and did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative), considered in isolation, supported or failed to support its opinion. Rather, Janney made its determination as to fairness on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all analyses and did not assign any particular weighting to any individual analysis. The order of the analyses described and the results of these analyses do not represent the relative importance or weight given to these analyses by Janney.

Janney prepared these analyses for purpose of providing an opinion to the Conflicts Committee that, as of the date of the opinion and on the basis of and subject to the various assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in Janney's opinion, the Exchange Ratio set forth in the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to NBLX and the NBLX Public Unitholders. These analyses do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily to reflect the prices at which the business or securities actually may be sold. Any estimates contained in these analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by such estimates. Accordingly, estimates used in, and the results derived from, Janney's analyses are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty, and Janney assumes no responsibility if future results are materially different from those forecasted in such estimates. The Exchange Ratio was determined through arm's length negotiations and was approved by the Conflicts Committee and by the GP Board.

For services rendered in connection with the Merger and the delivery of Janney's opinion, NBLX has agreed to pay Janney (i) an advisory fee of $1 million, $500,000 of which was payable upon substantial completion of the due diligence and financial analysis necessary for providing advisory services and $500,000 of which was payable upon completion of the Merger; and (ii) an opinion fee of $1.5 million upon delivery of the opinion to the Conflicts Committee, which was not contingent on the conclusions reached in such opinion. In addition, NBLX agreed to reimburse Janney for its expenses incurred in connection with its services, including the fees and disbursements of counsel, and will indemnify Janney against certain liabilities arising out of its engagement. During the two years preceding the date of Janney's opinion, Janney did not have a material relationship with NBLX. In the ordinary course of Janney business, Janney and its affiliates may actively trade the debt and equity securities or financial instruments (including derivatives, bank loans or other obligations) of NBLX or Chevron for their own accounts or for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, Janney may at any time hold long or short positions in such securities or other financial instruments.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

NBLX Limited Partners should be aware that NBLX is controlled by Chevron through its indirect ownership of the General Partner. The General Partner owns all of the outstanding general partner interests in NBLX. As a result, Chevron controls who is appointed to the GP Board and thereby could be seen as controlling all of NBLX's decisions, other than those involving certain conflicts of interest with Chevron or that require an affirmative vote of the NBLX Limited Partners pursuant to the Partnership Agreement. In addition, as of March 4, 2021, Chevron beneficially owned 56,447,616 NBLX Common Units, which represents approximately 62.4% of the outstanding NBLX Common Units.

Existing Relationships of Chevron Officers with NBLX

Certain persons associated with Chevron (or one of its subsidiaries) have a relationship with NBLX. Chevron controls the General Partner through its ownership of NBL. NBL, as the sole member of the General Partner, is entitled under the limited liability company agreement of the General Partner to appoint all of the directors of the General Partner. Accordingly, NBL has appointed to the GP Board, and has the ability to remove from the GP Board, each of the directors of the General Partner, including, subject to the terms of the Merger Agreement restricting the removal of the Conflicts Committee members during the pendency of the Merger Agreement, each of the members of the Conflicts Committee.

In addition, certain of the directors and executive officers of the General Partner also serve as directors and/or officers of Chevron (or one of its subsidiaries).

| Name | Position at Chevron (or one of its subsidiaries) | Position at the General Partner |
|----------------------|--|---|
| Colin E. Parfitt | Vice President of Midstream | Chairman of the Board of Directors |
| Andrei F. B. Behdjet | Vice President and General Counsel of Downstream & Chemicals and Midstream | Member of the Board of Directors |
| Stephen W. Green | President of Chevron North America Exploration and Production Company | Member of the Board of Directors |
| Alana Knowles | Vice President of Finance, Downstream & Chemicals and Midstream | Member of the Board of Directors |

The table below sets forth, as of March 15, 2021, the beneficial ownership of Chevron Common Stock and NBLX Common Units held by: (1) any person known by Chevron and NBLX to be the beneficial owner of more than 5% of the outstanding shares of Chevron Common Stock or NBLX Public Common Units; (2) the directors and named executive officers of Chevron, individually, and the directors and executive officers as a group; and (3) the directors and named executive officers of the General Partner, individually, and the directors and executive officers as a group.

The amounts and percentage of units or shares beneficially owned are reported on the basis of regulations of the SEC governing the determination of beneficial ownership of securities. Under the rules of the SEC, a person is deemed to be a “beneficial owner” of a security if that person has or shares “voting power,” which includes the power to vote or to direct the voting of such security, or “investment power,” which includes the power to dispose of or to direct the disposition of such security. A person is also deemed to be a beneficial owner of any securities of which that person has a right to acquire beneficial ownership within 60 days. Under these rules, more than one person may be deemed a beneficial owner of the same securities and a person may be deemed a beneficial owner of securities as to which he or she has no economic interest. Except as indicated by footnote, the persons named in the tables below have sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares of Chevron Common Stock and NBLX Common Units shown as beneficially owned by them, subject to community property laws where applicable.

No Dissenters' or Appraisal Rights

NBLX Public Unitholders will not have dissenters' or appraisal rights in connection with the Merger under applicable law or contractual appraisal rights under the Partnership Agreement or the Merger Agreement.

Regulatory Matters

In connection with the Merger, Chevron and NBLX each intends to make all required filings under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, as well as any required filings or applications with the NYSE and NASDAQ, as applicable. Chevron and NBLX are unaware of any other requirement for the filing of information with, or the obtaining of the approval of, governmental authorities in any jurisdiction that is required for the consummation of the Merger.

The Merger is not reportable under the HSR Act, and therefore, no filings with respect to the Merger were required with the FTC or the Antitrust Division of the DOJ.

Listing of the Chevron Common Stock to be Issued in the Merger; Delisting and Deregistration of the NBLX Common Units

Chevron expects to obtain approval to list the shares of Chevron Common Stock to be issued pursuant to the Merger Agreement on the NYSE, which approval is a condition to the Closing, subject to official notice of issuance. Upon completion of the Merger, the NBLX Common Units will cease to be listed on the NASDAQ and will be subsequently deregistered under the Exchange Act.

Post-Closing Status of NBLX

After the consummation of the Merger, it is expected that NBLX will remain an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Chevron indefinitely. There are no definite plans to reorganize or transfer NBLX or any of its assets immediately following the Closing as of the date of this information statement/prospectus.

Accounting Treatment

The Merger will be accounted for in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification 810, Consolidation—Overall—Changes in a Parent's Ownership Interest in a Subsidiary. As Chevron controls NBLX and will continue to control NBLX after the Merger, the change in Chevron's ownership interest in NBLX will be accounted for as an equity transaction, and no gain or loss will be recognized in Chevron's consolidated statement of income resulting from the Merger.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

This section of this information statement/prospectus describes the material provisions of the Merger Agreement, but does not describe all of the terms of the Merger Agreement and may not contain all of the information about the Merger Agreement that is important to you. The following summary is qualified by reference to the complete text of the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this information statement/prospectus and incorporated by reference herein. You are urged to read the full text of the Merger Agreement because it is the legal document that governs the Merger.

The Merger Agreement and this summary of its terms have been included to provide you with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and this summary is qualified in its entirety by the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Chevron, NBLX, the General Partner or their respective subsidiaries and affiliates. The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties by each of the parties to the Merger Agreement, which were made only for purposes of the Merger Agreement and as of specified dates. The representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement were made solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. You should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Chevron, NBLX, the General Partner or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may have changed after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Chevron's or NBLX's public disclosures incorporated by reference in this information statement/prospectus.

The Merger; Effective Time; Closing

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and in accordance with Delaware law, at the Effective Time, Merger Sub will merge with and into NBLX, with NBLX continuing as the surviving entity and an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Chevron.

At the Effective Time, subject to any applicable withholding tax, (i) the NBLX Public Common Units outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration; and (ii) each Partnership LTIP Award, whether or not vested, will cease to relate to or represent a right with respect to an NBLX Common Unit and shall be converted into a Converted Parent Award on the same terms and conditions as were applicable to the corresponding Partnership LTIP Award (including the right to receive dividend or dividend equivalents with respect to such Converted Parent Award if the corresponding Partnership LTIP Award included distribution or distribution equivalent rights), except that the number of shares of Chevron Common Stock covered by each such Converted Parent Award shall be equal to the number of NBLX Common Units subject to the corresponding Partnership LTIP Award multiplied by the Exchange Ratio, rounded up to the nearest whole unit. The interests in NBLX owned by Chevron and its subsidiaries will remain outstanding as limited partner interests in the surviving entity. The non-economic general partner interest in NBLX held by the General Partner will continue as a non-economic general partner interest in the surviving entity, and the General Partner will continue as the sole general partner of the surviving entity.

Chevron will not issue any fractional shares of Chevron Common Stock in the Merger. Instead of receiving any fractions of a share of Chevron Common Stock, all fractions of shares of Chevron Common Stock to which an NBLX Public Unitholder would otherwise have been entitled will be aggregated and the resulting fraction will be rounded up to the nearest whole share of Chevron Common Stock.

The Effective Time will occur at such time as Chevron and NBLX cause a certificate of merger to be duly filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or at such later date or time as may be agreed by Chevron and NBLX in writing and specified in the certificate of merger.

The closing of the Merger will take place on the third business day after the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement (other than conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the closing but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of those conditions), or at such other place, date and time as Chevron and NBLX may agree.

 - o with respect to all other representations and warranties, being true and correct both when made and at and as of the closing, as if made at and as of such time (except to the extent expressly made as of an earlier date, in which case as of such date), except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct (without giving effect to any limitation as to “materiality” or “material adverse effect” on Chevron set forth in any individual representation or warranty), other than with respect to the filing of documents with the SEC, undisclosed liabilities, internal controls, information supplied for inclusion in this information statement/prospectus does not have, and would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate a “material adverse effect” on Chevron;
- Chevron, Holdings and Merger Sub having performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by each of them under the Merger Agreement; and
- the receipt by NBLX of an officer’s certificate signed on behalf of Chevron by an executive officer of Chevron certifying that the preceding conditions have been satisfied.

For purposes of the Merger Agreement, the term “material adverse effect” means, when used with respect to a person, any change, condition, circumstance, effect, event, development, state of facts or occurrence that, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets, liquidity, condition (financial or otherwise) or results of operations of such person and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or prevents or materially impedes, interferes with or hinders a party's ability to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Merger and the Chevron Stock Issuance, on or before September 4, 2021; provided, however, that any adverse changes, conditions, circumstances, effects, events, developments, state of facts or occurrences resulting from or due to any of the following will be disregarded in determining whether there has been a material adverse effect: (i) changes, conditions, circumstances, effects, events, developments, state of facts or occurrences generally affecting the economy, the financial or capital markets or political, legislative or regulatory conditions or changes in the industries in which such person operates; (ii) the announcement or pendency of the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or, except specifically for purposes of determining whether there is a breach of the representations and warranties made by the applicable parties in the Merger Agreement relating to noncontravention by the parties and the satisfaction of the closing conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement with respect to such representations and warranties, the taking of any action expressly permitted or expressly contemplated by the Merger Agreement; (iii) any change in the market price or trading volume of the limited partner interests, shares of common stock or other equity securities of such person (it being understood and agreed that the foregoing does not preclude any other party to the Merger Agreement from asserting that any facts or occurrences giving rise to or contributing to such change that are not otherwise excluded from the definition of material adverse effect should be deemed to constitute, or be taken into account in determining whether there has been, or would reasonably be expected to be, a material adverse effect); (iv) acts of war, terrorism (including domestic terrorism and cyberterrorism) or other hostilities (or the escalation of the foregoing), whether or not pursuant to the declaration of a national emergency or war, pandemics (including the COVID-19 pandemic, any mutation or variation of the virus underlying the COVID-19 pandemic or any health conditions related thereto), epidemics or natural disasters or other force majeure events; (v) changes in any applicable laws or regulations applicable to such person or applicable accounting regulations or principles or the interpretation thereof; (vi) any proceedings commenced by or involving any current or former member, partner or stockholder of such person or any of its subsidiaries arising out of or related to the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; (vii) changes, effects, events or occurrences generally affecting the prices of oil, natural gas or other carbon-based sources of energy or power; (viii) any failure of a person to meet any internal or external projections, budgets, forecasts or estimates of revenues, earnings or other financial or operating metrics for any period (it being understood and agreed that the foregoing does not preclude any other party to the Merger Agreement from asserting that any facts or occurrences giving rise to or contributing to such failure that are not otherwise excluded from the definition of material adverse effect should be deemed to constitute, or be taken into account in determining whether there has been, or would reasonably be expected to be, a material adverse effect); (ix) with respect to Chevron only, any effect to the extent resulting from a change, condition, circumstance, effect, event, development, state of facts or occurrence that has a material adverse effect on NBLX and its subsidiaries; provided, however, that changes, conditions, circumstances, effects, events, developments, state of facts or occurrences referred to in clauses (i), (iv), (v) and (vii) above will be considered for purposes of determining whether there has been or would reasonably be expected to be a material adverse effect if and to the extent such changes, conditions, circumstances, effects, events, developments, state of facts or occurrences have had or would reasonably be expected to have a disproportionate adverse effect on such person and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as compared to other companies of similar size operating in the industries in which such person and its subsidiaries operate.

For purposes of the Merger Agreement, except where expressly provided otherwise, NBLX and its subsidiaries are not considered subsidiaries of Chevron, NBL or affiliates of Chevron, NBL or any of their subsidiaries (including the General Partner and Merger Sub).

Prior to the earlier of the Effective Time and the termination of the Merger Agreement, Chevron will not, and will not permit any of its subsidiaries to, take any action intended to cause the General Partner (or the sole member of the General Partner) to, without the consent of a majority of the then-existing members of the Conflicts Committee, eliminate the Conflicts Committee, revoke or diminish the authority of the Conflicts Committee or remove or cause the removal of any director of the General Partner who is a member of the Conflicts Committee either as a director or as a member of such committee.

expenses contained in the organizational documents of NBLX and the General Partner immediately prior to the Effective Time and ensure that the organizational documents of NBLX and the General Partner or any of their respective successors or assigns, if applicable, will for a period of six years following the Effective Time, contain provisions no less favorable with respect to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation of present and former directors, officers and employees of NBLX and the General Partner than are presently set forth in such organizational documents. In addition, NBLX (as the surviving entity of the Merger), or Chevron, on behalf of NBLX, will maintain in effect for six years following the Effective Time NBLX's current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies covering acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time with respect to any person who is now, or has been or becomes at any time prior to the Effective Time, an officer, director or employee of Chevron, NBLX, the General Partner, NBL or any of their respective subsidiaries, provided that in no event will NBLX or Chevron, as applicable, be required to expend more than an amount per year equal to 300% of current annual premiums paid by NBLX for such insurance.

Certain Tax Matters

For U.S. federal income tax purposes (and for purposes of any applicable state, local or foreign tax that follows the U.S. federal income tax treatment), the parties have agreed to treat the Merger as a taxable sale of the NBLX Common Units (other than those held by Chevron and its subsidiaries) to Holdings in exchange for the Merger Consideration. The parties will prepare and file all tax returns consistent with the foregoing and will not take any inconsistent position on any tax return, or during the course of any proceeding with respect to taxes, except as otherwise required by applicable law following a final determination by a court of competent jurisdiction or other administrative settlement with or final administrative decision by the relevant governmental authority.

Withholding Taxes

Each of Chevron, Holdings, Merger Sub, NBLX (as the surviving entity of the Merger) and the exchange agent, as applicable, are entitled to deduct and withhold from any amounts, including the Merger Consideration, payable pursuant to the Merger Agreement to any person such amounts as Chevron, Holdings, Merger Sub, NBLX (as the surviving entity of the Merger) or the exchange agent, as applicable, reasonably deems it is required to deduct and withhold under the Code or any provision of state, local or foreign tax law with respect to the making of such payment. Such deduction and withholding may be taken in securities, in which case Chevron, Holdings, Merger Sub, NBLX (as the surviving entity of the Merger) or the exchange agent, as applicable, will be treated as having sold such securities for an amount of cash equal to the fair market value of such securities at the time of such deemed sale. To the extent that deducted and withheld amounts (including deemed proceeds from the deemed sale of securities) are paid over to the appropriate governmental authority, such amounts (including securities) will be treated for all purposes of the Merger Agreement as having been paid or issued to the person in respect of whom such deduction and withholding was made.

Adjustments to Prevent Dilution

The Merger Consideration, the Exchange Ratio and any other similar dependent item, as applicable, will be adjusted to reflect fully the effect of any subdivisions, reclassifications, splits, share distributions, combinations or exchanges of NBLX Common Units or shares of Chevron Common Stock, as applicable, that change the number of outstanding NBLX Common Units or shares of Chevron Common Stock between the date of the Merger Agreement and the Effective Time to provide the NBLX Public Unitholders the same economic effect as contemplated by the Merger Agreement prior to such event.

NYSE Listing, Delisting and Deregistration

Chevron has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of Chevron Common Stock to be issued in connection with the Merger to be listed on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Effective Time.

Table of Contents

NBLX has agreed to cooperate and use its reasonable best efforts to cause the delisting of the NBLX Common Units from the NASDAQ and the deregistration of such securities under the Exchange Act as promptly as practicable following the closing of the Merger in compliance with applicable law.

Section 16 Matters

Prior to the completion of the Merger, NBLX has agreed to take all steps as may be required (to the extent permitted under applicable law) to cause any dispositions of NBLX Common Units or acquisitions of Chevron Common Stock (including derivative securities with respect to Chevron Common Stock) resulting from the Merger by each individual who is subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act with respect to NBLX, or will become subject to such reporting requirements with respect to Chevron, to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act.

Other Covenants and Agreements

The Merger Agreement also contains covenants relating to cooperation in the preparation of this information statement/prospectus and additional agreements relating to, among other things applicability of takeover statutes, fees and expenses, securityholder litigation and public announcements.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The Merger Agreement may be terminated prior to the closing of the Merger:

- by the mutual written consent of Chevron and NBLX duly authorized by the Chevron Board and the Conflicts Committee, respectively; or
- by either of Chevron or NBLX:
 - o if the closing of the Merger does not occur on or before September 4, 2021; provided, that this termination right will not be available to (a) Chevron or NBLX if the inability to satisfy any condition under the Merger Agreement necessary for closing of the Merger was due to the failure of, in the case of Chevron, Chevron, Holdings or Merger Sub, or, in the case of NBLX, NBLX or the General Partner, to perform and comply in all material respects with the covenants and agreements to be performed or complied with by such entity prior to the closing of the Merger or (b) Chevron or NBLX if, in the case of Chevron, NBLX or the General Partner, or, in the case of NBLX, Chevron, Holdings or Merger Sub, has filed (and is then pending) an action seeking specific performance as permitted pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement; or
 - o if any restraint by a government authority is in effect and has become final and nonappealable; provided, however, this termination right is not available to Chevron or NBLX if such restraint was due to the failure of, in the case of Chevron, Chevron, Holdings or Merger Sub, or, in the case of NBLX, NBLX or the General Partner, to perform any of its obligations under the Merger Agreement;
- by Chevron if NBLX or the General Partner has breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the Merger Agreement, or any representations or warranties with respect to NBLX's and the General Partner's authority to execute the Merger Agreement and complete the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, or the absence of certain changes or events become untrue, in a way that the related condition to closing would not be satisfied, and such breach is either incurable or not cured by NBLX or the General Partner within 30 days following receipt of written notice from Chevron (unless Chevron, Holdings or Merger Sub is in material breach of any representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the Merger Agreement); or

- by NBLX (which termination may be effected for NBLX by the Conflicts Committee without the consent, authorization or approval of the GP Board) if Chevron has breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the Merger Agreement, or any representations or warranties with respect to the authority of Chevron, Holdings and Merger Sub to execute the Merger Agreement and complete the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, or the absence of certain changes or events become untrue, in a way that the related condition to closing would not be satisfied, and such breach is either incurable or not cured by Chevron within 30 days following receipt of written notice from NBLX (unless NBLX or the General Partner is in material breach of any representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the Merger Agreement).

Effect of Termination; Termination Expenses

If the Merger Agreement is validly terminated, then, except as described below, each of the parties will be relieved of its duties and obligations and such termination will be without liability to any party. However, termination will not relieve any party of any liability for failure to consummate the Merger and other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement when required under the agreement or for intentional fraud or any “willful breach” (as defined in the Merger Agreement).

The Merger Agreement contains various amounts payable under the circumstances described below.

- if the Merger Agreement is validly terminated by Chevron due to a material uncured breach by NBLX or the General Partner of any of its covenants or agreements, or representations or warranties with respect to NBLX’s and the General Partner’s authority to execute the Merger Agreement and complete the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, or the absence of certain changes or events, then NBLX will promptly pay Chevron’s designee all of the reasonably documented out-of-pocket expenses (including all fees and expenses of counsel, accountants, investment bankers, financing sources, hedging counterparties, experts and consultants) incurred by Chevron and its affiliates in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby up to a maximum of $3.5 million; and
- if the Merger Agreement is validly terminated by NBLX due to a material uncured breach by Chevron of any of its covenants or agreements, or representations or warranties with respect to the authority of Chevron, Holdings and Merger Sub to execute the Merger Agreement and complete the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, that, other than the Chevron Stockholder Approval, no vote of holders of any class or series of the capital stock of Chevron is necessary to approve the issuance of Chevron Common Stock in connection with the Merger or the absence of certain changes or events, then Chevron will promptly pay NBLX’s designee all of the reasonably documented out-of-pocket expenses (including all fees and expenses of counsel, accountants, investment bankers, financing sources, hedging counterparties, experts and consultants) incurred by NBLX and its affiliates in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby up to a maximum of $3.5 million, subject to certain limited restrictions.

Amendment or Supplement

At any time prior to the Effective Time, the Merger Agreement may be amended or supplemented in any and all respects by written agreement of the parties, by action taken or authorized by the Chevron Board and the GP Board; provided, however, that the GP Board may not take or authorize any such action unless such action has been approved by the Conflicts Committee; provided, further, that there will be no amendment or change to the provisions of the Merger Agreement that by applicable laws, the Partnership Agreement or stock exchange rule would require further approval by the NBLX Limited Partners.

Assignment

The Merger Agreement and any interests, rights or obligations under the Merger Agreement are not assignable, in whole or in part, by operation of law or otherwise, by any of the parties without the prior written consent of the other parties.

Specific Performance

The parties to the Merger Agreement have agreed that each party will be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of the Merger Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of the Merger Agreement. Each of the parties has agreed that it will not oppose the granting of an injunction, specific performance and other equitable relief on the basis that (i) either party has an adequate remedy at law, or (ii) an award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or equity. Each party has further agreed that no party is required to obtain, furnish or post any bond or similar instrument in connection with or as a condition to obtaining any remedy, and each party has irrevocably waived any right it may have to require the obtaining, furnishing or posting of any such bond or similar instrument.

Governing Law

The Merger Agreement is governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware.

COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF CHEVRON STOCKHOLDERS AND NBLX UNITHOLDERS

Chevron is a Delaware corporation, and NBLX is a Delaware limited partnership. Ownership interests in a limited partnership are fundamentally different from ownership interests in a corporation. The rights of Chevron Stockholders are governed by Chevron's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, effective as of May 30, 2008 (the "Chevron Charter"), the Amended and Restated By-Laws of Chevron, effective as of September 30, 2020 (as amended, the "Chevron Bylaws" and, together with the Chevron Charter, the "Chevron Organizational Documents"), and the Delaware General Corporation Law ("DGCL"). The rights of NBLX Unitholders are governed by the Second Amended and Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership, effective as of November 14, 2019 (the "Partnership Agreement") and the Delaware Revised Uniform Limited Partner Act (the "DRULPA"). If the Merger is completed, the rights of NBLX Unitholders as Chevron Stockholders following the conversion of the NBLX Public Common Units to Chevron Common Stock will be governed by the Chevron Organizational Documents and the DGCL. There are many differences between the rights of NBLX Unitholders and Chevron Stockholders. Some of these, such as distribution/dividend rights and voting rights, are significant. The following description summarizes the material differences between the rights of Chevron Stockholders and NBLX Unitholders but does not purport to be a complete statement of all those differences or a complete description of the specific provisions referred to in this summary. The identification of specific differences is not intended to indicate that other equally significant or more significant differences do not exist. NBLX Unitholders should carefully read the relevant provisions of the Chevron Organizational Documents, and the Partnership Agreement. Copies of the documents referred to in this summary may be obtained as described under "Where You Can Find More Information." This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the DGCL, the DRULPA, the Chevron Organizational Documents and the Partnership Agreement. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined herein are used as defined in the Chevron Organizational Documents and the Partnership Agreement, as applicable.

Purpose and Term of Existence

Chevron

Chevron's stated purpose is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the DGCL.

NBLX

NBLX's stated purposes under the Partnership Agreement are to (a) engage directly in, or enter into or form, hold and dispose of any corporation, partnership, joint venture, limited liability company or other arrangement to engage indirectly in, any business activity that is approved by the General Partner and that lawfully may be conducted by a limited partnership organized pursuant to the DRULPA and, in connection therewith, to exercise all of the rights and powers conferred upon NBLX pursuant to the agreements relating to such business activity and (b) do anything necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the foregoing, including the making of capital contributions or loans to a Group Member; provided, however, that the General Partner shall not cause NBLX to engage, directly or indirectly, in any business activity that the General Partner determines would be reasonably likely to cause NBLX to be treated as an association taxable as a corporation or otherwise taxable as an entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the General Partner shall have no duty or obligation to propose or approve the conduct by NBLX of any

Chevron

Authorized and Issued Capital

Chevron

Chevron's authorized capital stock consists of:

- 6,000,000,000 shares of Chevron Common Stock, $0.75 par value per share, 1,927,949,021 shares of which were issued and outstanding as of March 15, 2021; and
- 100,000,000 shares of preferred stock, $1.00 par value per share, of which 5,000,000 have been designated as Series A Participating Preferred Stock, with rights and preferences specified by the Chevron Charter, Chevron Bylaws or Chevron Board, none of which were outstanding as of the date of this information statement/prospectus.

NBLX

business and may decline to do so free of any fiduciary duty or obligation whatsoever to NBLX or any Limited Partner and, in declining to so propose or approve, shall not be required to act in good faith or pursuant to any other standard imposed by the Partnership Agreement, any Group Member Agreement, any other agreement contemplated by the Partnership Agreement or under the DRULPA or any other law, rule or regulation or at equity, and the General Partner in determining whether to propose or approve the conduct by NBLX of any business shall be permitted to do so in its sole and absolute discretion.

NBLX

The Partnership Agreement authorizes NBLX to issue additional Partnership Interests (which may be senior to existing classes and series of Partnership Interests) for any purpose at any time and from time to time for such consideration and on such terms and conditions as the General Partner shall determine, all without the approval of any Limited Partners. No fractional Units shall be issued by NBLX.

As of March 15, 2021, NBLX had outstanding 90,362,378 NBLX Common Units. As of March 15, 2021, Chevron owned 56,447,616 NBLX Common Units, representing approximately 62.4% of the outstanding NBLX Common Units. Chevron also indirectly owns 100% of the membership interests of the General Partner, which owns the non-economic General Partner Interest of NBLX.

The Limited Partner Interests in NBLX owned by Chevron and its subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time will remain outstanding as Limited Partner Interests in the surviving entity. The non-economic general partner interest in NBLX held by the General Partner will remain outstanding as a non-economic General Partner Interest in the surviving entity, and the General Partner will continue as the sole general partner of the surviving entity.

Chevron Dividends; NBLX Distributions

Chevron

Chevron Stockholders share equally in any dividend declared by the Chevron Board. If any preferred stock were outstanding, dividends on Chevron Common Stock would be subject to the rights of the holders of that preferred stock.

Chevron Stockholders are entitled to receive dividends when, as, and if declared by the Chevron Board, out of funds legally available for their payment subject to the rights of holders of any outstanding preferred stock.

The declaration and payment of dividends by Chevron is subject to the discretion of the Chevron Board and is determined quarterly, and no assurance can be given that Chevron will pay dividends in the future.

NBLX

Distributions of Available Cash. Within 45 days after the end of each quarter, NBLX will distribute all of its Available Cash to its unitholders of record on the applicable record date. Available Cash is defined in the Partnership Agreement and generally means, for any quarter ending prior to liquidation:

- The sum of:
 - all cash and cash equivalents of the Partnership Group (or NBLX's proportionate share of cash and cash equivalents in the case of subsidiaries that are not wholly owned) on hand at the end of such quarter;
 - and, if the General Partner so determines, all or any portion of additional cash and cash equivalents of the Partnership Group (or NBLX's proportionate share of cash and cash equivalents in the case of Subsidiaries that are not wholly owned) on hand on the date of determination of Available Cash with respect to such quarter resulting from Working Capital Borrowings made subsequent to the end of such quarter;
- less, the amount of any cash reserves established by the General Partner (or NBLX's proportionate share of cash reserves in the case of Subsidiaries that are not wholly owned) to:
 - provide for the proper conduct of the business of the Partnership Group (including reserves for future capital expenditures and for anticipated future credit needs of the Partnership Group) subsequent to such quarter;
 - comply with applicable law or any loan agreement, security agreement, mortgage, debt instrument or other agreement or obligation to which any Group Member is a party or by which it is bound or its assets are subject; or
 - provide funds for distributions to unitholders for any one or more of the next four quarters;

Chevron

provided, however, that the General Partner may not establish cash reserves to provide funds for distributions if the effect of such reserves would be that NBLX is unable to distribute $0.375 (subject to proportionate adjustments in the event of any distribution combinations or subdivisions (whether effected by a distribution payable in Units or otherwise)) on all Common Units; provided further, that disbursements made by a Group Member or cash reserves established, increased or reduced after the end of such quarter but on or before the date of determination of Available Cash with respect to such quarter shall be deemed to have been made, established, increased or reduced, for purposes of determining Available Cash within such quarter if the General Partner so determines.

Distributions of Cash Upon Liquidation. If NBLX dissolves in accordance with the Partnership Agreement, all cash received during or after the quarter in which the liquidation occurs will be applied and distributed solely in accordance with, and subject to the terms and conditions of the liquidation procedures set forth in the Partnership Agreement.

NBLX will first apply the proceeds of liquidation to the payment of its creditors. NBLX will distribute any remaining proceeds to the unitholders and the General Partner in accordance with, and to the extent of, the positive balances in their respective Capital Accounts, as adjusted to reflect any gain or loss upon the sale or other disposition of NBLX's assets in liquidation.

The manner of the adjustment for gain is set forth in the Partnership Agreement.

Merger, Consolidation and Certain Other Transactions; Business Combination Statutes

Chevron

Subject to limited exceptions, under the DGCL, the consummation of a merger or consolidation requires the board of directors of a corporation that is a constituent corporation in the merger or consolidation to approve and declare advisable the agreement of merger or consolidation and requires that the agreement of merger or consolidation be adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding stock of that corporation entitled to vote thereon at an annual or special meeting for the purpose of acting on the agreement.

NBLX

Merger or consolidation of NBLX requires the prior consent of the General Partner. The General Partner must also approve the Merger Agreement or the Plan of Conversion, which must include certain information as set forth in the Partnership Agreement. Subject to certain exceptions set forth in the Partnership Agreement and described below, once approved by the General Partner, the General Partner shall direct that the Merger Agreement or Plan of Conversion be submitted to a vote of the

Chevron

Chevron is subject to the provisions of Section 203 of the DGCL. In general, Section 203 prohibits a publicly held Delaware corporation from engaging in a “business combination” with a stockholder who owns 15% or more of the corporation’s voting stock (an interested stockholder) for three years following the time that such stockholder becomes an interested stockholder, unless (i) prior to the time such stockholder became an interested stockholder, the corporation’s board of directors approved either the business combination or the transaction that resulted in such stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, (ii) upon consummation of the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, such stockholder owns at least 85% of the corporation’s outstanding voting stock at the time the transaction is commenced (subject to certain exclusions), and (iii) at or subsequent to such time, the business combination is approved by the board of directors and by the affirmative vote (but not written consent) of at least 66 2/3% of the corporation’s outstanding voting stock not owned by the interested stockholder.

NBLX

Limited Partners, and the Merger Agreement or Plan of Conversion will be approved upon receipt of the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of a majority of the outstanding NBLX Common Units, voting as a single class (a “Unit Majority”) unless the Merger Agreement or Plan of Conversion effects an amendment to any provisions of the Partnership Agreement that, if contained in an amendment to the Partnership Agreement, would require for its approval the vote or consent of a greater percentage of the outstanding NBLX Common Units or of any class of Limited Partners, in which case such greater percentage shall be required for approval of the Merger Agreement or Plan of Conversion.

The General Partner may consummate any merger or consolidation without the prior approval of a Unit Majority if (i) the General Partner has received an opinion of counsel that the merger or consolidation, as the case may be, would not result in the loss of limited liability of any Limited Partner or cause NBLX to be treated as an association taxable as a corporation or otherwise to be taxed as an entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (ii) the merger or consolidation would not result in an amendment to the Partnership Agreement that could not otherwise be adopted solely by the General Partner, (iii) NBLX is the surviving entity, (iv) each Unit Outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be identical following the merger or consolidation and (v) the number of Partnership Interests to be issued by NBLX in such merger or consolidation does not exceed 20% of Partnership Interests immediately prior to the effective date of such merger or consolidation.

In addition, if certain conditions in the Partnership Agreement are satisfied, the General Partner may convert NBLX or any Group Member into a new limited liability entity, to merge NBLX or any Group Member into, or convey all of NBLX’s assets to, a newly formed limited liability entity that shall be newly formed and shall have no assets, liabilities or operations at the time of such conversion, merger or conveyance other than those it receives from NBLX or other Group Member if (i) the General Partner has received an opinion of counsel regarding limited liability and tax matters, (ii) the sole purpose of such conversion, merger or conveyance is to effect a mere change in the legal form of NBLX into another

Management by Board of Directors / General Partner

Chevron

In accordance with the DGCL, Chevron's business and affairs are managed by or under the direction of the Chevron Board.

The Chevron Bylaws require that the number of directors on the Chevron Board be fixed from time to time exclusively pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the directors then in office. As of the date of this information statement/prospectus, the Chevron Board consists of twelve directors.

Nomination and Election of Directors / General Partner

Chevron

Nominations of persons for election to the Chevron Board may be made at an annual meeting of stockholders (a) pursuant to, and in accordance with, Chevron's notice of meeting (or any supplement thereto) (b) by the Chevron Board, (c) by any Chevron Stockholder who is a stockholder of record at the time of the giving of notice provided for in the Chevron Bylaws, who is entitled to vote at the meeting and who has complied with the notice procedures set forth in the Chevron Bylaws or (d) by an eligible stockholder and/or a nominating stockholder pursuant to the proxy access provision in the Chevron Bylaws. See "—Stockholder Proposals and Director Nominations."

Under the Chevron Bylaws, nominations of individuals for election to the Chevron Board may also be made at a special meeting of stockholders at which Directors are to be elected pursuant to Chevron's notice of meeting (a) by or at the direction of the Chevron Board or any authorized committee thereof, (b) provided that one or more Directors shall be elected at such meeting, by any limited liability entity and (iii) the General Partner determines that the governing instruments of the new entity provide the Limited Partners and the General Partner with substantially the same rights and obligations as contained in the Partnership Agreement.

NBLX

The General Partner conducts, directs, and manages all activities of NBLX. The General Partner has a board of directors consisting of at least three but not more than twelve directors that are elected or approved by NBL, the sole member of the General Partner. Except as expressly provided in the Partnership Agreement, all management powers over the business and affairs of NBLX are exclusively vested in the General Partner, and no Limited Partner has any management power over the business and affairs of NBLX. The General Partner has full power and authority to do all things and on such terms as it determines to be necessary or appropriate to conduct NBLX's business.

NBLX

NBLX Unitholders have no right to elect the General Partner unless the general partner has been removed or withdrawn, as described below, and have no right to elect the directors of the General Partner. Directors are appointed by NBL, the sole member of the General Partner.

Chevron

stockholder of record at the time of giving of notice of such special meeting and at the time of the special meeting who is entitled to vote at the meeting and complies with the procedures set forth in the Chevron Bylaws as to such nomination, or (c) in the case of a stockholder-requested special meeting, by any stockholder pursuant to the Chevron Bylaws. See “—Stockholder Proposals and Director Nominations.”

Under the Chevron Bylaws, a nominee for Director shall be elected to the Chevron Board if the votes cast “for” such nominee’s election exceed the votes cast “against” such nominee’s election, excluding abstentions; provided, however, that Directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at any meeting of the stockholders for which the number of nominees exceeds the number of Directors to be elected.

Removal of Directors; Withdrawal or Removal of General Partner

Chevron

Any Director nominated for reelection who receives a greater number of votes “against” his or her election than “for” such election shall submit his or her offer of resignation to the Chevron Board. The Chevron Board Nominating and Governance Committee shall consider all of the relevant facts and circumstances, including the Director’s qualifications, the Director’s past and expected future contributions to Chevron, the overall composition of the Chevron Board and whether accepting the tendered resignation would cause Chevron to fail to meet any applicable rule or regulation (including NYSE listing requirements and federal securities laws) and recommend to the Chevron Board the action to be taken with respect to such offer of resignation.

NBLX

Withdrawal of the General Partner. The General Partner will be deemed to have withdrawn from NBLX upon the occurrence of any of the following events: (1) the General Partner voluntarily withdraws as the general partner from NBLX by giving written notice to the other Partners, (2) the General Partner transfers all of its General Partner Interests, (3) the General Partner is removed for cause, and such removal is approved by the vote of the holders of at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding NBLX Common Units, voting together as a single class, including NBLX Common Units held by the General Partner and its affiliates, (4) the General Partner takes certain actions relating to the bankruptcy or the liquidation of NBLX, (5) a final and non-appealable bankruptcy order is entered by a court with appropriate jurisdiction pursuant to a voluntary or involuntary petition by or against the General Partner or (6) if the General Partner is a limited liability company, the dissolution and commencement of winding up of the General Partner.

Removal of the General Partner. The General Partner may not be removed unless that removal is both for cause and approved by the vote of the holders of at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding NBLX Common Units, voting together as a single class, including NBLX Common Units held by the General Partner and its affiliates. Any such action by such holders for removal of the General Partner must also provide for the election of a successor General Partner by a Unit Majority.

In the event of withdrawal of the General Partner under circumstances that do not violate the Partnership Agreement, if a successor General Partner is elected by a Unit Majority in accordance with the Partnership Agreement, the Departing General Partner shall have the option to require the successor General Partner to purchase such Departing General Partner's economic general partner interests (or equivalent interests) in NBLX and the other Group Members for fair market value, if applicable. If the General Partner is removed by the Unitholders in accordance with the Partnership Agreement or if the General Partner withdraws under circumstances where such withdrawal violates the Partnership Agreement, the successor General Partner shall have the option to purchase the Departing General Partner's economic general partner interests (or equivalent interests) in NBLX and the other Group Members for fair market value, if applicable. In the event of removal or withdrawal of the General Partner, NBLX will be required to reimburse the Departing General Partner for all amounts due the Departing General Partner, including, without limitation, all employee-related liabilities, including severance liabilities, incurred for the termination of any employees employed by the Departing General Partner or its affiliates for NBLX's or the other Group Members' benefit.

Filling Vacancies on the Board; Replacing the General Partner

Chevron

Under the Chevron Organizational Documents, whenever there shall be fewer Directors in office than the authorized number of Directors, the Chevron Board may, by resolution approved by a majority of the Directors then in office, choose one or more additional Directors, each of whom shall hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders and until his or her successor is duly elected.

NBLX

Replacement Following Withdrawal of the General Partner. Upon the voluntary withdrawal of the General Partner, the holders of a Unit Majority may elect a successor to the withdrawing General Partner. If a successor is not elected, or is elected but an opinion of counsel regarding limited liability and tax matters cannot be obtained, NBLX will be dissolved, wound up and liquidated, unless within a specified time period after that withdrawal, the holders of a Unit Majority agree to continue NBLX's business and to appoint a successor general partner in addition to NBLX obtaining an opinion of counsel regarding limited liability and tax matters.

Chevron

Transfer of General Partner Interest

Chevron

Not applicable.

Limited Call Rights

Chevron

Not applicable.

NBLX

Replacement Following Removal of the General Partner. Any removal of the General Partner is subject to the approval of a successor general partner by the vote of the holders of a Unit Majority.

NBLX

Prior to September 20, 2026, the General Partner may not transfer all or any part of its General Partner Interest unless such transfer (1) has been approved by the prior written consent or vote of at least a majority of the outstanding NBLX Common Units (excluding any NBLX Common Units owned by the General Partner and its affiliates), or (2) is of all, but not less than all, of its General Partner Interest to (a) an affiliate of the General Partner (other than an individual) or (b) another person (other than an individual) in connection with the merger or consolidation of the General Partner with or into such other person or the transfer by the General Partner of all or substantially all of its assets to such other person.

On or after September 20, 2026, the General Partner may transfer all or any part of its General Partner Interest without the approval of any Limited Partner or any other person.

NBLX

If at any time the General Partner and its affiliates hold more than 80% of the total Limited Partner Interests of any class, the General Partner will have the right, which it may assign or transfer in whole or in part to the General Partner's affiliates or to NBLX, exercisable at the General Partner's option, to purchase all, but not less than all, of such Limited Partner Interests of that class then Outstanding that are held by persons other than the General Partner and its affiliates, at the greater of (1) the Current Market Price as of the date three business days prior to the date that the notice is mailed to the Limited Partners as provided in the Partnership Agreement and (2) the highest price paid by the General Partner or any of its affiliates for any Limited Partner Interest of the class purchased within the 90 days preceding the date the General Partner mails notice of its election to purchase the units.

Amendment of Governing Documents

Chevron

Certificate of Incorporation. The Chevron Charter may be amended in any manner provided by the DGCL. Because Chevron Common Stock is the only class of Chevron capital stock outstanding, the Chevron Charter may be amended with the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Chevron Common Stock. If shares of the Series A Participating Preferred Stock were to be issued and become outstanding, the Certificate of Incorporation shall not be amended in any manner which would materially alter or change the powers, preferences or special rights of the Series A Participating Preferred Stock so as to affect them adversely without the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series A Participating Preferred Stock voting separately as a class.

Bylaws. The Chevron Organizational Documents provide that the Chevron Board is expressly authorized to make and alter the Chevron Bylaws without any action on the part of the stockholders. The bylaws made by the Directors and the powers so conferred may be altered or repealed by the Directors or stockholders. The Chevron Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock at any annual or special meeting of the stockholders, if notice of the proposed alteration, amendment or repeal be contained in the notice of the meeting; or any of the Chevron Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed by resolution of the Chevron Board approved by at least a majority of the Directors then in office. If shares of the Series A Participating Preferred Stock were to be issued and become outstanding, the Chevron Bylaws shall not be amended in any manner which would materially alter or change the powers, preferences or special rights of the Series A Participating Preferred Stock so as to affect them adversely without the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series A Participating Preferred Stock voting separately as a class.

NBLX

Amendments to the Partnership Agreement may be proposed only by the General Partner. The General Partner has no duty or obligation to propose or approve any amendment and may decline to do so free of any duty or obligation whatsoever to NBLX, any Limited Partner or any other person bound by the Partnership Agreement, and, in declining to propose or approve an amendment to the Partnership Agreement, is not required to act in good faith or pursuant to any other standard imposed by the Partnership Agreement, any Group Member Agreement or other agreement contemplated by the Partnership Agreement or the Delaware Act or any other law, rule or regulation or at equity, and the General Partner in determining whether to propose or approve any amendment to the Partnership Agreement is permitted to do so in its sole and absolute discretion. Any amendment that materially and adversely affects the rights or preferences of any type or class of Partnership Interests in relation to other types or classes of Partnership Interests will require the approval of the holders of a majority of the Outstanding Partnership Interests of the class affected. However, in some circumstances, more particularly described in the Partnership Agreement, the General Partner may make amendments to the Partnership Agreement without the approval of the Limited Partners or assignees to reflect:

- a change in the name of NBLX, the location of its principal place of business, its registered agent or its registered office;
- the admission, substitution, withdrawal or removal of partners;
- a change that the General Partner determines to be necessary or appropriate to qualify or continue NBLX's qualification as a limited partnership or a partnership in which the Limited Partners have limited liability under the laws of any state or to ensure that the Group Members will not be treated as an association taxable as a corporation or otherwise taxed as an entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes;
- a change the General Partner determines does not adversely affect the Limited Partners considered as a whole or any particular class of Partnership Interests in any material respect;

- a change that the General Partner determines to be necessary or appropriate to (a) satisfy any requirements, conditions or guidelines contained in any opinion, directive, order, ruling, or regulation of any federal or state agency or judicial authority or contained in any federal or state statute or (b) facilitate the trading of Units or comply with any rule, regulation, guideline, or requirement of any national securities exchange on which the Units are or will be listed for trading;
- a change that the General Partner determines to be necessary or appropriate in connection with splits or combinations of partnership securities;
- a change required to effect the intent expressed in the IPO Registration Statement or of the provisions of the Partnership Agreement or otherwise contemplated by the Partnership Agreement;
- a change in NBLX's fiscal year or taxable period and any other changes that the General Partner determines are necessary or appropriate as a result of a change in NBLX's fiscal year or taxable period;
- an amendment that is necessary, in the opinion of counsel, to prevent NBLX, or the General Partner or its directors, officers, trustees or agents from in any manner being subjected to the provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, or "plan asset" regulations adopted under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, whether or not substantially similar to plan asset regulations currently applied or proposed by the United States Department of Labor;
- an amendment that sets forth the designations, preferences, rights, powers and duties of any class or series of Partnership Interests or Derivative Partnership Interests pursuant to the Partnership Agreement;
- an amendment that the General Partner determines to be necessary or appropriate in connection with the authorization or issuance of any class or series of Partnership Interests or Derivative Partnership Interests;

- any amendment expressly permitted by the Partnership Agreement to be made by the General Partner acting alone;
- an amendment effected, necessitated or contemplated by a merger agreement approved in accordance with the Partnership Agreement;
- an amendment that the General Partner determines to be necessary or appropriate to reflect and account for the formation by NBLX of, or an investment by NBLX in, any corporation, partnership, joint venture, limited liability company or other entity in connection with the conduct by NBLX of activities permitted by the Partnership Agreement;
- a merger, conveyance or conversion to effect a change in NBLX's legal form; or
- any other amendments substantially similar to the foregoing.

Proposed amendments (other than those described above) must be approved by the General Partner and the holders of a Unit Majority, unless a greater or different percentage of Outstanding Units is required under the Partnership Agreement or by Delaware law. No provision of the Partnership Agreement that establishes a percentage of Outstanding Units required to take any action may be amended, altered, changed, repealed or rescinded in any respect that would have the effect of reducing or increasing such percentage unless such amendment is approved by the written consent or the affirmative vote of holders of Outstanding Units whose aggregate Outstanding Units constitute (i) in the case of a reduction, not less than the voting requirement sought to be reduced or (ii) in the case of an increase in the percentage required to remove the General Partner, not less than 90% of the Outstanding Units increased, or (iii) in the case of an increase in the percentage required to call a special meeting, not less than a majority of the Outstanding Units.

A special meeting shall also be called whenever requested in writing by at least one third of the members of the Chevron Board or stockholders owning fifteen percent of the shares of Common Stock then outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting. No amendment to the Partnership Agreement may enlarge the obligations of, restrict in any way any action by or rights of, or reduce in any way the amounts distributable, reimbursable, or otherwise payable to the General Partner or any of its affiliates, without the consent of the General Partner, which may be given or withheld at its option.

Any amendment that would have a material adverse effect on the rights or preferences of any class of Partnership Interests in relation to other classes of Partnership Interests must be approved by the holders of not less than a majority of the Outstanding Partnership Interests of the class affected.

No amendment to the Partnership Agreement (other than those that may be made by the General Partner without the approval of the Limited Partners) will become effective without the approval of the holders of at least 90% of the Outstanding Units voting together as a single class unless NBLX obtains an opinion of counsel to the effect that such amendment will not affect the limited liability of any Limited Partner under applicable law.

NBLX

For all matters presented to the Limited Partners at a meeting at which a quorum is present for which no minimum or other vote of Limited Partners is required by any provision of the Partnership Agreement, the rules or regulations of the NASDAQ or applicable law, a majority of the votes cast by the Limited Partners holding Outstanding Units shall be deemed to constitute the act of all Limited Partners (with abstentions and broker non-votes being deemed to not have been cast with respect to such matter). On any matter where a minimum or other vote of Limited Partners is provided by any provision of the Partnership Agreement, the rules or regulations of the NASDAQ or applicable law, such minimum or other vote shall be the vote of Limited Partners required to approve such matter (with the effect of abstentions and broker non-votes to be determined based on the vote of Limited Partners required to approve such matter; provided that if the effect of abstentions and broker non-votes is not specified by such applicable rule, regulation or law, and there is no prevailing interpretation of such effect, then abstentions and broker non-votes shall be deemed to not have been cast with respect to such matter; provided further, that, with respect to any matter on which the Partnership Agreement requires the approval of a specified percentage of the Outstanding Units, abstentions and broker non-votes shall be counted as votes against such matter).

Special meetings of the Limited Partners may be called by the General Partner or by Limited Partners owning 20% or more of the Outstanding Units of the class or classes for which a meeting is proposed, in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Partnership Agreement. The General Partner must send notice of any meetings to all unitholders of record as of a record date which may not be less than 10 or more than 60 days prior to the date of the meeting (or, where approvals are sought without a meeting, the date by which Limited Partners must submit approvals) and any such meeting may be held not less than 10 days or more than 60 days after the mailing of notice of the meeting. NBLX Unitholders may vote either in person or by proxy at meetings. The holders of a majority in voting power of the Outstanding Units of the class or classes for which a meeting has been called, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum unless any such action by the unitholders requires approval by holders of a greater percentage of the units, in which case the quorum will be the greater percentage. Abstentions and broker non-votes in respect of such Units shall be deemed to be Units present at such meeting for purposes of establishing a quorum.

If authorized by the General Partner, any action that may be taken at a meeting of the Limited Partners may be taken without a meeting if an approval in writing setting forth the action so taken is signed by Limited Partners owning not less than the minimum percentage of the Outstanding Units that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all the Limited Partners were present and voted.

Stockholder Proposals and Director Nominations

Chevron

The Chevron Bylaws establish advance notice procedures with respect to stockholder proposals for annual meetings and stockholder nomination of candidates for election as directors at annual or special meetings. To be timely, a Chevron Stockholder's notice for an annual meeting must be delivered to Chevron's secretary no later than the 90th day and no earlier than the 120th day prior to the first anniversary of the previous year's annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event the date of the annual meeting is more than 30 days before or after such anniversary, or if no annual meeting was held in the preceding year, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be delivered no earlier than the 120th day prior to such annual meeting and no later than the 90th day prior to such annual meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made by Chevron.

To be timely, a Chevron Stockholder's notice for a special meeting for the election of directors must be delivered to Chevron's secretary no earlier than the 120th day prior to such special meeting and no later than the 90th day prior to such special meeting or the 10th day following the day on which the public announcement is first made of the date of the special meeting. A Chevron Stockholder's notice must also provide certain information and make certain representations, and must be updated and supplemented in certain circumstances.

Indemnification and Limitation on Liability

Chevron

The DGCL authorizes corporations to limit or eliminate the personal liability of directors to corporations and their stockholders for monetary damages for breaches of directors' fiduciary duties. The DGCL does not permit exculpation for liability:

- for breach of duty of loyalty;
- for acts or omissions not in good faith or involving intentional misconduct or knowing violation of law;
- under Section 174 of the DGCL (unlawful dividends and stock repurchases); or

Not applicable.

NBLX

The Partnership Agreement provides that certain persons, including the General Partner, managers, managing members, directors and officers, shall not be liable for monetary damages to NBLX, any of its Limited Partners or any other persons who are bound by the Partnership Agreement for losses sustained or liabilities incurred as a result of any act or omission of any such person unless there has been a final and non-appealable judgment entered by a court of competent jurisdiction determining that, in respect of the matter in question, such person acted in bad faith or engaged in intentional fraud, willful misconduct, or, in the case of a criminal matter, acted with knowledge that such person's conduct was unlawful.

- for transactions from which the director derived improper personal benefit.

The Chevron Charter eliminates the personal liability of directors to Chevron and its stockholders for monetary damages for breaches of fiduciary duty to the fullest extent authorized by the DGCL. The Chevron Bylaws require Chevron to indemnify certain persons, including its directors and officers, and certain employees and agents, to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL, but subject to certain exceptions and limitations set forth in the Chevron Bylaws. Additionally, the directors and certain officers are entitled to advancement of expenses from Chevron for legal proceedings against them, to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Exclusive Forum

Chevron

The Chevron Bylaws provide that unless Chevron consents in writing to the selection of an alternative forum, the sole and exclusive forum for (i) any derivative action or proceeding brought on behalf of Chevron, (ii) any action asserting a claim of breach of a fiduciary duty owed by any director, officer or other employee of Chevron to Chevron or Chevron's Stockholders, (iii) any action asserting a claim arising pursuant to any provision of the DGCL, or (iv) any action asserting a claim governed by the internal affairs doctrine shall be a state or federal court located within the state of Delaware.

NBLX

The Partnership Agreement indemnifies certain persons, including the General Partner, managers, managing members, directors and officers, to the fullest extent permitted by law for any proceedings as a result of such persons acting on behalf of or for the benefit of NBLX, subject to certain limitations in the Partnership Agreement. The Partnership Agreement also provides for advancement of expenses for proceedings against any such person. Further, the Partnership Agreement allows NBLX to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of the General Partner, its affiliates and any person designated by the General Partner to protect against any liability incurred by such person in connection with NBLX's activities or such person's activities on behalf of NBLX, regardless of whether NBLX would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under the Partnership Agreement.

NBLX

The Partnership Agreement provides that any claims, suits, actions or proceedings (A) arising out of or relating in any way to the Partnership Agreement (including any claims, suits or actions to interpret, apply or enforce the provisions of the Partnership Agreement or the duties, obligations or liabilities among the Partners or of Partners to NBLX, or the rights or powers of, or restrictions on, the Partners or NBLX), (B) brought in a derivative manner on behalf of NBLX, (C) asserting a claim of breach of a duty (including any fiduciary duty) owed by any director, officer or other employee of NBLX or the General Partner, or owed by the General Partner, to NBLX or the Partners, (D) asserting a claim arising pursuant to any provision of the DRULPA or (E) asserting a claim governed by the internal affairs doctrine shall be exclusively brought in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, in each case regardless of whether such claims, suits, actions or proceedings sound in contract, tort, fraud or otherwise, are based on common law, statutory, equitable, legal or other grounds, or are derivative or direct claims. However, if the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware does not have subject matter jurisdiction over the action, the action may be brought in any other court in the State of Delaware having subject matter jurisdiction.

Conflicts of Interest; Fiduciary Duties

Chevron

Chevron's directors owe certain fiduciary duties to Chevron Stockholders. Under the DGCL, certain transactions involving an interested officer or director are not void or voidable solely because of such officer's or director's interest if:

- the material facts are disclosed or made known to the board of directors (or committee thereof) and a majority of the disinterested directors vote to authorize the transaction in good faith;
- the material facts are disclosed or made known to the Chevron Stockholders entitled to vote thereon and the transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the Chevron Stockholders; or
- the transaction is fair to the corporation at the time it is authorized, approved, or ratified by the board of directors (or committee thereof) or the stockholders.

NBLX

The Partnership Agreement contains provisions replacing the fiduciary duties that would otherwise be owed by the General Partner with contractual standards governing the duties of the General Partner and the methods for resolving conflicts of interest. The Partnership Agreement also restricts the remedies available to NBLX Unitholders for actions taken that might, without those limitations, constitute breaches of fiduciary duty and permits the General Partner to take into account the interest of other parties in addition to NBLX's interests when resolving conflicts of interest.

Whenever a potential conflict of interest arises between the General Partner or any of its affiliates, on the one hand, and NBLX, any Group Member or any Partner, on the other, any resolution or course of action by the General Partner or its affiliates in respect of such conflict of interest will be permitted and deemed approved by all Partners and will not breach the Partnership Agreement, and Group Agreement, or any agreement contemplated in the Partnership Agreement or Group Agreement or any duty stated or implied by law or equity, if the resolution or course of action is:

- approved by Special Approval; or
- approved by the vote of a majority of the Outstanding Units (excluding Common Units owned by the General Partner and its affiliates).

The General Partner is authorized but will not be required in connection with its resolution of a conflict of interest to seek Special Approval or Unitholder approval of such resolutions and may adopt a resolution or course of action in respect of any such conflict of interest that has not received such approval. If Special Approval is sought, then it will be presumed the Conflicts Committee of the GP Board acted in good faith.

The Partnership Agreement also entitles the General Partner to take or decline to take any action in its individual capacity, as opposed to in its capacity as the general partner of NBLX, at its sole and absolute discretion, free of any duty (including any fiduciary

DESCRIPTION OF CHEVRON CAPITAL STOCK

The following is a description of the terms of Chevron's capital stock based on the Chevron's Organizational Documents and relevant provisions of the laws of the DGCL. The outstanding shares of Chevron Common Stock are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid, and nonassessable.

Holders of Chevron Common Stock are entitled to one vote per share on all matters voted on by Chevron Stockholders, including the election of directors. Chevron Common Stock does not have cumulative voting rights.

Dividend Rights

Subject to the rights of holders of outstanding shares of Chevron Preferred Stock, if any, the holders of Chevron Common Stock are entitled to receive dividends, if any, as may be declared from time to time by the Chevron Board in its discretion out of funds legally available for the payment of dividends.

Liquidation Rights

Subject to any preferential rights of outstanding shares of Chevron Preferred Stock, holders of Chevron Common Stock will share ratably in all assets legally available for distribution to Chevron Stockholders in the event of dissolution.

Other Rights and Preferences

Chevron Common Stock has no sinking fund or redemption provisions or preemptive, conversion, or exchange rights. Special meetings of stockholders may be called by stockholders owning 15% of the shares of Chevron Common Stock then outstanding and entitled to vote at the meeting. Any action which may be taken by Chevron Stockholders at an annual or special meeting and which requires the approval of at least a majority of the voting power of the Chevron securities present at such meeting and entitled to vote on such action, or the shares of Chevron Common Stock present at such meeting, may not be effected except at such an annual or special meeting by the vote required for the taking of such action. Under this provision, Chevron Stockholders are prohibited from taking certain actions by unanimous written consent in lieu of a meeting, including amending the Bylaws and removing directors, unless the Chevron Board waives this requirement.

Conversion and Other Rights

No conversion, redemption or sinking fund provisions apply to Chevron Common Stock, and Chevron Common Stock is not liable to further call or assessment by the company. All issued and outstanding shares of Chevron Common Stock are fully paid and non-assessable.

Anti-Takeover Effects of Various Provisions of Delaware Law and the Chevron Organizational Documents

Certain provisions of Chevron's Organizational Documents may be deemed to have an anti-takeover effect.

Advance Notice Requirements for Stockholder Proposals and Director Nominations. Chevron's Bylaws provide advance notice procedures for Chevron Stockholders seeking to bring business before Chevron's annual meeting of stockholders or to nominate candidates for election as directors at our annual meeting of stockholders and specify certain requirements regarding the form and content of a stockholder's notice. These provisions might preclude Chevron's Stockholders from bringing matters before its annual meeting of stockholders or from making nominations for directors at our annual meeting of stockholders if the proper procedures are not followed.

Proxy Access for Director Nominations. Chevron's Bylaws permit a stockholder or group of stockholders (up to 20) who have owned at least three percent of Chevron Common Stock for at least three years to submit director nominees (up to the greater of two nominees or 20% of the Chevron Board) for inclusion in Chevron's Proxy Statement; provided that the nominating stockholder(s) have satisfied the requirements specified in Chevron's Bylaws.

Additional Authorized Shares of Capital Stock. The additional shares of authorized Chevron Common Stock and Chevron Preferred Stock available for issuance under Chevron's Organizational Documents, including shares of Chevron's Series A Participating Preferred Stock, could be issued at such times, under such circumstances, and with such terms and conditions as to impede a change in control.

Change in Control Benefit Protection. Chevron's Bylaws provide that Chevron and one or more of its subsidiaries may maintain benefit plans that provide for payments or other benefits or protections conditioned partly or solely upon the occurrence of a change in control, and that Chevron shall cause any surviving corporation (or any other successor to Chevron's business and assets) to assume any such obligations of such benefit plans and make effective provision therefore, and that such benefit plans shall not be amended except in accordance with their terms.

Prohibition on Actions by Unanimous Written Consent. As described in "–Common Stock–Other Rights and Preferences" above, Chevron's Certificate of Incorporation provides that certain actions taken by Chevron Stockholders may not be effected except at an annual or special meeting by the vote required for the taking of such action.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following is a discussion of U.S. federal income tax consequences to U.S. Holders (as defined below) of the Merger and of owning and disposing of shares of Chevron Common Stock received in the Merger. This discussion is limited to U.S. Holders of NBLX Public Common Units that hold their NBLX Public Common Units, and will hold their shares of Chevron Common Stock received in the Merger, as capital assets for U.S. federal income tax purposes (generally, property held for investment). This discussion does not address tax consequences that may be relevant to particular holders in light of their individual circumstances, including, without limitation:

- banks, financial institutions or insurance companies;
- real estate investment trusts;
- regulated investment companies or mutual funds;
- “controlled foreign corporations” or “passive foreign investment companies”;
- dealers and brokers in stocks and securities or currencies;
- traders in securities that use a mark-to-market method of tax accounting;
- tax-exempt entities;
- certain former citizens or long-term residents of the United States;
- persons that received NBLX Common Units as compensation for the performance of services;
- holders of options, restricted units or bonus units granted under any NBLX benefit plan;
- persons that hold NBLX Common Units or Chevron Common Stock as part of a hedge, straddle, appreciated financial position, conversion or other “synthetic security” or integrated investment or risk reduction transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes;
- S-corporations or other pass-through entities (or investors in S-corporations or other pass-through entities);
- persons whose “functional currency” is not the U.S. dollar;
- “qualified foreign pension funds” as defined in Section 897(1)(2) of the Code and entities all of the interests of which are held by qualified foreign pension funds; or
- persons subject to special tax accounting rules as a result of any item of gross income with respect to the NBLX Common Units or Chevron Common Stock being taken into account in an applicable financial statement.

If a partnership, or any entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes, holds NBLX Common Units, the tax treatment of a partner in such entity or arrangement will generally depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the entity or arrangement. A partner in such an entity or arrangement holding NBLX Common Units should consult its own tax advisor regarding the tax consequences of the Merger and of owning and disposing of any shares of Chevron Common Stock received in the Merger.

Moreover, this discussion does not address any tax consequences arising under the net investment income tax or the alternative minimum tax, nor does it address any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, local or foreign jurisdiction, or under any U.S. federal laws other than those pertaining to income taxes.

This discussion is based on provisions of the Code, administrative pronouncements, judicial decisions and final, temporary and proposed Treasury regulations (the "Treasury Regulations"), all as of the date hereof, and any of which are subject to change, possibly with a retroactive effect so as to result in U.S. federal income tax consequences different from those discussed below. No ruling has been or is expected to be sought from the IRS with respect to any of the tax consequences discussed below. As a result there can be no assurances that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the conclusions set forth below.

For purposes of this discussion, a "U.S. Holder" is a beneficial owner of NBLX Public Common Units or shares of Chevron Common Stock that is for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

- a citizen or resident of the United States;
- a corporation (or other entity or arrangement treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof, or the District of Columbia;
- an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or
- a trust if such trust has validly elected to be treated as a U.S. person for U.S. federal income tax purposes or if (1) a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over its administration and (2) one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all of the substantial decisions of such trust.

THIS DISCUSSION IS PROVIDED FOR GENERAL INFORMATION ONLY AND IS NOT A COMPLETE ANALYSIS OR DESCRIPTION OF ALL POTENTIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER OR THE RECEIPT, OWNERSHIP AND DISPOSITION OF SHARES OF CHEVRON COMMON STOCK RECEIVED IN THE MERGER. EACH HOLDER OF NBLX COMMON UNITS IS STRONGLY URGED TO CONSULT WITH AND RELY UPON ITS OWN TAX ADVISOR AS TO THE SPECIFIC FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND NON-U.S. TAX CONSEQUENCES TO SUCH HOLDER OF THE MERGER AND THE RECEIPT, OWNERSHIP AND DISPOSITION OF SHARES OF CHEVRON COMMON STOCK RECEIVED IN THE MERGER, TAKING INTO ACCOUNT ITS OWN PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES.

Tax Consequences of the Merger to U.S. Holders of NBLX Common Units

Tax Characterization of the Merger

The receipt of shares of Chevron Common Stock in exchange for NBLX Common Units pursuant to the Merger will be a taxable transaction to U.S. Holders for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In general, the Merger will be treated as a taxable sale of a U.S. Holder's NBLX Common Units in exchange for shares of Chevron Common Stock received in the Merger. The remainder of this discussion assumes that the Merger will be treated as a taxable transaction.

Amount and Character of Gain or Loss Recognized

A U.S. Holder who receives shares of Chevron Common Stock in exchange for NBLX Common Units pursuant to the Merger will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the sum of (A) the fair market value of the shares of Chevron Common Stock received and (B) such U.S. Holder's share of NBLX's nonrecourse liabilities immediately prior to the Merger and (ii) such U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in the NBLX Common Units exchanged therefor (which includes such U.S. Holder's share of NBLX's nonrecourse liabilities immediately prior to the Merger).

A U.S. Holder's initial tax basis in NBLX Common Units purchased with cash equaled, at the time of such purchase, the amount such holder paid for the NBLX Common Units plus the U.S. Holder's share of NBLX's nonrecourse liabilities. Over time that basis has (i) increased by the U.S. Holder's share of NBLX's income and by any increases in the U.S. Holder's share of NBLX's nonrecourse liabilities, and (ii) decreased, but not below zero, by distributions from NBLX, by the U.S. Holder's share of NBLX's losses, by any decreases in the U.S. Holder's share of NBLX's nonrecourse liabilities and by the U.S. Holder's share of NBLX's expenditures that are not deductible in computing taxable income and are not required to be capitalized. Upon the disposition of an NBLX Common Unit, including in connection with the Merger, a U.S. Holder's basis in its NBLX Common Unit will be increased by the U.S. Holder's share of certain items related to business interest not yet deductible by such U.S. Holder due to applicable limitations on the deductibility of such business interest.

Except as noted below, gain or loss recognized by a U.S. Holder on the exchange of NBLX Common Units in the Merger will generally be taxable as capital gain or loss. However, a portion of this gain or loss, which could be substantial, will be separately computed and taxed as ordinary income or loss under Section 751 of the Code to the extent attributable to "unrealized receivables," including depreciation recapture, or to "inventory items" owned by NBLX and its subsidiaries. Ordinary income attributable to unrealized receivables and inventory items may exceed net taxable gain realized upon the exchange of an NBLX Common Unit pursuant to the Merger Agreement and may be recognized even if there is a net taxable loss realized on the exchange of such U.S. Holder's NBLX Common Units pursuant to the Merger. Consequently, a U.S. Holder may recognize both ordinary income and capital loss upon the exchange of NBLX Common Units in the Merger.

Capital gain or loss recognized by a U.S. Holder will generally be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder has held its NBLX Common Units for more than twelve months as of the Effective Time. If the U.S. Holder is an individual, such long-term capital gain will generally be eligible for reduced rates of taxation. Capital losses recognized by a U.S. Holder may offset capital gains and, in the case of individuals, no more than $3,000 of ordinary income. Capital losses recognized by U.S. Holders that are corporations may only be used to offset capital gains.

The amount of gain or loss recognized by each U.S. Holder in the Merger will vary depending on each U.S. Holder's particular situation, including the value of the shares of Chevron Common Stock received by each U.S. Holder in the Merger, the adjusted tax basis of the NBLX Common Units exchanged by each U.S. Holder in the Merger, and the amount of any suspended passive losses that may be available to a particular unitholder to offset a portion of the gain recognized by each U.S. Holder. Passive losses that were not deductible by a U.S. Holder in prior taxable periods because they exceeded a U.S. Holder's share of NBLX's income may be deducted in full upon the U.S. Holder's taxable disposition of its entire investment in NBLX pursuant to the Merger. Each U.S. Holder is strongly urged to consult its own tax advisor with respect to the unitholder's specific tax consequences of the Merger, taking into account its own particular circumstances.

NBLX Items of Income, Gain, Loss, and Deduction for the Taxable Period of NBLX that Includes the Date of the Merger

A U.S. Holder of NBLX Common Units will be allocated its share of NBLX's items of income, gain, loss, and deduction for the taxable period of NBLX that includes the date of the Merger in accordance with the terms of the Partnership Agreement. A U.S. Holder will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any such allocated income and gain even if such U.S. Holder does not receive a cash distribution from NBLX. Any such income and gain allocated to a U.S. Holder will increase the U.S. Holder's tax basis in the NBLX Common Units held and, therefore, will reduce the gain, or increase the loss, recognized by such U.S. Holder resulting from the Merger. Any losses or deductions allocated to a U.S. Holder will decrease the U.S. Holder's tax basis in the NBLX Common Units held and, therefore, will increase the gain, or reduce the loss, recognized by such U.S. Holder resulting from the Merger.

Tax Basis and Holding Period in Shares of Chevron Common Stock Received in the Merger

A U.S. Holder's tax basis in the shares of Chevron Common Stock received in the Merger will equal the fair market value of such shares. A U.S. Holder's holding period in the shares of Chevron Common Stock received in the Merger will begin on the day after the date of the Merger.

Tax Consequences to U.S. Holders of Owning and Disposing of Shares of Chevron Common Stock Received in the Merger

Distributions on Shares of Chevron Common Stock

For U.S. federal income tax purposes, distributions of cash by Chevron to a U.S. Holder with respect to shares of Chevron Common Stock received in the Merger will generally be included in a U.S. Holder's income as ordinary dividend income to the extent of Chevron's current or accumulated "earnings and profits" as determined under U.S. federal income tax principles. A portion of the cash distributed to Chevron Stockholders by Chevron after the Merger may exceed Chevron's current and accumulated earnings and profits. Distributions of cash in excess of Chevron's current and accumulated earnings and profits will be treated as a non-taxable return of capital reducing a U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in such U.S. Holder's shares of Chevron Common Stock and, to the extent the distribution exceeds such U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis, as capital gain from the sale or exchange of such shares of Chevron Common Stock. Dividends received by a corporate U.S. Holder may be eligible for a dividends received deduction, subject to applicable limitations. Dividends received by an individual U.S. Holder may be taxed at the lower applicable long-term capital gains rate if such dividends are treated as "qualified dividend income" for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Sale, Exchange, Certain Redemptions or Other Taxable Dispositions of Chevron Common Stock

Upon the sale, exchange, certain redemptions or other taxable dispositions of shares of Chevron Common Stock received in the Merger, a U.S. Holder will generally recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between (i) the amount of cash and the fair market value of any other property received upon such taxable disposition of shares of Chevron Common Stock and (ii) the U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in such shares of Chevron Common Stock. Such capital gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder's holding period in the shares of Chevron Common Stock disposed of is more than twelve months at the time of such taxable disposition. Long-term capital gains of non-corporate taxpayers are generally taxed at reduced rates. Capital losses recognized by a U.S. Holder may offset capital gains and, in the case of individuals, no more than $3,000 of ordinary income. Capital losses recognized by U.S. Holders that are corporations may only be used to offset capital gains.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Information returns may be required to be filed with the IRS in connection with the Merger and in connection with distributions made with respect to, or dispositions of, shares of Chevron Common Stock received in the Merger. A U.S. Holder may be subject to U.S. backup withholding on payments made pursuant to the Merger or on distributions made with respect to, or on payments made pursuant to dispositions of, shares of Chevron Common Stock received in the Merger unless such holder provides proof of an applicable exemption or a correct taxpayer identification number and otherwise complies with the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amount withheld under the U.S. backup withholding rules is not an additional tax and will generally be allowed as a refund or credit against the U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

No certificates or scrip for Parent Shares representing fractional Parent Shares or book entry credit of the same will be issued upon the surrender of Public Common Units outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time in accordance with Section 3.3(b), and such fractional interests will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to have any rights as a holder of any Parent Shares. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in lieu of receiving any fraction of a Parent Share, all fractions of Parent Shares to which a holder of Public Common Units converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration in the Merger would otherwise have been entitled shall be aggregated and the resulting fraction of a Parent Share will be rounded up to a whole Parent Share.

(e) No Further Rights in Public Common Units. The Merger Consideration issued upon conversion of a Public Common Unit in accordance with the terms hereof will be deemed to have been issued and paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such Public Common Unit (other than any distribution in respect of the Common Units with a record date occurring prior to the Effective Time that may have been declared by the Partnership on the Common Units in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the Partnership Agreement and which remains unpaid at the Effective Time).

(f) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains undistributed to the holders of Public Common Units on the one year anniversary of the Effective Time will be delivered to Parent upon demand by Parent and, from and after such delivery, any former holders of Public Common Units who have not theretofore complied with this Article III will thereafter look only to Parent for the Merger Consideration payable in respect of such Public Common Units or any dividends or other distributions with respect to Parent Shares to which they are entitled pursuant to Section 3.1 or Section 3.3(c), respectively, in each case, without any interest thereon. Any amounts remaining unclaimed by holders of Public Common Units immediately prior to such time as such amounts would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any Governmental Authority will, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, become the property of Parent. Without limitation of the foregoing, after the date that is the one year anniversary of the Effective Time, any amounts remaining unclaimed by holders of Public Common Units will become the property of Parent, subject to the legitimate claims of any Person previously entitled thereto hereunder or under abandoned property, escheat or similar Laws. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, none of Parent, Holdings, NBL, the Partnership, Merger Sub, the Surviving Entity, the General Partner, the Exchange Agent, or any other Person shall be liable to any former holder of Public Common Units for any amount properly delivered to a public official pursuant to any abandoned property, escheat or similar Law.

(g) Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. If any Certificate is lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Parent, the posting by such Person of an indemnity agreement or a bond, in a customary amount, as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate and affidavit the Merger Consideration payable in respect of Public Common Units represented by such Certificate as contemplated by this Article III and pay any dividends and other distributions pursuant to Section 3.3(c).

(h) Withholding Taxes. Each of Parent, Holdings, Merger Sub, the Surviving Entity and the Exchange Agent, as applicable, are entitled to deduct and withhold from any amounts, including the Merger Consideration, payable pursuant to this Agreement to any Person such amounts as Parent, Holdings, Merger Sub, the Surviving Entity or the Exchange Agent, as applicable, reasonably deems it is required to deduct and withhold under the Code or any provision of state, local, or foreign Tax Law, with respect to the making of such payment. Such deduction and withholding may be taken in securities, in which case Parent, Holdings, Merger Sub, the Surviving Entity or the Exchange Agent, as applicable, shall be treated as having sold such securities for an amount of cash equal to the fair market value of such securities at the time of such deemed sale. To the extent that deducted and withheld amounts (including deemed proceeds from the deemed sale of securities) are paid over to the appropriate Governmental Authority, such amounts (including securities) will be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid or issued to the Person in respect of whom such deduction and withholding was made.

(i) Book Entry Shares. All Parent Shares to be issued in the Merger will be issued in book-entry form, without physical certificates.

Section 3.4 No Dissenters' Rights. No dissenters' or appraisal rights shall be available with respect to the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 3.5 Anti-Dilution Provisions. Notwithstanding any provision of this Article III to the contrary, if between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time the number of outstanding Common Units or Parent Shares shall have been changed into a different number of units or shares or a different class or series by reason of any subdivisions, reclassifications, splits, share distributions, combinations or exchanges of Common Units or Parent Shares, as applicable, then the Merger Consideration, the Exchange Ratio and any other similar dependent item, as applicable, will be correspondingly adjusted to provide to the holders of Public Common Units the same economic effect as contemplated by this Agreement prior to such event; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 3.5 shall be deemed to permit or authorize any party hereto to effect any such change that it is not otherwise authorized or permitted to be undertaken pursuant to this Agreement.

Section 3.6 Treatment of Awards. Prior to the Effective Time, Parent, the General Partner and the Partnership shall take all action as may be necessary or required in accordance with applicable Law and each Partnership Long-Term Incentive Plan and Parent Equity Plan (including the award agreements in respect of awards granted thereunder) to give effect to this Section 3.6 as follows: as of the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holders thereof, each Partnership LTIP Award that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, as of the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder of any such Partnership LTIP Awards, cease to relate to or represent a right with respect to Common Units and shall be converted into an award relating to Parent Shares (a “Converted Parent Award”), on the same terms and conditions as were applicable to the corresponding Partnership LTIP Award (including the right to receive dividend or dividend equivalents with respect to such Converted Parent Award if the corresponding Partnership LTIP Award included distribution or distribution equivalent rights), except that the number of Parent Shares covered by each such Converted Parent Award shall be equal to the number of Common Units subject to the corresponding Partnership LTIP Award multiplied by the Exchange Ratio, rounded up to the nearest whole unit. With respect to each Partnership LTIP Award, any distribution or distribution equivalent amounts accrued but unpaid as of the Closing will carry over and be paid to the holder in accordance with the terms of such Converted Parent Award.

Except as would not have, individually or in the aggregate, a Partnership Material Adverse Effect, (A) each Partnership Real Property Lease is valid, binding and in full force and effect in accordance with its terms, except as such enforcement may be limited by Enforceability Exceptions, and (B) no uncured default of a material nature on the part of the Partnership or, if applicable, any of its Subsidiaries or, to the knowledge of the Partnership, the lessor thereunder, exists under any Partnership Real Property Lease, and no event has occurred or circumstance exists that, with the giving of notice, the passage of time, or both, would constitute a material breach or default under a Partnership Real Property Lease.

(b) Except as would not have, individually or in the aggregate, a Partnership Material Adverse Effect, (i) there are no leases, subleases, licenses, rights or other agreements affecting any portion of the Partnership Owned Real Property or the Partnership Leased Real Property that would reasonably be expected to adversely affect the existing use of such Partnership Owned Real Property or Partnership Leased Real Property by the

Except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Partnership Material Adverse Effect, all pipelines operated by the Partnership and its Subsidiaries have or are otherwise entitled to the benefits of all Rights-of-Way that are necessary for the Partnership and its Subsidiaries to use and operate their respective assets and properties in the manner that such assets and properties are currently used and operated, and there are no gaps (including any gap arising as a result of any breach by the Partnership or any of its Subsidiaries of the terms of any Rights-of-Way) in such Rights-of-Way that would prevent the Partnership and its Subsidiaries to use and operate their respective assets and properties in the manner that such assets and properties are currently used and operated.

No filing of, or amendment or supplement to, the Registration Statement or the Information Statement will be made by a party without providing the other parties a reasonable opportunity to review and comment thereon. If at any time prior to the Effective Time any information relating to the Partnership or Parent, or any of their respective Affiliates, directors or officers, is discovered by the Partnership or Parent that should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to, the Registration Statement or the Information Statement, so that any such document would not include any misstatement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, the party that discovers such information shall promptly notify the other parties and an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information shall be promptly filed with the SEC and, to the extent required by applicable Laws, disseminated to the Limited Partners. The parties shall notify each other promptly of the receipt of any comments, written or oral, from the SEC or the staff of the SEC and of any request by the SEC or the staff of the SEC for amendments or supplements to the Information Statement or the Registration Statement or for additional information, and each party shall supply each other with copies of (i) all correspondence between it or any of its Representatives, on the one hand, and the SEC or the staff of the SEC, on the other hand, with respect to the Information Statement or the Registration Statement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (ii) all orders of the SEC relating to the Registration Statement.

(b) The General Partner shall distribute to the Limited Partners the Information Statement as promptly as practicable after the Registration Statement is declared effective under the Securities Act.

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Parent, Holdings and Merger Sub, on the one hand, and the Partnership and the General Partner, on the other hand, shall cooperate with the other and use and shall cause their respective Subsidiaries to use their reasonable best efforts to (i) take, or cause to be taken, all appropriate actions, and do, or cause to be done, all things, necessary, proper or advisable to cause the conditions to the Closing to be satisfied as promptly as practicable (and in any event no later than the Outside Date), including, for the avoidance of doubt, in the case of Parent and the General Partner, until the Effective Time or the termination of this Agreement, retaining ownership and voting control, directly or indirectly, over all Common Units and the General Partner Interest in the Partnership beneficially owned by Parent, any of its Subsidiaries or the General Partner, as applicable, as of the date of this Agreement or acquired thereafter and to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner practicable, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including preparing and filing as promptly as practicable all documentation to effect all necessary filings, notifications, notices, petitions, statements, registrations, submissions of information, applications and other documents, (ii) obtain promptly (and in any event no later than the Outside Date) all approvals, consents, waivers, clearances, expirations or terminations of waiting periods, registrations, permits, authorizations and other confirmations from any Governmental Authority or third party necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and (iii) defend any Proceedings challenging this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or seek to have lifted or rescinded any injunction or restraining order or other order adversely affecting the ability of the parties to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

provided, however, that each party and their respective Affiliates may make statements that are consistent with statements made in previous press releases, public disclosures or public statements made by Parent or the Partnership in compliance with this Section 6.4.

Section 6.5 Access to Information. Upon reasonable advance notice and subject to applicable Laws relating to the exchange of information, each party shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, afford to the other party and its Representatives, reasonable access during normal business hours (and, with respect to books and records, the right to copy) to all of its and such Subsidiaries' properties, commitments, books, Contracts, records and correspondence (in each case, whether in physical or electronic form), officers, employees, accountants, counsel, financial advisors and other Representatives, in each case for integration and operational planning related to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, that such access shall be provided on a basis that minimizes the disruption to the operations of the requested party and its Representatives. Subject to applicable Laws, from the date of this Agreement until the Effective Time, Parent and the Partnership shall furnish promptly to one another (i) a copy of each report, schedule, registration statement and other document filed, published, announced or received by it in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement during such period pursuant to the requirements of federal, state or foreign Laws (including pursuant to the Securities Act, the Exchange Act and the rules of any Governmental Authority thereunder), as applicable (other than documents that such party is not permitted to disclose under applicable Laws) (which such furnishing will be deemed to have occurred in the case of any document filed with or furnished to the SEC without further action on the part of the furnishing party), and (ii) all information concerning Parent's or the Partnership's business, properties and personnel as the other party may reasonably request, including all information relating to environmental matters, for the purpose of completing the other party's due diligence. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no party shall have an obligation to provide access to any information the disclosure of which the other party has concluded may jeopardize any privilege available to such party or any of its Affiliates relating to such information or would be in violation of a confidentiality obligation binding on such party or any of its Affiliates.

Section 6.6 Indemnification and Insurance.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable Laws, Parent shall, and shall cause the Surviving Entity to, (i) indemnify and hold harmless each Indemnified Person against any reasonable costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and all other reasonable costs, expenses and obligations (including experts' fees, travel expenses, court costs, retainers, transcript fees, duplicating, printing and binding costs, as well as telecommunications, postage and courier charges) paid or incurred in connection with investigating, defending, being a witness in or participating in (including on appeal), or preparing to investigate, defend, be a witness in or participate in, any Proceeding, including any Proceeding relating to a claim for indemnification or advancement brought by an Indemnified Person), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities, penalties and amounts paid in settlement (including all interest, assessments and other charges paid or payable in connection with or in respect of any thereof) in connection with any actual or threatened Proceeding, and, upon receipt by Parent of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Indemnified Person to repay such amount if it shall be determined in a final and non-appealable judgment entered by a court of competent jurisdiction that the Indemnified Person is not entitled to be indemnified, provide advancement of expenses with respect to each of the foregoing to, all Indemnified Persons and (ii) honor the provisions regarding elimination of liability of officers and directors, indemnification of officers, directors and employees and advancement of expenses contained in the Organizational Documents of the Partnership and the General Partner immediately prior to the Effective Time, and ensure that the Organizational Documents of the Partnership and the General Partner or any of their respective successors or assigns, if applicable, shall, for a period of six years following the Effective Time, contain provisions no less favorable with respect to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation of present and former directors, officers and employees of the Partnership and the General Partner than are presently set forth in such Organizational Documents. Any right of an Indemnified Person pursuant to this Section 6.6(a) shall not be amended, repealed, terminated or otherwise modified at any time in a manner that would adversely affect the rights of such Indemnified Person as provided herein, and shall be enforceable by such Indemnified Person and their respective heirs and Representatives against Parent, the Partnership and the General Partner and their respective successors and assigns.

(b) The Surviving Entity, or Parent on behalf of the Surviving Entity, shall maintain in effect for a period of six years following the Effective Time the Partnership's current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies covering acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time with respect to Indemnified Persons (provided, that the Surviving Entity, or Parent on behalf of the Surviving Entity, may substitute therefor policies with reputable carriers of at least the same coverage containing terms and conditions that are no less favorable to the Indemnified Persons); provided, however, that in no event shall the Surviving Entity or Parent, as applicable, be required to expend pursuant to this Section 6.6(b) more than an amount per year equal to 300% of current annual premiums paid by the Partnership for such insurance (the "Maximum Amount"). In the event that, but for the proviso to the immediately preceding sentence, the Surviving Entity would be required to expend more than the Maximum Amount, the Surviving Entity, or Parent on behalf of the Surviving Entity, shall obtain the maximum amount of such insurance as is available for the Maximum Amount. If the Partnership or Parent, in its sole discretion elects, then, in lieu of the obligations of the Surviving Entity under this Section 6.6(b), the Partnership or Parent may (but shall be under no obligation to), prior to the Effective Time, purchase a prepaid "tail policy" with respect to acts or omissions occurring or alleged to have occurred prior to the Effective Time that were committed or alleged to have been committed by such Indemnified Persons in their capacity as such; provided, that in no event shall the cost of such policy exceed six times the Maximum Amount.

(c) The rights of any Indemnified Person under this Section 6.6 shall be in addition to any other rights such Indemnified Person may have under the Parent Organizational Documents, the Organizational Documents of each of the Partnership, the General Partner, the Surviving Entity or any Subsidiary of Parent or the Partnership, any indemnification agreements, or the DLLCA or DRULPA. The provisions of this Section 6.6 shall survive the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and are expressly intended to benefit each of the Indemnified Persons and their respective heirs and Representatives. If Parent, the Surviving Entity and/or the General Partner, or any of their respective successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other Person, or (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of their businesses or assets to any other Person, then, in each such case, to the extent necessary, a proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Parent, the Surviving Entity and/or the General Partner shall assume the obligations of Parent, the Surviving Entity and the General Partner set forth in this Section 6.6.

Section 6.7 Fees and Expenses. Except as otherwise provided in Section 8.2 and Section 8.3, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement including all legal, accounting, financial advisory, consulting and all other fees and expenses of third parties incurred by a party in connection with the negotiation and effectuation of the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, shall be the obligation of the respective party incurring such fees and expenses, except (a) Parent and the Partnership shall each bear and pay one half of the expenses incurred in connection with the filing, printing and mailing of the Registration Statement and the Information Statement and (b) Parent shall pay all costs and fees of the Exchange Agent and all expenses associated with the exchange process.

Section 6.8 Section 16 Matters. Prior to the Effective Time, the Partnership shall take all such steps as may be required (to the extent permitted under applicable Laws) to cause any dispositions of Common Units (including derivative securities with respect to Common Units) or acquisitions of Parent Common Stock (including derivative securities with respect to Parent Common Stock) resulting from the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by each individual who is subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act with respect to the Partnership, or will become subject to such reporting requirements with respect to Parent, to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act.

Section 6.9 Stock Exchange Listing, Delisting and Deregistration.

(a) Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Parent Shares to be issued in connection with the Merger to be listed on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Effective Time. Prior to the Closing, Parent shall submit a supplemental listing application with the NYSE (the “NYSE Listing Application”) with respect to such Parent Shares in accordance with the requirements of the NYSE. Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to have the NYSE Listing Application approved (subject to official notice of issuance) as promptly as practicable after such submission (including by responding to comments of NYSE). The Partnership shall furnish all information as may be reasonably requested by Parent in connection with any such action and the preparation and submission of the NYSE Listing Application. No submission of, or amendment or supplement to, the NYSE Listing Application will be made by Parent without providing the Partnership with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment thereon. In addition, Parent agrees to provide the Partnership and its legal counsel with copies of any written comments, and shall inform the Partnership of any oral comments, that Parent or its counsel may receive from time to time from the NYSE or its staff with respect to the NYSE Listing Application promptly after receipt of such comments, and any written or oral responses thereto. The Partnership and its legal counsel shall be given a reasonable opportunity to review any such written responses and Parent shall give due consideration to the additions, deletions or changes suggested thereto by the Partnership and its counsel.

(b) The Partnership will cooperate and use its reasonable best efforts to cause the delisting of Common Units from the NASDAQ and the deregistration of such securities under the Exchange Act as promptly as practicable following the Closing in compliance with applicable Law.

Section 6.10 Dividends and Distributions. After the date of this Agreement and until the Effective Time, each of Parent and the Partnership shall coordinate with the other regarding the timing of any declaration of any dividends or distributions in respect of Parent Common Stock and Common Units and the record dates and payment dates relating thereto, it being the intention of the parties that holders of Common Units shall not receive, for any quarter, distributions both in respect of Common Units and also dividends in respect of Parent Common Stock that they receive in exchange therefor in the Merger, but that they shall receive for any such quarter either: (i) only distributions in respect of Common Units or (ii) only dividends in respect of Parent Common Stock that they receive in exchange therefor in the Merger.

Section 6.11 Conflicts Committee. Prior to the earlier of the Effective Time and the termination of this Agreement, Parent shall not and it shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, and it shall not and shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries to take any action intended to cause the General Partner (or the sole member of the General Partner) to, without the consent of a majority of the then existing members of the Conflicts Committee, eliminate the Conflicts Committee, revoke or diminish the authority of the Conflicts Committee or remove or cause the removal of any director of the General Partner who is a member of the Conflicts Committee either as a director or as a member of such committee. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 6.11 shall not apply to the filling, in accordance with the provisions of the General Partner Company Agreement, of any vacancies caused by the resignation, death or incapacity of any such director.

Section 6.12 Performance by the General Partner. Parent will cause the General Partner, the Partnership and their respective Subsidiaries to comply with the provisions of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is understood and agreed that actions or inactions by the Partnership and the General Partner and their respective Subsidiaries shall not be deemed to be breaches or violations or failures to perform by Parent of any of the provisions of this Agreement unless such action or inaction was or was not taken, in either case, at the direction of Parent. In no event shall the General Partner or the Partnership have any liability for, or be deemed to breach, violate or fail to perform any of the provisions of this Agreement by reason of, any action taken or omitted to be taken by the General Partner, the Partnership, any of their respective Subsidiaries or any of their respective Representatives at the direction of Parent, any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective Representatives.

Section 6.13 Tax Matters. For U.S. federal income tax purposes (and for purposes of any applicable state, local or foreign Tax that follows the U.S. federal income tax treatment), the parties agree to treat the Merger as a taxable sale of the Public Common Units to Holdings in exchange for the Merger Consideration. The parties will prepare and file all Tax Returns consistent with the foregoing and will not take any inconsistent position on any Tax Return, or during the course of any Proceeding with respect to Taxes, except as otherwise required by applicable Law following a final determination by a court of competent jurisdiction or other administrative settlement with or final administrative decision by the relevant Governmental Authority.

Section 6.14 Takeover Statutes. Parent shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to, take any action that would, or would reasonably be expected to, cause any Takeover Law to become applicable to this Agreement, the Merger, the Parent Stock Issuance or the other transactions contemplated hereby or related thereto. If any Takeover Law shall become applicable to this Agreement, the Merger or the other transactions contemplated hereby or related thereto, Parent, the Parent Board, the General Partner, the GP Board and the Conflicts Committee shall use reasonable best efforts to take such actions so that the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger and the Parent Stock Issuance, may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated hereby and otherwise use reasonable best efforts to eliminate or minimize the effects of such statute or regulation on the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger and the Parent Stock Issuance.

Section 6.15 Securityholder Litigation. The Partnership and the General Partner shall give Parent prompt notice and the opportunity to participate in the defense or settlement of any securityholder litigation against the Partnership and the General Partner and/or their directors (as applicable) relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and no such settlement shall be agreed to without the prior written consent of Parent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed; provided, that the Partnership and the General Partner shall in any event control such defense and/or settlement and shall not be required to provide information if doing so would be reasonably expected to violate the confidentiality obligations of such party or threaten the loss of any attorney-client privilege or other applicable legal privilege.

Parent shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of the Partnership and the General Partner by an executive officer of the General Partner to such effect.

(b) Performance of Obligations of the Partnership and the General Partner. The Partnership shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of Parent by an executive officer of Parent to such effect.

(b) Performance of Obligations of Parent, Holdings and Merger Sub. Each of Parent, Holdings and Merger Sub shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it under this Agreement at or prior to the Closing Date. The Partnership shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of Parent by an executive officer of Parent to such effect.

Section 7.4 Frustration of Closing Conditions.

(a) Neither the Partnership nor the General Partner may rely on the failure of any condition set forth in Section 7.1, Section 7.2 or Section 7.3, as the case may be, to be satisfied if such failure was due to the failure of either such party to perform and comply in all material respects with the covenants and agreements in this Agreement to be performed or complied with by it prior to the Closing.

(b) None of Parent, Holdings or Merger Sub may rely on the failure of any condition set forth in Section 7.1, Section 7.2 or Section 7.3, as the case may be, to be satisfied if such failure was due to the failure of any such party to perform and comply in all material respects with the covenants and agreements in this Agreement to be performed or complied with by it prior to the Closing.

ARTICLE VIII

TERMINATION

Section 8.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Time:

(a) by the mutual written consent of Parent and the Partnership duly authorized by the Parent Board and the Conflicts Committee, respectively;

(b) by either of the Parent or the Partnership:

(i) if the Closing shall not have been consummated on or before September 4, 2021 (the “Outside Date”); provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(b)(i) shall not be available (A) to Parent or the Partnership if the inability to satisfy such condition was due to the failure of, in the case of Parent, Parent, Holdings or Merger Sub, or, in the case of the Partnership, the Partnership or the General Partner, to perform and comply in all material respects with the covenants and agreements to be performed or complied with by it prior to the Closing or (B) to Parent or the Partnership if, in the case of Parent, the Partnership or the General Partner, or, in the case of the Partnership, Parent, Holdings or Merger Sub, has filed (and is then pursuing) an action seeking specific performance as permitted by Section 9.9; or

(ii) if any Restraint having the effect set forth in Section 7.1(b) shall be in effect and shall have become final and nonappealable; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(b)(ii) shall not be available to Parent or the Partnership if such Restraint was due to the failure of, in the case of Parent, Parent, Holdings or Merger Sub, or, in the case of the Partnership, the Partnership or the General Partner, to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement.

(c) by Parent if the Partnership or the General Partner shall have breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement (or if any of the representations or warranties of the Partnership or the General Partner set forth in this Agreement shall fail to be true), which breach or failure (i) would (if it occurred or was continuing as of the Closing Date) give rise to the failure of a condition set forth in Section 7.2(a)(i) or Section 7.2(b) and (ii) is incapable of being cured, or is not cured, by the Partnership or the General Partner within 30 days following receipt of written notice from Parent of such breach or failure; provided, however, that Parent shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(c) if Parent, Holdings or Merger Sub is then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement.

(d) by the Partnership (which termination may be effected for the Partnership by the Conflicts Committee without the consent, authorization or approval of the GP Board) if Parent shall have breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement (or if any of the representations or warranties of Parent set forth in this Agreement shall fail to be true), which breach or failure (i) would (if it occurred or was continuing as of the Closing Date) give rise to the failure of a condition set forth in Section 7.3(a)(i) or Section 7.3(b) and (ii) is incapable of being cured, or is not cured, by Parent within 30 days following receipt of written notice from the Partnership of such breach or failure; provided, that the Partnership shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(d) if the Partnership or the General Partner is then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement.

Section 8.2 Effect of Termination. In the event of the termination of this Agreement as provided in Section 8.1, written notice thereof shall be given to the other party or parties, specifying the provision of this Agreement pursuant to which such termination is made, and this Agreement shall forthwith become null and void (other than the provisions in the last sentence of Section 6.5, the provisions in Section 6.7, this Section 8.2, Section 8.3 and Article IX, all of which shall survive termination of this Agreement), and, except as otherwise provided in this Section 8.2, there shall be no liability on the part of any of Parent, Holdings, Merger Sub, the Partnership and the General Partner or their respective Representatives, directors, officers and Affiliates; provided, however, that no such termination shall relieve any party hereto from (a) its obligation to pay the Parent Expense Reimbursement or the Partnership Expense Reimbursement, as applicable, if, as and when required pursuant to Section 8.3, (b) any liability for any failure to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement when required pursuant to this Agreement or (c) any liability for intentional fraud or a Willful Breach of any covenant or other agreement contained in this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall the General Partner or the Partnership have any liability for any matter set forth in the proviso of the preceding sentence for any action taken or omitted to be taken by the General Partner, the Partnership, any of their respective Subsidiaries or any of their respective Representatives at the direction of Parent, any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective Representatives. For purposes of this Agreement, "Willful Breach" shall mean a material breach of this Agreement that is a consequence of a deliberate act or a deliberate failure to act by the breaching party with the knowledge that the taking of such act (or the failure to take such act) would (i) cause a material breach of this Agreement and (ii) prevent or materially delay the Closing.

Section 8.3 Expenses.

(a) In the event of termination of this Agreement by Parent pursuant to Section 8.1(c) (Partnership or General Partner Uncured Breach), then the Partnership shall promptly, but in no event later than two Business Days after receipt of an invoice (with supporting documentation) therefor from Parent, pay Parent's designee all of the reasonably documented out-of-pocket expenses (including all fees and expenses of counsel, accountants, investment bankers, financing sources, hedging counterparties, experts and consultants) incurred by Parent and its Affiliates in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby up to a maximum amount of $3,500,000 (the "Parent Expense Reimbursement").

(b) In the event of termination of this Agreement by the Partnership pursuant to Section 8.1(d) (Parent Uncured Breach), then Parent shall promptly, but in no event later than two Business Days after receipt of an invoice (with supporting documentation) therefor from the Partnership, pay the Partnership's designee all of the reasonably documented out-of-pocket expenses (including all fees and expenses of counsel, accountants, investment bankers, financing sources, hedging counterparties, experts and consultants) incurred by the Partnership and its Affiliates in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby up to a maximum amount of $3,500,000 (the "Partnership Expense Reimbursement"); provided, that the Partnership Expense Reimbursement shall not exceed the maximum amount, if any, that the Partnership reasonably determines can be paid to the Partnership without causing the Partnership to fail the gross income requirement in Section 7704(c)(2) of the Code, treating the Partnership Expense Reimbursement as non-qualifying income and after taking into consideration all other sources of non-qualifying income of the Partnership, unless the Partnership receives an opinion of counsel or a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service to the effect that the Partnership's receipt of the Partnership Expense Reimbursement will either constitute qualifying income (as defined in Section 7704(d) of the Code) or be excluded from gross income for purposes of Section 7704 of the Code.

(c) Each of the parties hereto acknowledges that the Parent Expense Reimbursement and Partnership Expense Reimbursement are not intended to be a penalty, but rather are liquidated damages in a reasonable amount that will compensate the other party, as applicable, in the circumstances in which such amounts are due and payable and which do not involve fraud or Willful Breach, for the efforts and resources expended and opportunities forgone while negotiating this Agreement and in reliance on this Agreement and on the expectation of the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, which amount would otherwise be impossible to calculate with precision. In no event shall a party be entitled to more than one payment of the Parent Expense Reimbursement and Partnership Expense Reimbursement, as applicable, in connection with a termination of this Agreement pursuant to which such amounts are payable.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 9.1 No Survival, Etc. The representations, warranties and agreements in this Agreement (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any schedule, instrument or other document delivered pursuant to this Agreement) shall terminate at the Effective Time or, except as otherwise provided in Section 8.2 or Section 8.3, upon the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1, as the case may be, except that the agreements set forth in Article I, Article II, Article III, the last sentence of Section 6.5, Section 6.7 and Article IX and any other agreement in this Agreement that contemplates performance after the Effective Time shall survive the Effective Time.

Section 9.2 Amendment or Supplement. At any time prior to the Effective Time, this Agreement may be amended or supplemented in any and all respects by written agreement of the parties, by action taken or authorized by the Parent Board and the GP Board; provided, however, that the GP Board may not take or authorize any such action unless it has been approved by the Conflicts Committee; provided, further, that there shall be no amendment or change to the provisions of this Agreement that by applicable Laws, the Partnership Agreement or stock exchange rule would require further approval by Limited Partners.

Section 9.3 GP Board Consent. Unless otherwise expressly set forth in this Agreement, whenever a determination, decision, approval, consent, waiver or agreement of the Partnership or the General Partner is required pursuant to this Agreement (including any determination to exercise or refrain from exercising any rights under Article VIII or to enforce the terms of this Agreement (including Section 9.9)), such determination, decision, approval or consent must be authorized by the GP Board; provided, however, that the GP Board may not take or authorize any such action unless it has been approved in writing by the Conflicts Committee.

Section 9.4 Extension of Time, Waiver, Etc. At any time prior to the Effective Time, any party may, subject to applicable Law, (a) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of any other party hereto, (b) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or acts of any other party hereto, (c) waive compliance by the other party with any of the agreements contained herein or, except as otherwise provided herein, waive any of such party's conditions or (d) make or grant any consent under this Agreement; provided, however, that the GP Board may not take or authorize any such action unless it has been approved in writing by the Conflicts Committee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no failure or delay by the Partnership, the General Partner, Parent, Holdings or Merger Sub in exercising any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right hereunder. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party.

Section 9.5 Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder shall be assigned, in whole or in part, by operation of Law or otherwise, by any of the parties without the prior written consent of the other parties. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement shall be binding upon, inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Any purported assignment not permitted under this Section 9.5 shall be null, void and ineffective.

Section 9.6 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (each of which shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement) and shall become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other parties. Signatures to this Agreement transmitted by facsimile transmission, by electronic mail in “portable document format” form, or by any other electronic means intended to preserve the original graphic and pictorial appearance of a document, will have the same effect as physical delivery of the paper document bearing the original signature.

Section 9.7 Entire Understanding; No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement, the Partnership Disclosure Schedule and any certificates delivered by any party pursuant to this agreement (a) constitute the entire agreement and understanding, and supersede all other prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and thereof and (b) shall not confer upon any Person other than the parties hereto any rights (including third-party beneficiary rights or otherwise) or remedies hereunder, except for, in the case of clause (b) of this sentence, (i) the right of a holder of Public Common Units to receive the Merger Consideration (a claim by any holder of Public Common Units with respect to which may not be made unless and until the Closing shall have occurred), the right of a holder of a Partnership LTIP Award to receive the Merger Consideration (a claim by any holder of Partnership LTIP Award with respect to which may not be made unless and until the Closing shall have occurred) and (ii) the provisions of Section 6.6 and Section 9.12.

Section 9.8 Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Waiver of Jury Trial.

(a) This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware, applicable to contracts executed in and to be performed entirely within that State.

(b) Each of the parties hereto irrevocably agrees that any legal action or Proceeding with respect to this Agreement and the rights and obligations arising hereunder, shall be brought and determined exclusively in the Delaware Court of Chancery and any state appellate court therefrom within the State of Delaware (or, if the Delaware Court of Chancery declines to accept jurisdiction over a particular matter, any state or federal court within the State of Delaware). Each of the parties hereto consents to service being made through the notice procedures set forth in Section 9.10, irrevocably submits with regard to any such action or Proceeding for itself and in respect of its property, generally and unconditionally, to the personal jurisdiction of the aforesaid courts and agrees that it will not bring any action relating to this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement in any court other than the aforesaid courts. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably waives, and agrees not to assert as a defense, counterclaim or otherwise, in any action or Proceeding with respect to this Agreement, (i) any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of the above named courts for any reason other than the failure to serve in accordance with this Section 9.8, (ii) any claim that it or its property is exempt or immune from the jurisdiction of any such court or from any legal process commenced in such courts (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution of judgment, execution of judgment or otherwise) and (iii) to the fullest extent permitted by the applicable Laws, any claim that (A) the suit, action or Proceeding in such court is brought in an inconvenient forum, (B) the venue of such suit, action or Proceeding is improper or (C) this Agreement, or the subject matter hereof, may not be enforced in or by such courts. Each party hereto expressly acknowledges that the foregoing waiver is intended to be irrevocable under the Law of the State of Delaware and of the United States of America; provided, however, that each such party’s consent to jurisdiction and service contained in this Section 9.8(b) is solely for the purpose referred to in this Section 9.8(b) and shall not be deemed to be a general submission to such courts or in the State of Delaware other than for such purpose.

(c) EACH PARTY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE) ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT OR THE ACTIONS OF ANY PARTY IN THE NEGOTIATION, ADMINISTRATION, PERFORMANCE AND ENFORCEMENT OF THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT.

Section 9.9 Specific Performance. The parties agree that irreparable damage would occur and that the parties would not have any adequate remedy at law in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached and it is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement, in each case, in accordance with this Section 9.9 in the Delaware Court of Chancery or any other state or federal court sitting in the State of Delaware, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity. Each of the parties agrees that it will not oppose the granting of an injunction, specific performance and other equitable relief as provided herein on the basis that (a) either party has an adequate remedy at law or (b) an award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or equity (it being understood that nothing in this sentence shall prohibit the parties hereto from raising other defenses to a claim for specific performance or other equitable relief under this Agreement). Each party further agrees that no party shall be required to obtain, furnish or post any bond or similar instrument in connection with or as a condition to obtaining any remedy referred to in this Section 9.9, and each party irrevocably waives any right it may have to require the obtaining, furnishing or posting of any such bond or similar instrument.

All notices and other communications hereunder must be in writing and will be deemed duly given if delivered personally or by email transmission, or mailed through a nationally recognized overnight courier, postage prepaid, to the parties at the following addresses (or at such other address for a party as specified by like notice, provided, however, that notices of a change of address will be effective only upon receipt thereof):

Section 9.11 Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any rule of law or public policy, all other terms, provisions and conditions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Laws in an acceptable manner to the end that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are fulfilled to the extent possible.

[See attached.]

JANNEY MONTGOMERY SCOTT LLC

INVESTMENT BANKING

Established 1832

March 4, 2021

Conflicts Committee of the Board of Directors
Noble Midstream GP LLC
1001 Noble Energy Way
Houston, Texas 77070

Conflicts Committee of the Board of Directors:

Noble Midstream Partners LP, a Delaware limited partnership (“NBLX”), proposes to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Agreement”) by and among Chevron Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“Chevron”), Cadmium Holdings Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Chevron (“Holdings”), Cadmium Merger Sub LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and wholly owned subsidiary of Holdings (the “Merger Sub”), NBLX, and Noble Midstream GP LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and the general partner of NBLX (the “General Partner”). Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Agreement. Pursuant to the Agreement, among other things, Merger Sub will merge with and into NBLX, with NBLX surviving the merger, in a transaction (the “Transaction”) in which each outstanding common unit representing limited partner interests in NBLX (the “NBLX Common Units”) (other than any NBLX Common Units owned by Chevron and its subsidiaries, including NBL Midstream, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Chevron, immediately prior to the Effective Time) will be converted into the right to receive 0.1393 shares (the “Exchange Ratio”) of common stock, par value $0.75 per share, of Chevron (the “Chevron Common Shares”).

In connection with your consideration of the Transaction, you (solely in your capacity as members of the Conflicts Committee of the Board of Directors of the General Partner (the “Committee”)) have asked our opinion, as of the date hereof, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to NBLX and the holders of NBLX Common Units (other than the General Partner, Chevron and their respective affiliates) (the “Unaffiliated Unitholders”), of the Exchange Ratio set forth in the Agreement. We have only opined on the fairness of the Exchange Ratio set forth in the Agreement, from a financial point of view, to NBLX and the Unaffiliated Unitholders. You have not asked us to express, and we are not expressing, any opinion with respect to any of the other financial or non-financial terms, conditions, determinations or actions with respect to the Transaction.

Our opinion does not address, among other things, (i) the relative merits of the Transaction as compared to other business strategies or transactions that might be available to NBLX, (ii) the underlying business decision of NBLX or any other party to proceed with or effect the Transaction or (iii) the terms of any arrangements, understandings, agreements or documents related to, or the form, structure or any other portion or aspect of, the Transaction or otherwise (other than the Exchange Ratio to the extent expressly specified herein). At your direction, we have not been asked to, nor do we, offer any opinion as to the terms, other than the Exchange Ratio to the extent expressly specified herein, of the Agreement or the structure of the Transaction. In rendering this opinion, we have assumed, with your consent and without independent verification, that (i) the final executed form of the Agreement will not differ in any material respect from the draft dated March 4, 2021 that we have reviewed, (ii) the parties thereto will comply with all material terms of the Agreement, (iii) the Transaction will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Agreement without any waiver or amendment of any material term or condition thereof, (iv) the Transaction will have the tax consequences described in discussions with, and materials furnished by, management of the General Partner, and (v) the Exchange Ratio will not be adjusted in accordance with the Agreement or otherwise. We have also assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Transaction will be obtained without any material delay or adverse effect on NBLX or the Transaction.

In rendering our opinion, we have made such reviews, analyses and inquiries as we have deemed necessary and appropriate under the circumstances. In that connection, and subject to the various assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth herein, we have, among other things:

- (a) reviewed certain publicly available information such as annual reports, quarterly reports and other filings of NBLX and Chevron with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission;
- (b) reviewed the historical financial performance, current financial position and general prospects of NBLX and Chevron;
- (c) reviewed certain internal financial and operating information with respect to the business, operations and general prospects of NBLX, including certain financial forecasts prepared by the management of the General Partner;
- (d) discussed the historical financial performance, current financial position and general prospects of NBLX and Chevron with members of the senior management team of the General Partner and Chevron;
- (e) reviewed the draft Agreement, dated March 4, 2021 to the extent applicable to our analysis;
- (f) reviewed certain presentations to the Committee from the management of the General Partner and Chevron;
- (g) reviewed the current and historical price ranges and trading activity of the NBLX Common Units and the Chevron Common Shares;
- (h) to the extent deemed relevant, analyzed information of certain selected publicly traded companies and compared NBLX and Chevron from a financial point of view to these other companies;
- (i) to the extent deemed relevant, analyzed information of certain other selected transactions and compared the Transaction from a financial point of view to these other transactions to the extent information concerning such transactions was available;
- (j) discussed with the Board of Directors and certain members of senior management of the General Partner the strategic aspects of the Transaction, including, but not limited to, past and current business operations, financial condition and prospects (including their views on the risks and uncertainties of achieving their forecasts); and

(k) performed such other analyses and examinations and considered such other information, studies, analyses and inquiries as we deemed necessary.

In performing our review, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to us from public sources, that was provided to us by the General Partner and its representatives or that was otherwise reviewed by us and have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion. We have further relied on the assurances of management of the General Partner that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. We have not been asked to and have not undertaken any independent verification of any of such information and we do not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. For purposes of this opinion, we have not been requested to, and did not, make an independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of NBLX or any of its affiliates or subsidiaries and we have not been furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. We have not made any physical inspection of the properties or assets of NBLX. With respect to the financial forecasts prepared by the management of the General Partner, such management has confirmed that they have been prepared in good faith and reflect the best currently available estimates and judgments of such management of the future financial performance of NBLX. We have assumed such financial projections will be achieved and express no opinion or view as to such financial projections or the assumptions on which they are based or whether if the Transaction were not consummated that performance of NBLX would be consistent with such forecasts. We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Agreement and all related agreements are true and correct, that each party to such agreements will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under such agreements, that the conditions precedent to the Agreement are not waived and that the Transaction will be consummated in a timely manner in accordance with the terms described in the Agreement in the form provided to us without any amendments or modifications thereto.

We express no opinion with respect to the terms of any financing obtained, or to be obtained, by Chevron or NBLX in connection with or following the Transaction, or such financing's impact on NBLX or Chevron, its financial condition, results of operations or cash flows or the price or trading range of the NBLX Common Units or the Chevron Common Shares. Furthermore, we express no opinion as to the price or trading range at which NBLX's or Chevron's securities will trade following the date hereof or as to the effect of the Transaction on such price or trading range, or any earnings or ownership dilutive impact that may result from future issuances of securities by NBLX or Chevron. Such price and trading range may be affected by a number of factors, including but not limited to (i) dispositions of securities of NBLX or Chevron within a short period of time after, or other market effects resulting from, the announcement and/or effective date of the Transaction; (ii) changes in prevailing interest rates and other factors which generally influence the price of securities; (iii) adverse changes in the current capital markets; (iv) the occurrence of adverse changes in the financial condition, business, assets, results of operations or prospects of NBLX or Chevron or in the related industry; (v) other transactions or strategic initiatives that NBLX or Chevron may enter into prior to, concurrent with, or subsequent to, the Transaction; (vi) changes in commodity prices; (vii) any necessary actions by, or restrictions of, federal, state or other governmental agencies or regulatory authorities; and (viii) timely completion of the Transaction on terms and conditions that are acceptable to all parties at interest. Additionally, as you are aware, the financial and stock markets have been experiencing unusual volatility, and we express no opinion or view as to any potential effects of such volatility on the Transaction, NBLX or Chevron, and our opinion does not purport to address potential developments in any such markets.

In each case, we have made the assumptions and taken the actions or inactions described above with the knowledge and consent of the Committee.

We, based on our experience and professional judgment, made qualitative conclusions as to the relevance and significance of each analysis and factor considered by us. Therefore, our analysis must be considered as a whole. Considering any portion of the various analyses and factors reviewed, without bearing in mind all analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying our opinion.

Janney Montgomery Scott LLC, as part of its investment banking business, is engaged in the valuation of companies and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions. We have acted as financial advisor to the Committee in connection with the Transaction, and have participated in certain of the negotiations with respect thereto, and will receive a fee for our services, one half of which is payable upon substantial completion of certain services to be performed in connection with our provision of advisory services and the second half of which is contingent upon the successful completion of the Transaction. We will also receive a fee for rendering this opinion (which fee is not contingent on the successful completion of the Transaction or the conclusions expressed herein). The Committee has agreed to reimburse certain of our expenses and to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement as financial advisor to the Committee and rendering this opinion. We are a full service securities firm. As such, in the ordinary course of our business, we may from time to time provide investment banking, advisory, brokerage and other services to clients that may be competitors or suppliers to, or customers or security holders of, NBLX, Chevron, the General Partner or other parties to the Transaction, or that may otherwise participate or be involved in the same or a similar business or industry as NBLX, Chevron or the General Partner or other parties to the Transaction or may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of NBLX or Chevron for our own account or for the accounts of customers. Except as described herein, there are no other material relationships that existed during the two years prior to the date hereof or that are mutually understood to be contemplated in which any compensation was received or is intended to be received as a result of the relationship between us and any party to the Transaction. We may provide investment banking services to NBLX, Chevron, the General Partner or their affiliates in the future, for which we would seek customary compensation.

Our conclusion is rendered on the basis of market, economic and other conditions prevailing as of the date hereof and on the conditions and prospects, financial and otherwise, of NBLX and Chevron, as they exist and are known to us on the date hereof, and we assume no responsibility for updating, revising or reaffirming this opinion based on circumstances, developments or events occurring after the date hereof. Our opinion is furnished solely for the use and benefit of the Committee in connection with its consideration of the Transaction, and does not constitute a recommendation as to the advisability of the Transaction. Our opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to NBLX and the Unaffiliated Unitholders, of the Exchange Ratio set forth in the Agreement, and does not address the fairness of the Transaction to, or any consideration received in connection therewith by, or the amount or nature of any compensation to be paid or payable to any of the officers, directors or employees of NBLX, or class of such persons, whether relative to the Exchange Ratio or otherwise. We are not expressing any opinion as to the impact of the Transaction on the solvency or viability of NBLX, any of the other parties to the Agreement or their ability to pay their debts when they become due. This opinion should not be construed as creating any fiduciary duty on our part to any party. Except as permitted under the terms of the engagement letter dated February 18, 2021, this opinion shall not be reproduced, disseminated, quoted or referred to without Janney's prior written consent, such consent to not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned; provided, that this opinion may be reproduced in any public document relating to the Transaction filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (each such document, a "Filing"), so long as this opinion is reproduced in such Filing in its entirety and any description of or reference to Janney Montgomery Scott LLC, and the summary of such opinion and the analysis underlying the opinion included in such Filing, is required to be included in such Filing by applicable securities or other laws and regulations and is in form and substance reasonably acceptable to Janney and Janney's legal counsel, which acceptance will not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or condition. Furthermore, no opinion, counsel or interpretation is intended in matters that require legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance, tax or other similar professional advice. It is assumed that such opinions, counsel or interpretations have been or will be obtained from the appropriate professional sources. Furthermore, we have relied, with your consent, on the assessments by the Committee and its advisers, as to all legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance and tax matters with respect to NBLX, the Committee and the Transaction. This opinion has been approved by our fairness opinion committee, none of the members of which are involved in providing financial advisory services on our behalf to the Committee in connection with the Transaction.

On the basis of and subject to the foregoing, including the various assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth herein, we are of the opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Exchange Ratio set forth in the Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to NBLX and the Unaffiliated Unitholders.

PART II
INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Officers and Directors.

Section 145(a) of the DGCL provides that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

Section 145(b) of the DGCL states that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which the person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Delaware Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the Delaware Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

Section 145(c) of the DGCL provides that to the extent that a present or former director or officer of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections (a) and (b) of Section 145, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

Section 145(d) of the DGCL states that any indemnification under subsections (a) and (b) of Section 145 (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the present or former director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because the person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in subsections (a) and (b) of Section 145. Such determination shall be made with respect to a person who is a director or officer at the time of such determination (1) by a majority vote of the directors who are not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, even though less than a quorum, (2) by a committee of such directors designated by majority vote of such directors, even though less than a quorum, (3) if there are no such directors, or if such directors so direct, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (4) by the stockholders.

Section 145(f) of the DGCL states that the indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, the other subsections of Section 145 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office.

Section 145(g) of the DGCL provides that a corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under the provisions of Section 145.

Section 145(j) of the DGCL states that the indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, Section 145 shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

In addition, Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL permits Delaware corporations to include a provision in their certificates of incorporation eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, provided that such provisions shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director: (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders; (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (iii) for unlawful payment of dividends or unlawful stock purchases or redemptions; or (iv) for any transactions from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. Chevron's Charter includes such a provision.

Chevron's Bylaws also provide that any present or former director or officer of Chevron, or any person who, while serving as a director or officer of Chevron, is or was serving at the request of Chevron as a director, officer, manager, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other organization or enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans maintained or sponsored by Chevron, shall be indemnified by Chevron as of right to the full extent permitted by the DGCL against any liability, cost or expense asserted against and incurred by such person by reason of his or her serving in such capacity. This right to indemnification includes the right to be paid the expenses incurred in defending any action, suit or proceeding in advance of its final disposition. Chevron also maintains policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance which insures its directors against the cost of defense, settlement or payment of a judgment under certain circumstances.

The Merger Agreement provides that Chevron and NBLX (as the surviving entity of the Merger) will honor the provisions regarding elimination of liability of officers and directors, indemnification of officers, directors and employees and advancement of expenses contained in the organizational documents of NBLX and the General Partner immediately prior to the Effective Time and ensure that the organizational documents of NBLX and the General Partner or any of their respective successors or assigns, if applicable, will, for a period of six years following the Effective Time, contain provisions no less favorable with respect to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation of present and former directors, officers and employees of NBLX and the General Partner than are presently set forth in such organizational documents. In addition, NBLX, as the surviving entity, or Chevron on behalf of NBLX as the surviving entity, will maintain in effect for six years from the Effective Time NBLX's current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies covering acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time with respect to such indemnified persons, provided that in no event will NBLX as the surviving entity or Chevron, as applicable, be required to expend more than an amount per year equal to 300% of current annual premiums paid by NBLX for such insurance.

Item 22. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:
 - (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
 - (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i), (a)(1)(ii), and (a)(1)(iii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is a part of the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser: if the registrant is subject to Rule 430C, each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of a registration statement relating to an offering, other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.

(5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities: The undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;

(iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and

(iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

(6) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(7) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(8) That every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (7) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(9) To respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of this registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(10) To supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in this registration statement when it became effective.

(b) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act, the registrant has duly caused this registration statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the City of San Ramon, State of California, on March 22, 2021.
